XV. RECOGNITIONS

2021 GOVERNOR’S SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Twenty-five OCS juniors have been invited to participate in the 2021 Governor’s Scholars Program. Additionally, three juniors have been chosen as alternates from each high school. Selection for the Governor's Scholars Program is highly competitive, with an application process similar to distinguished colleges and universities.

These students will attend a five-week summer program hosted by Centre College, Morehead State University, and Bellarmine University. During the program, students will choose an area of study and learn with others from across the state. In addition to the summer program, each student is eligible to receive scholarships to any in-state public university within the state of Kentucky, as well as a handful of private institutions.
