you are serving. Colossians 3:23,24b

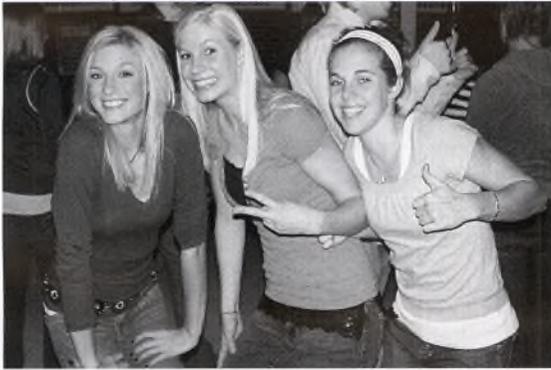

Hiem

But seek first his kingdom
and his righteousness, and all these things
will be given to you
as well.

Matthew 6:33

Ben Schemper and his jungle friends put together a last minute routine to the song "In the Jungle." He said, "I'm so glad I got to use my gorilla suit. I don't get to use it enough!"

"At the Hop" was my favorite song," said Audie Smith. The freshmen enjoyed their first year on stage.

The teachers prepared an animated rendition of the classic "Rhyming Song They were good at being nerds... maybe a little too good?"

"Look at all them truckers. They're so smart. They can count in Roman numerals," - Peter Hegel. Some boys took advantage of the trucker theme and revealed their white legs in short-shorts.

Sophomore boys, Kyle and Dane, entertain the crowd with their interesting choice of costume. The whole crowd roared with laughter when they tripped and fell on stage Friday night.

This year a family tradition was passed down. Rebecca Dirkse performed as Little White Dove this year and just four years before, her sister performed as Running Bear. "It was fun following in my sister's footsteps."-Rebecca Dirkse

"It's a lot of work, but standing on the stage singing "Goodnight Irene" makes up for all the late nights," said Jorie Ellens. She, Aaron Bardolph and Courtney Bobko were the co-chairs of the 2006-2007 Fine Arts Committee.

Mr. VanderKamp joins his stylishly-dressed small group for the song "You're Never Fully Dressed Without a Smile."

The lonely goatherd and his true love yo-da-le-he-hoed into the hearts of the audience. Every year Mr. Roelofs and Mr. Snoeyink please the crowd with their hilarious acts.

octoberfest

octoberpast- revisiting the classics

Jeff Hayley, Brandon Buikema, and Steve Ridolphi show off their chiseled muscles while singing to the song, "Macho Man."

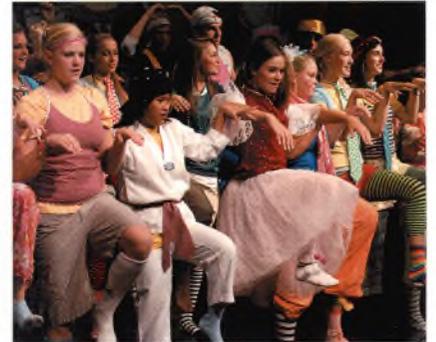

- Skipping half of the co-chair song on Friday.
- "Tuck in your chains"
- "You will be dismissed from class, you'll come over here and take off your clothes..."
- Aaron's long pep-talks during practice
- Truckers and superheroes
- Fighting over "Goodnight Irene" verses ophomore ladies pause to smile for the camera before running onstage for their next performance. They were well prepared for their small group song, "I'm Five."

The Fine Arts Committee dedicated their Saturday before the performances to paint the vibrant sets. "It amazes me how every year kids come together in what seems to be total chaos, yet after two or three hours it is all done and looks great."
-Mr. Hartgerink

The juniors get ready to begin their song with their Kung Fu poses. "I had gum in my mouth, and when I said 'hahl', it flew out!"
- Candace Wieringa

