“It was an easy decision for me to make a bequest to Shanahan. Over the years, Bishop Shanahan became my surrogate family. Today, many former students, families and faculty members are my dearest and closest friends. In leaving a legacy, it is my fervent desire and wish that Bishop Shanahan can and will continue its Catholic mission in Chester County.”

- Bob Degnan, 1937 - 2014

“Deciding to become a member of The Shanahan Society was an easy decision for me. As a graduate and now as a teacher at Shanahan, I have had the opportunity to see the necessity of teaching the values and character that are an integral part of a Catholic school education during the most formative and vulnerable time of a child’s life. If I can provide that opportunity to only one child whose family otherwise would not have had the resources, I will have made an investment in the future of our Church and the world which is badly in need of Gospel values.”
