COMMENTS

Rosetta Stone Language Awards Breakfast by Kim Zawilski

Alison Rosen, Gary Bowman, Mary Percoski and I celebrated the accomplishments of 44 of our CMP Shingle Springs students who completed a full level of their chosen Rosetta Stone Language this year. We honored these students with an International Breakfast featuring "French" Toast, "Canadian" Bacon, etc. In addition, each student received a goodie bag filled with treats from around the world!

Executive Director Gary Bowman asked the students about the benefits of using a program like Rosetta Stone, and here were some of their responses:

- It lets us choose from a wide variety of languages
- We get to learn at our own pace
- We can pick a language that is used in a country we might be traveling to or where we have relatives
- We can use the program at home
- We couldn't afford to hire the number of foreign language teachers that we would need to offer ALL of these languages

Kudos to these students on their accomplishments!