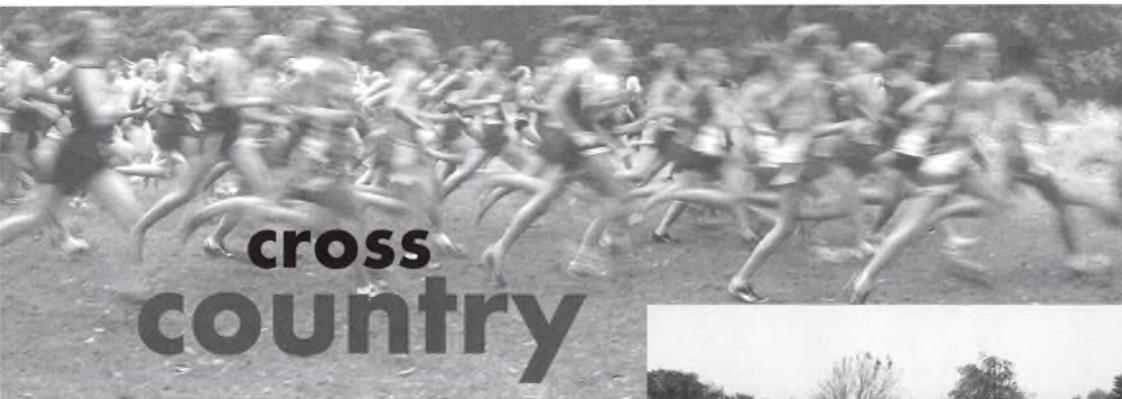

It is tradition for the freshmen to start off the evening with the first song. This year the song, "Shout!" was chosen to energize the audience and participants.

Many of the senior guys took their costumes to the next level, including Dan Woldman, who dressed up as Scooby-Doo. He said, "It was the best of times, it wasn't the worst of times. Octoberfest was awesome."

Junior John Randle was a busy bee putting a smile on the faces of young and old with his creative outfit choice.

cross country

- "It's White."
- "Ooo Ooo Oo!" (Elevation)
- "I can't tie my shoes, woo woo!"
- TP-ing downstate
- Evan Jager
- The Westmont Sentinel
- Shooting Bits O' Honey
- Munson Burner
- One, Two, Three, Varsity!
- ISU trip
- Bible Whispering

The team stretches out and puts on their spikes before they run at Westmont on the wet and muddy course.

Getting pumped and ready, the girls' team does their stride outs before the big race.

The focused and determined girls do their stride outs before the nerve wrecking sectional race at Lisle.

The girls team embraces as they pray before a nerve-racking race through the woods at the Aurora Central Catholic course.

Tom Speulda and Mark Zylstra running side by side, pulling each other along.

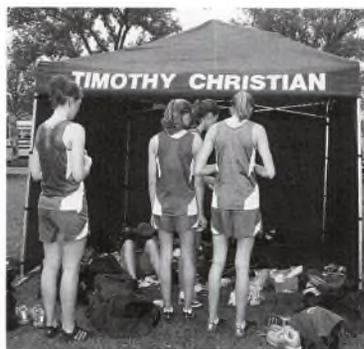

Natalie Kuick is congratulated after a long hard race at Riverside Brookfield by Coach Zylstra.

"I don't remember seeing that kid at tryouts!" -Ben Dykema

Dan Waldman and Ben Dykema easily lift their senior girls, Anna Swierenga and Alexis Euwema, while Matt Benjamin, Tom Speulda, and Luke Bosman stand with style.

The girls come back to the tent after a long and invigorating race. Resting in the shade and eating their post race snacks, the ladies get some rest so they can later cheer on the boys.

Stretching out on a new course, the girls talk about the hills and water hazards.

The stunning and beautiful cross country team poses at Westmont with Matt lying in front and giving a thumbs up.

"The course was a lot different from what we're used to. Running at a new course, Catherine Leggie Memorial Park, is usually difficult. At one point we had to run through a river and afterward my socks were soaking." -Anna Swierenga Kristin VanKampen lengthens her stride as she helps pull Anna Boot in for the uphill finish.

Bosman braves the cold and wind as she leads down the beaten grass path, leading fellow teammates and runners.

The boys discuss the details of the course while stretching and getting mentally prepared.

Dan Woldman leads the boys' pack down the home stretch of the long 3 mile run.

"The size of our team makes it feel like a second family." -Matt Benjamin

beauty and the beast

Tale as Old as Time

- "Don't kill the beast!"
- Peter pretending he has chest hair
- Babette molting
- "Oh, Chip"
- Jon pulling his face off
- Falling down steps and walking through doors
- Babette swept off her feet by Lumiere
- Marissa Hegel flirting with her brother

Maurice tells his daughter that he cares about her no matter what. "It was really strange how last year I was Amanda's son in The Sound of Music and this year I was her father in Beauty and the Beast," commented Dan Ziegler.

Gaston and Lefou tell D'arque their evil plan. "Conveying villainy is all in the fingers. Even when portraying an obscure character like D'arque (the cast didn't know who I was until opening night) if you use your fingers you can't go wrong," said Dan Miller.

Beauty teaches the Beast how to dance. "This was a really exciting musical. It was so great that the seniors got to go out with such a fun musical," said Amanda Bulhuis who did an outstanding job as Belle.

The town's people talk and drink in the tavern while waiting for Gaston to come. This scene was right before one of the favorite parts of the musical... the cup dance. The cup dance and the "Be our Guest" dances were choreographed by the talented Paula Barclay.

