Editor's Statement:

This year's edition of Hinsdale South High School's Illusions Art Magazine is the first under my direction and I am proud of my staff's determination to get you this magazine during these hard times. This year's concept was inspired by the world's biggest pop-art artists. Along with selecting the artwork in this magazine, we have studied the works of Andy Warhol, Keith Haring, Jeff Koons, and Roy Lichtenstein. We have compiled the student artwork through the means of contests, art shows, and teacher submissions. To submit to Illusions and have a chance to get your work published in next year's magazine talk to your art teachers.

Due to the COVID-19 crisis, we had to hold meetings and assemble the magazine virtually this year. Although we will release this year's edition mainly electronically, we will also have a small print run. So look out for it! Though this has been challenging, I am proud of the 42nd edition of Hinsdale South High School's Illusions Magazine. Enjoy!
