Get ready for the weekend with a few rousing rounds of dodgeball! It's the end of winter and instead of watching your kids bounce off the walls, let them bounce a few balls off the walls (and their classmates). Sportsmanship will be stressed. Program underwritten by Aroma Joe's.

Winter
Writing Contest

Eligibility

Any student in grades 5 -8. The contest is open now but the deadline is Thursday February 15th (this is just before February vacation). There will be a winner from each grade, as well as an overall winner. Certificates for each participants and token rewards for the winners. Submit entries to Mr. Hickey in room 102 or his mail box in the main office.

Category Description: Letters About Literature.

1. select a book about which you have strong feelings
2. Image sitting down with the author and sharing your personal thoughts. More like a private conversation rather than a book report or a fan letter.
3. Share specific details about the book and about your reaction to the book.
4. Keep in mind that this is a reflective writing contest and that means you need to think about what you read and the meaning you gleaned from the author's words.
5. Type your entry.

Activity model after the Library of Congress - Read. Be Inspired. Write Back.

Forward any questions to Mr. Hickey at hickeyt@rsu5.org

Thank you and Good luck.

Happy Valentine's Day