Babette and Lumiere dance in "Be our Guest." They almost cut out Aaron's solo until one dress rehearsal when the band kept playing and Aaron started to sing and dance. It was so good they just had to keep it in.

Mrs. Potts and Chip sing together. The costumes this year were amazing but they were really hard to move in. One night Aaron, Heidi and J.D. were back stage when J.D. dropped his towel. Nobody could reach it. After a while Heidi was able to get it on her foot and kick it up to Aaron who caught it and gave it to J.D. Then they could go on stage.

The enchanted objects sing together. Heidi McAuley said, "It was awesome to work with the other enchanted objects. The song "Human Again" was a blast, and it felt so good when we finally were human again!"

Belle comes to the castle and meets her first enchanted objects, the "two old English teachers who turned into castle doors." Mr. Day and Mr. Wolterstorff often like to appear somewhere in a play or musical. As Cogsworth said, "The keepers of knowledge have become the keepers of the castle."

ORCHESTRA

Ellen Angelico (bass) Courtney Bobko (clarinet)
 Rita Clousing (cello) Sarah Cranmer (flute)
 Ana DeJong (oboe) Aaron Foster (percussion)
 Matt Groters (violin) Hillary Hempel (violin)
 Will Roelofs (French horn) Grace Sianghia (keyboards)

Belle helps the injured beast after he saves her from the wolves. Jon had to wear a lot of makeup to become a beast. "My face evolved from night to night, started looking like a car accident victim, but by the end we had it figured out and I looked good."

Ben Schemper as Lefou sings about what a guy Gaston is to cheer him up. Ben was hilarious and he always got a great laugh especially when he tried to think about where he had found his scarf.

Gaston tells his three silly girls that Belle is playing hard to get. They realize that Belle turned him down and that they have a better chance with him now. Almost every night Caroline, Heather and Marissa were called upon to pick up random objects on the stage like a rose, because they had been left there.

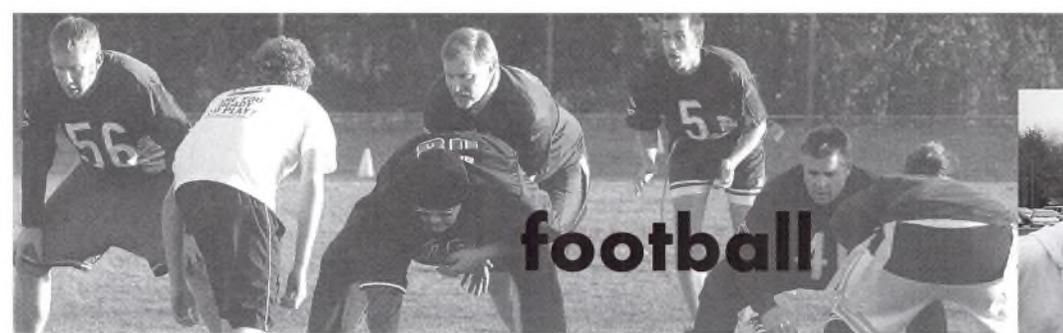

The wonderful pit orchestra was always trying to keep up with all of the cues. Some of the cast didn't use the same lines twice in a row which kept the orchestra on their toes.

The wardrobe played by Jessica Stob is ready for battle. It took three people to help her get her costume on because it had to be lifted over her head. Once she was in the costume she almost always stayed in the costume because it was so hard to get on and off.

The cast of Beauty and the Beast worked extremely hard to prepare, but they were not alone. Much of the magic was created behind the scenes by the many wonderful volunteers that included teachers, parents, and students.

football

- Faculty wins again
- Whatever happened to the underclassmen in Powder Puff ?
- Mr. Slager helps ref. the Senior-Faculty game
- Senior girls win 36 to 6.
- Whatever happened to the senior boys?

Denisse , Elizabeth, Tricia, Jackie and Dana scare off the underclassmen by putting on their ferocious looks during the Powder Puff game.

Dan Roelofs finally breaking away from the grip, only then to be stalled by Mr. Taming.

Natalie Kuick and Jessie Easley being equally matched, fight to hold each other back.

Senior girls huddle-up during the girls Powder Puff game. They dominated the opposition 36 to 6.

"Of course we won! I mean we are the senior class," says Jessica Grow, boasting of the senior class's victory during the Powder Puff football game.

The senior boys rejoice over their first big touchdown.

The untouchable Mr. Taming making his way to his next touchdown.

Quick words of advice and warning go out in the senior huddle before the big game. "They're ancient. We lost playing to dinosaurs," said senior Jared Sterenberg.

