COMMENTS

CMP Shingle Springs is busy with holiday festivals, winter performances, and our first annual VAPA Art Night. Students are enjoying learning about the ways that cultures around the world celebrate at this time of year. They are also enjoying some of the local customs and traditions in special after-school events, such as Gingerbread House making projects and Holiday Movie parties. The school is an annual site for the Toys for Tots program and students are enjoying the feeling of coming together as a community to give to other children in the local area.

The CMP Holiday Card Art Contest was a big event on campus, and we are proud to share that our campus's holiday art winner, Maya B., was joined by two other students who received Honorable Mentions and a special gift for their art contributions (a first ever for CMP!). Maya's art will be featured front and center on this year's CMP Holiday Card. The picture at the right shows how excited each of our artists was about their accomplishments!
