COMMENTS

CMP Shingle Springs has had a busy and productive March. The teachers held parent-teacher-student conferences, where the students shared their portfolios, talked about their successes, and set goals with their teachers and parents. It was a rewarding experience for all.

After their conferences were held, students took their parents to see the "Wish Lists" they had compiled at the campus Scholastic Book Faire. This Spring's Book Faire was "Dino-mite", and the kids absolutely loved it. They were treated to carline greetings by bigger than life dinosaurs, and strolled through the Book Fair hosted by our very own Dinosaur Mom, Tanya. The dinosaur bone excavation site, the volcano entrance, and the interior caves added to the whole experience. This year's Book Fair sales totaled $10,935.34! This equated to $7,412.29 for our campus in Scholastic Dollars. In addition, we were able to raise $1,502.83 with our 'All For Books' program.