Like father like son, Dan Roelofs and Mr. Roelofs with the starting handshake.

iv soccer

Taylor Slager (far left) dribbles the ball up the field preparing to dodge any opposing players. The team worked hard this year on ball handling and control.

Nathan Middel sends the ball upfield. "This year was played at a fast pace and was a real step up from 8th grade soccer," he said.

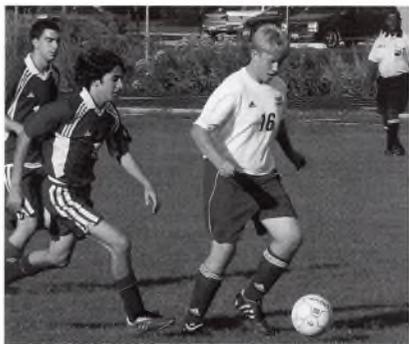

Jon Voss makes an amazing pass to his teammate. Being a captain this year, he was a great help to the other players on the team.

- Justin Vanderee randomly sings Rihanna in practice
- The killer plyos
- The terrible warm-up music

Josh Hjelmgren played great defense this year for the team. He helped take pressure off the team's goalie, Aaron Foster.

David Kuenzi fights hard for the possession of the ball.

"We really worked hard on getting in shape this season. It helped our team's stamina during a lot of the games," comments Brad Wieringa.

Justin Groenewold sprints with the ball away from the tight pressure of the other teams defense.

In need of a goal, the team hopes that Cooper is able to pull through without falling. "One day at practice, we were doing this drill, and Senor threw the ball to me. As I was going to kick the ball, my foot somehow got caught on top of the ball and I completely wiped out!" - Cooper Venema

- All- Conference, PSL- Jared Sterenberg (2nd selection), Jake and Ben Schemper
- Played 2 of final 4 Class AA teams in the Pepsi Showdown
- Jake Schemper- All-Sectional IHSSCA, honorable mention
- Heart wrenching loss to Somonauk in Sectional final game
- Double overtime matches against Wheaton and Illiana
- 9 wins- 11 losses (overall), 3 wins- 3 losses (PSL) but only one loss to a Class A team all season

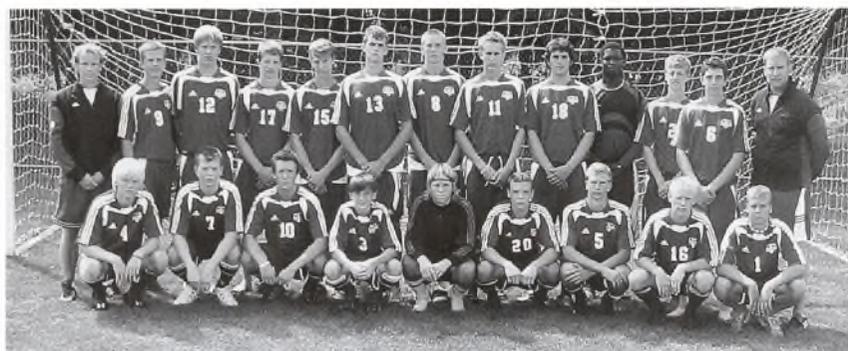

Jake wins a ball out of the air against Lincoln Way East in the Pepsi Showdown.

Ben Schemper, a captain of the varsity team for two years, had a ton of fun during the season. "This was the best soccer season ever, mainly because of the great guys who were on the team. I'm really gonna miss them next year."

While watching Ben playing unstoppable defense, Tim looks on hoping Ben proves the defense's motto: "Defenders, we're awesome"

Matt Venhousen fights to take control of the ball. Matt remembers, "One day during practice Senor was talking, but none of us were paying attention because we were busy watching a flock of geese flying against the wind, and doing barrel rolls for a long time. Senor got a little upset that we were all laughing and not paying attention to him."

