CHECKING OUT BOOKS THIS YEAR

Good news! The Elida Middle School Library is ready for students to check out books. We have updated our processes and procedures to promote health and safety to all students and staff members using the library. This school year, students will request books using our online catalog and Mr. Short will special deliver books to each homeroom. Students can even check out books at home! To learn more about our new process, visit our school website and select "ELIDA District Libraries" under the Departments tab on the homepage!

Share a book review with your classmates!

If you have recently read a fantastic book, submit a book review to the library to be published in a future newsletter! All you have to do is write down your name, the book title, author and a short paragraph of the reason you loved the book on a piece of paper. Turn the review in to Mr. Short at the library and you may be featured in the next newsletter.
