MORE Laws for Teen Drivers

16-year-old drivers may not drive between 11 p.m. and 6 a.m. unless going to or from work, or unless they have a licensed driver who is at least 21 years old in the front seat with them.

17-year-old drivers may not drive between 1 a.m. and 5 a.m. unless going to or from work, or unless they have a licensed driver who is at least 21 year old in the front seat with them.

15, 16, or 17-year-old drivers who accumulate six points on their driving record within a 12-month period will have their license restricted for one year. This period is extended 90 days for each additional point accumulated during the restriction.

Anyone under 21 who drives with a blood or breath alcohol level of .02 or greater will have his or her license suspended immediately for six months for the first offense and for one year for subsequent offenses. A refusal to submit to a test brings an automatic suspension for one year for the first refusal and for 18 years for the subsequent refusals.

EVERYONE must wear a seat belt while driving or riding in a motor vehicle!

STAY IN SCHOOL

You could lose your license if you drop out of school. IT'S THE LAW. If you are under 18 years of age, you must be enrolled in and attend school regularly in order to get your license and maintain your driving privilege.
