

Napoleon

Napoleonic Wars. The European Library. Images of battles, portraits, maps, and more. http://www.theeuropeanlibrary.org/exhibition/napoleonic_wars/index.html

Center for History & New Media & City University of New York, George Mason University. Liberty, Equality, Fraternity: Exploring the French Revolution; includes essays, images, text documents, songs, maps, timeline). Includes wide range of material relating to Napoleon. <http://chnm.gmu.edu/revolution/>

Napoleonic Wars. United States Military Academy, West Point. Maps, maps, and more maps. <http://www.westpoint.edu/history/sitepages/napoleonic%20wars.aspx>

Timeline: Revolutionary & Napoleonic Wars, 1782 -1815. University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Extensive timeline entries detailing both military and political events. <http://www.unc.edu/nbi/texte/NBITimeline.pdf>

Napoleonic Satires. Brown University. Annotated images, essays, timeline. <http://library.brown.edu/cds/napoleon/>

Images of Napoleon and British Fears of Invasion, 1789 – 1815. Oxford University. Annotated political cartoons indexed by title and subject. <http://www2.odl.ox.ac.uk/gsd/cgi-bin/library?site=localhost&a=p&p=about&c=politi04&ct=0&l=en&w=iso-8859-1>

Napoleonic Period Collection. University of Washington. Annotated English and French political cartoons. <http://content.lib.washington.edu/napoleonweb/index.html>

“Napoleon’s Account of the Internal Situation of France in 1804.” Hanover Historical Texts Project, Hanover College. Primary source document. <http://history.hanover.edu/texts/NAPOLEON.html>

K. A. Meier

May 2016