COMMENTS

We enjoyed a very special presentation about being an Eco Hero. A local educator received a grant to provide lessons on caring for our environment and happily shared his program through slides, videos, and music. Our K-3rd grade audience really appreciated the performance and the tips on being good stewards of our Earth.

As we gear up for our March 18th Science Expo, our K/1 students are thoroughly enjoying the hands-on science experiments being conducted by their teachers!