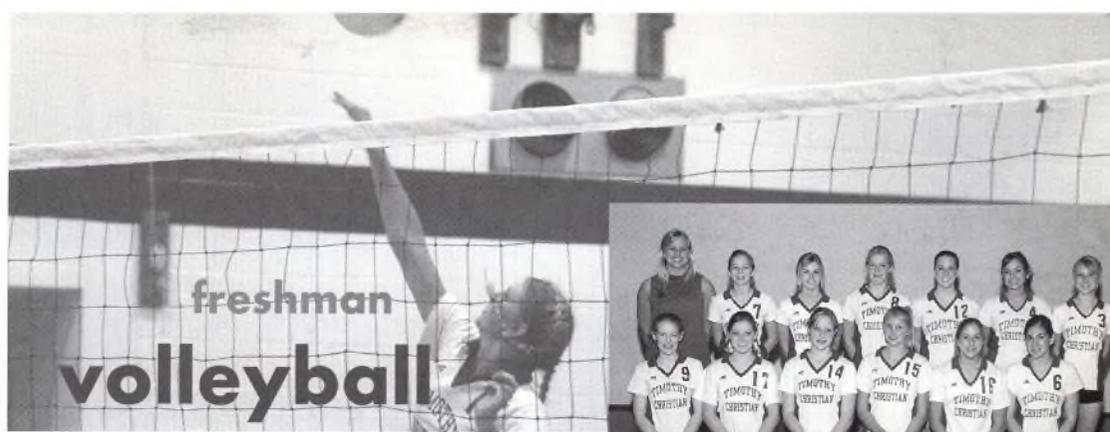

As Dave Zigterman dribbled around a defender, the rest of the team thinks to themselves, "Wow, he zigs at the zags."

Captains Dan and Jared lead the team in warmups before practice.

Nick DeJong started the tailgating at soccer games, and remembers the first time they tailgated before a game. "Mr. Woudstra was questioning us and getting a little upset with us, so hoping to make things better, Joe piped in, 'Mr. Woudstra, wanna taco?'"

Freshman Volleyball 1st Row: Chelsea Bardolph, Janna Strodman, Ana De Jong, Amanda Dykema, Alli Vanderveld, Niki Pizzello. 2nd Row: Coach Lisa Eastway, Audie Smith, Lauren Szandzik, Rita Clousing, Krista Wielard, Liz Powers, Allison Bouma.

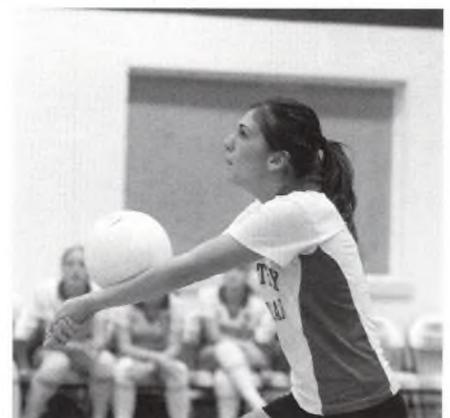

- The intense win against Illiana
- Coach's funny jokes
- Allison Bouma diving and getting stuck under the ball bag

Krista sets a perfect set and Amanda gets ready for a killer spike. Krista recalls, "My favorite part of the season was Coach's hilarious jokes!"

Amanda Dykema sends a free ball over the net. "This year was really fun! I loved the girls that were on the team and really enjoyed this season!"

Coach Eastway pumps up the team during a time out. Her knowledge of the game was great and aided the team in an awesome year.

Liz Powers bumps up a perfect pass to the setter as Janna Strodman backs her up. "We worked a lot on fundamentals. Coach Eastway was a great coach, and I learned a lot this year."
- Rita Clousing

The team worked on good form and making passes to one of their two setters. Niki Pizzello makes a perfect pass after a hard serve from the opponent.

Chelsea, Janna, and Amanda get ready for serve receive. During practices, the team worked hard on listening to each other and communicating on the court.

Chelsea Bardolph serves an ace in an intense game. Liz Powers and Janna Strodman get ready for the return ball from the opposite team.

Amanda Dykema spikes one over the net. She shows good form and concentration. The team easily puts another point on the board.

iv volleyball

Katie Vanderveld was the team's Libero, specializing in back row defense and perfect passes.

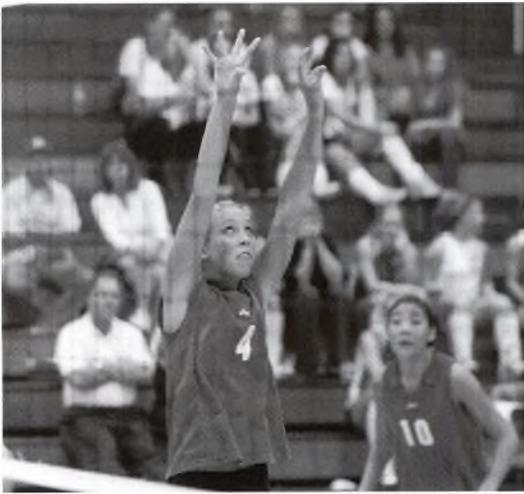

- Freshman Initiation (Brittany's Birthday)
- August 16 and October 12
- Dead Fish
- Subway runs before Octoberfest
- Jenna and Jacquelyn's "Raise the Clap" dance
- Singing London Bridge during practice

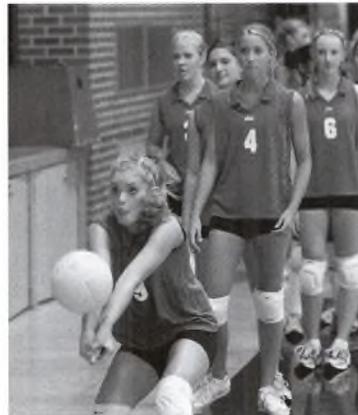

Coach Anderson gives the girls a pep talk during a hard game. The team often agreed with their coach's advice by saying, "True dat, Coach!"

