HUMAN RESOURCES

COMMENTS:

Our 9-12 students attended a special assembly/workshop conducted by the non-profit group, A Touch of Understanding. They had a firsthand experience of what it's like to use a wheelchair, walking stick, do Braille, as well as, hear individuals talk about their specific challenges and how they go about their daily lives. It definitely provided awareness, and compassion and respect for all human beings. This tied in really well with the theme for the month which is respect.

We had our Annual Book Fair and it was very successful.

The teachers are busy preparing for the Parent Teacher Conferences and are working on the students' progress reports. At the end of the month, we will celebrate Red Ribbon Week and we will have a Police Officer Avila and Fireman Frank talk about Stranger Danger, making good choices and being drug free.

We will have our Annual Harvest Festival on November 6th from 4-7 PM.
