Teacher Leadership Certificate (TLC) Program Information

A partnership between the Department of Educational Leadership & Research Methodology (ELRM) and the Department of Curriculum, Culture, and Educational Inquiry (CCEI)

PROGRAM FEATURES:

- One-year program
- Fully online
- Teacher-driven action research using data to improve student achievement
- Preparation to take on leadership roles

Program Overview

The Teacher Leadership Certificate Program is designed to provide the essential tools teachers need to be knowledgeable, reflective, and ethical educators. This innovative program fosters leadership development through an interactive set of experiences that include sound theoretical and "best practice" knowledge, problem-based coursework and field-based experiences. Program graduates are empowered to become teacher leaders who are committed to making schools culturally relevant, just, and supportive learning environments for all students.

Admission Requirements

Applicants should have at least one year of teaching experience, plus ready access to a K-12 classroom. The application process includes:

- Submission of a goal statement
- Official transcripts of an undergraduate or graduate degree; and
- Current teaching certificate or equivalent teaching experience.
