COMMENTS

We thoroughly enjoyed our dual re-accreditation visit from the American Montessori Society (AMS) and the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC). The team spent the last four days visiting our classrooms, meeting with our student, parent and staff stakeholders, and reviewing all of the evidence we compiled for their review. Their feedback was quite heartwarming; they described our program as "phenomenal" and our team as "superior". They also noted that student leadership is very strong, especially in Middle School. We were also quite honored that they noted that the culture of our school is positive, open, engaged, passionate, and committed.

It is such a pleasure to see our dedication to our Montessori program recognized by such esteemed guests from all over the country. We also look forward to seeing two of our Visiting Team's Montessori colleagues again at next week's AMS Conference in San Diego!
