Campus Happenings:

The parents, staff, and especially the students, will be excited when we return from winter break to find swings installed. Funds have been raised for the past few years for this project, and at last we have enough to cover the costs.

The next decision is the fence to enclose the school grounds. Currently the amount needed for both sides of the school costs more than is available between fundraising and LCAP funds. Estimates for sections of the fence are being drawn up by the school architect so we can decide how to proceed.

Last year's Intel Grant award for PC Pals will go towards the purchase of additional Chrome Books for one of the classrooms, so all of the upper elementary classes has them. That classes laptops will then be available for the 2nd/3rd graders.

The campus has settled in nicely, with Normalization past and parent volunteers now assisting in the classrooms, and several field trips taking place.

I, too, am settled in, and enjoying getting to know the families, students, and the wonderful Orangevale staff.
