Summer Reading Assignment for Students Entering 7th Grade 2022 – 2023

1. Students entering seventh grade in September are required to read a biography or an autobiography that is on grade level and of personal interest. A sports figure, historical figure, singer, or political figures are some possibilities.

2. Students are then required to complete a Newspaper Project to share your information. See project details attached.

Overview of Project:

- As you read your book, take notes on what you consider to be important, relevant information. Record dates where possible.
- When you finish reading, use a template to write a newspaper including all the sections listed in the directions.
- Be sure to answer all the questions in each feature.
- The newspaper should contain clear sections and headlines, complete sentences, and appropriate pictures.
- The newspaper may be submitted via email to your teacher any time after the first day of school (Thursday, September 1st).
 - Teachers will provide students with their emails on the first day. They are also available on the school website. Further explanation and directions concerning submissions will be given the first week of school.