Elizabeth DeGroot prepares for a pass as Laure backs her up. Elizabeth comments, "This season was great! We really worked hard and had a lot of fun doing it."

Brittany Buikema, a freshman, was moved up to JV this year in order to be the team's setter. Her skills greatly contributed to the team's success.

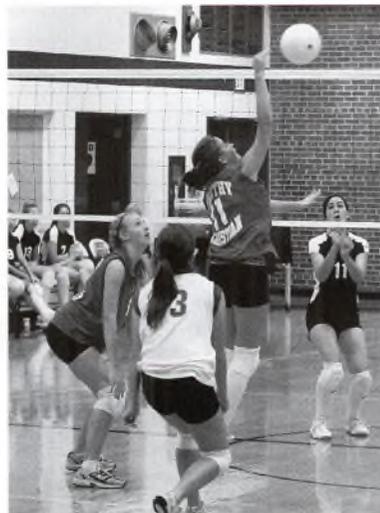

Lauren Hansberger warms up with the team before a game. The team often laughs about the game where Lauren lost her shoe while playing.

Jacquelyn Iwema goes up for a hit during an intense volley. This year the team worked hard on hitting formation and covering hits.

Katie Vanderveld demonstrates great form as she digs up a difficult spike in the middle of an intense game.

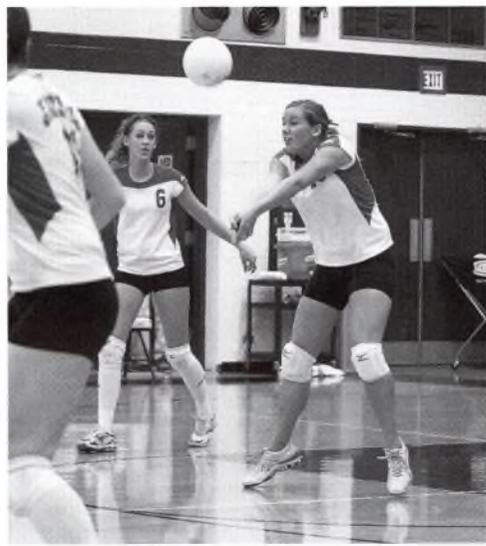

Meghan Leach puts up a strong hit as her team members cover her. Meghan was one of the teams' strong servers, and whenever she served, the team would yell, "Aww, Bang Bang!"

varsity volleyball

- REGIONAL CHAMPIONS
- 3rd place at Manteno
- "You're not playing!"
- Michito, michito, michito and num num
- "GO!"
- Awesome fans and an amazing assistant coach, Kevbo

For the first time since 2001, the girls won the regional championship. In a well played match, they defeated PSL rival, Chicago Christian in two games. "We struggled in the beginning of the season but we finally clicked and peaked at just the right time," said senior Jorie Ellens.

As a junior, Lindsay Vanderbrug added many of her talents to the team. Her lefty right side attacks were seemingly impossible for the opponent to block, and her hard float serve made it difficult for them to pass well.

Kaitlin Swierenga, a senior, helped to lead the team both on and off the court. Not only did she contribute her actual volleyball skills, she also provided a positive attitude that encouraged the team and sometimes was the difference between winning and losing.

tie Bonnes, one of seven seniors, had to make some adjustments as she played left side hitter instead of her usual middle. Although it may have been a challenge at first, she made the game exciting because her powerful swing almost always ended in a kill.

Katie Voss was the Trojan's varsity setter for three years. She comments, "It was sad being my last year playing here, but we had such an awesome season that was good to end on."

This year's libero was Jorie Ellens. In a change of rules from years past, she was able to serve in matches.

golf

- Celebration dinner at Baker's Square
- Dane's wierd high pitched noises
- Beating Wheaton Academy
- Our hotel putting party
- Our late bus rides
- Luke hitting Mr. Day's golf cart

Kyle tries to measure up his next shot. "Golfing is really fun, especially when half of the course is underwater." - Kyle Venhousen

Trevor Gorman caught midswing during an approach shot on the fifth hole at our home course. This was Trevor's first year on the golf team.

