It is hard to believe that we are beginning the month of May! Students, teachers, and families are busily preparing for our Annual Art Walk on May 11th. A wonderful community event, student artwork is on display for all to enjoy. Additionally, classes create a piece of artwork that will be part of a silent auction. Classes are also preparing for the upcoming Mother’s Day celebrations and Parent Appreciation breakfasts. May 12th, the Elk Grove Campus will be hosting its annual LCAP meetings. Parents, students and staff will all have an opportunity to provide feedback as Mr. Gary joins our campus for the day. May is certainly a month of celebration and appreciation at the Elk Grove Campus. Administration and Teaching Staff have been celebrated and showered with appreciation from children, families, and each other these first two weeks of May. It has been a wonderful way to start winding down the school year! take place in downtown Sacramento on May 1st! In addition to the wonderful upcoming fieldtrips, teachers and students are beginning their reparations for our Annual Spring Scholastic Book Fair and Art Walk in May. And lastly, but certainly not least, our character trait for the month that we will be celebrating at our upcoming BEST assemblies is PERSERVERANCE.
