- Terms: You will comply at all times with the Durant School District's Mobile Computing Handbook and Acceptable Use Policy, incorporated herein by reference and made a part hereof for all purposes. Any failure to comply may terminate your rights of possession effective immediately and the District may repossess the property. Students shall have no reasonable expectation of privacy in the device and the District, in its sole discretion, can review the contents of the device at any time.
- Title: Legal title to the property is in the District and shall at all times remain in the District. Your right of possession and use is limited to and conditioned upon your full and complete compliance with this Agreement and the Mobile Computing Handbook.
- Loss or Damage: If the property is intentionally damaged, you are responsible for the reasonable cost of repair or its fair market value on the date of damage. Loss or theft of the property must be reported to the District by the next school day after the occurrence and a police report must be filed, or you will be responsible for the fair market value replacement.

A table of estimated pricing for a variety of repairs is included in the Mobile Computing Handbook to which reference is hereby made. Seniors must clear all records and pay all fees before participating in graduation ceremonies.
- Repossession: If you do not timely and fully comply with all terms of this Agreement and the Mobile Computing Handbook, including the timely return of the property, the District shall be entitled to declare you in default and come to your place of residence, or other location of the property, to take possession of the property. The District in its sole discretion, shall determine if a violation of this Agreement and the Mobile Computing Handbook has occurred. The District's determination shall be conclusive.
- Terms of Agreement: Your right to use and possession of the property terminates no later than the last day of the school year unless earlier terminated by the District or upon withdrawal from the District.
- Appropriation: Your failure to timely return the property and the continued use of it for non-school purposes without the District's consent may be considered unlawful appropriation of the District's property.
