COMMENTS

We've had a great start to the year at CMP Carmichael! Our community-wide events (Meet and Greet, New Parent Orientation, Back to School Nights) supported a smooth and successful transition for students and parents as we started the school year. As I visit classrooms, I see that normalization is well underway and observe students engaged in learning and their community.

This week, teachers will hold the second session of Initial Parent Meetings. These meetings have been very well received by the community and are such a positive way to begin the year, as they aid in having a strong connection between home and school.

I look forward to seeing everyone next week at the Carmichael campus!