Dan Roelofs, a senior, displays good form as he swings at the ball. Although it may seem like a difficult shot, he claims that this picture was his best play of the year.

During one of the golf team's overnight trips to a tournament, the boys discovered that Dave Stremler had a passion for shrimp flavored ice cream when he ate the shrimp Peter Hegel threw into his ice cream as a joke.

As the golf team spent hours traveling to their matches, Andrew Woodhull told the team that the bus smelled like a dirty sock.

Peter Hegel practices his putting skills before the match. As a senior he enjoyed a successful last season on the golf team making it to the sectional tournament.

Andrew Woodhull made a valiant effort at the sectional tournament. Luckily he will be on the golf team for two more years and will be able to lead Timothy to future victories in golf!

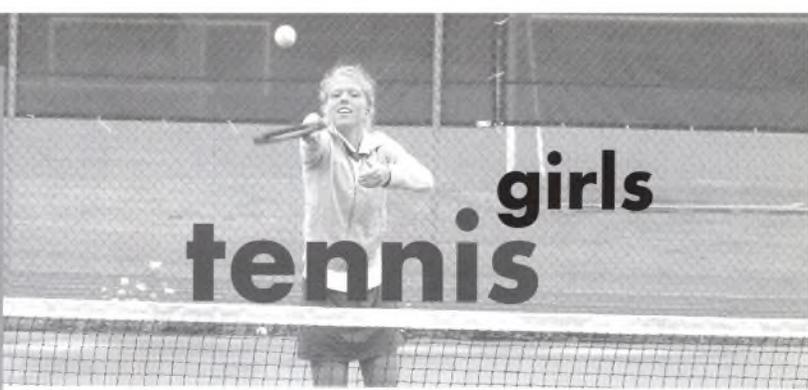

In between shots, the team members enjoyed taking joy rides around the course with Coach Day.

- Winning PSLs
- Getting 1st place in Conference
- The Val Cheer
- The big Earthworms

Connie Snyder goes for a backhanded shot. A hard worker, she can also be seen outside almost everyday working on her soccer skills for the spring season.

Abbie, who is a cousin to former tennis standout Marcus Zeilstra, hits a shot. "I got first place in Conference this year. It was very exciting for me because that was my goal," says Abbie.

Seniors Abbie DeVries and Jena Wagner have both spent four years on the tennis team. Everyday this year, they came to practice in matching outfits. "We matched everyday except one because it was too cold. That day we definitely didn't play our best," said Jena.

Alyssa Kallergis came to Timothy her sophomore year. Now a senior, her tennis skills have greatly contributed to the tennis team's success.

Chrissy, a junior, chose to play tennis this fall. "Chrissy is really funny. It was great getting to know her this year," says Nikki Tigchelaar.

A group of Timothy students from Faith CRC, ranging from freshmen all the way to seniors, came together to help an orphanage in Mexico. While they were there they experienced God's power as an unexpected flood completely changed their plans.

- Endless rain in the Mexican desert
- Corey Van Dyk and the fan incident
- "Kinky"-Toto
- Singing the Horacio song

A team from Wheaton CRC gathers around their worksite for a quick picture. There is always a great variety in the number of students in each serve group. Most are large in number like the one here but some can be as little as five people.

The group from Faith works hard and quickly fills as many sandbags as possible in order to limit flooding from a torrential rainfall. "We helped the National Guard after the flooding. The work became very tiring and we were glad to help the community," says Candace Wieringa.

Each year, it is not uncommon for many students from the Timothy community to go on serve projects. Some stay within the state while others go out of the country. Regardless of where the students go, their help is greatly appreciated.

Kaitlin Swierenga shares her Christian fellowship with an adorable Uruguayan child.

Sophomore Katie Dirkse and Lauren Donnelly, a former Timothy student, take charge while helping Hurricane Katrina victims.

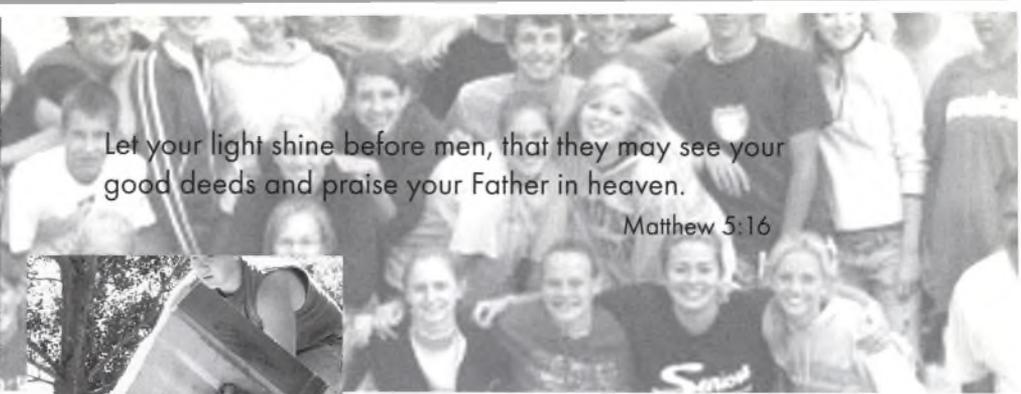

The sign displayed here, is proof that no matter where each serve team goes or which projects get done, every form of help is both needed and significantly welcomed.

