COMMENTS

The Elk Grove Campus recently celebrated the International Day of Peace. Below, please find a picture of just one example of how the classes shared their commitment to Peace. On that same day, the students, families, staff, and even some alumni came together at the Elk Grove Park for our Annual Family Picnic/Clothing Swap. This is one of our favorite annual events. Families come together to just “be”. It was an opportunity for folks to get to know one another, meet their children’s friends from school, and to relax in a fun atmosphere. For the month of October, the campus is focusing on Perseverance. Students participated in our monthly trait assembly and class discussions will focus on the importance of perseverance. The campus is also preparing for its’ Annual Harvest Festival and Scholastic Book Fair. One of our two big fundraisers, the Harvest Festival will be held on October 12th from 4:00 to 7:00. Families are invited to play carnival like games, enjoy music, participate in the Chili Cook-Off, and partake in a silent auction. It will definitely be a fun time for all. Lastly, this month we will also be celebrating Red Ribbon Week. Our theme this year is “Life is Your Journey: Travel Drug Free!”
