Vernon's July in the Sky fireworks celebration postponed to Wednesday

(VERNON, Connecticut) – The annual July in the Sky fireworks spectacular and community celebration scheduled for Tuesday, July 12, 2022, in Downtown Rockville and Henry Park has been postponed to Wednesday, July 13, which is the advertised rain date.

Due to a forecast of thunderstorms and heavy rain at times Tuesday evening, Town officials, after consulting with their meteorological service, decided to move the event to Wednesday.

Public safety is what is driving the decision to delay July in the Sky by one day. Wednesday's forecast is for clear, dry weather, which will ensure a safe and enjoyable event for all.
