MIDDLE SCHOOL LIBRARIAN: MR. SHORT

Hello Elida Bulldogs! This month has been busy in the library. We have only a few days left of the Scholastic Book Fair. Even though we couldn't have an in-person fair this year, you can still support the library by shopping our online fair! Each book that is purchased gives our library Scholastic dollars to spend on new books and cool STEM activities for the middle school. You have until November 15th to shop and support!

We have some great new books featured this month.

- 2 new releases from the Wings of Fire series
- Mythology and car books
- Karen Kingsbury's Baxter Family Series
- New graphic novels, NOISE and Astronauts
- The popular sequel, The One and Only Bob

Mrs. Turner's Pick of the Month!

"Stargazing is such a great graphic novel that focuses on how even the best friendships can face challenges. The characters show raw emotions while trying to navigate the real world and their differences."