Jake Schemper went on a missions trip to Honduras with his older brother, Ben, who is a senior this year.

Stacy VanVeensmaberg, a senior at Timothy who happens to be captain of the Klopsten Stompers dance team, helps to plant a new tree in a cemetery. "I really dig these service projects," says Stacy.

Let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven.

Matthew 5:16

While boiling in the hot Mississippi sunshine, Elizabeth, Annie, and Rebecca reach out to the people of the community and serve their needs.

Before getting back to work, the whole group from Elmhurst CRC gathers around for a quick picture with all of the serve team members.

Brittany VanderNaald, who traveled with Faith CRC to Guadalupe, Mexico, helps to put up plaster as part of her service.

A group of students from Elmhurst CRC traveled to Uruguay through Youth for Christ.

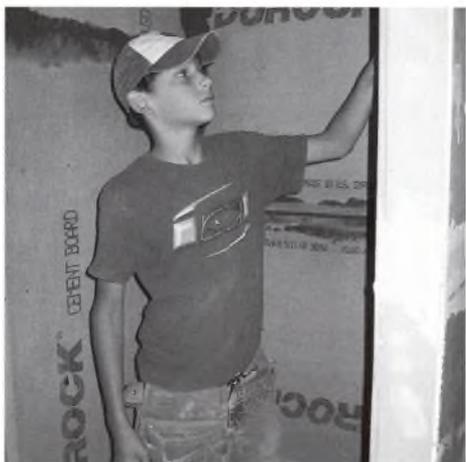

Senior Annie Loerap from Lombard CRC, works hard to serve those in need. This year, one of the very first chapels was dedicated to having student groups talk about what they did, where they went, and how they saw God work.

Casey Fazio, Jenna Stech and Becky Visser of Lombard CRC prepare for another day of hard work and service in Mississippi.

When students go on mission projects they come back and tell of the children who are so excited to receive little gifts, a truly humbling experience for many.

Sophomore Corey Van Dyk works hard at drywalling. While on the trip, after just being warned of the dangerous fans above, he ventured up the ladder onto the bunk. Little did he know the blades were sharp. Despite getting cut, Corey was able to continue his service until the end of the week.

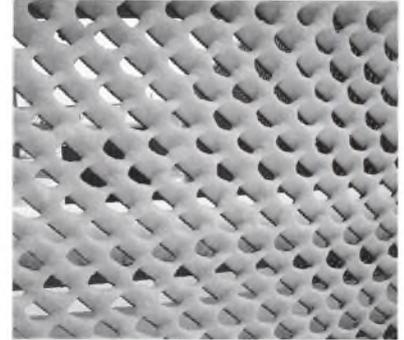

4 Him

I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me.
The life I live in the body
I live by faith
in the Son of God,
who loved me
and gave himself for me.

Galatians 2:20

winter

It was often difficult to move your way across the dance floor because dance enthusiasts bunched together in the center and stayed close to their friends.

Seniors sit outside of the doors and reminisce about their past high school experiences. "My last Turnabout will always be a great memory for me. I am so happy that I had great friends to share it with." -Jessica Stob

Joel Horras and Ryan Holtrop show their excitement at the pirate dance. Students look forward to letting loose at the more casual dances throughout the school year.

It has become tradition to play the Cha Cha Slide at every dance. No dance is complete without it!

Elizabeth DeGroot, MaryBeth Langkamp, and Katie Dirkse flash their smiles and their hand signals as they get the party going.

Santa is looking rather jolly as he busts a gut on the dance floor.

Student Council boys show their school spirit by attending the dance and moving to the music.

dances

Ahoy mates! The pirate dance has begun. Seniors Matt and Aaron greet their fellow buccaneers.

- Mr. Boven dressing as Santa Claus
- The pirate snowman made of balloons
- The Christmas lights that never work
- DJ Stevie
- "They always do that stupid bodysurfing"
- Peter Hegel's thriller dance

Karen Boice, Kimmy Vas, Nikki Blamey, and Molly McNicholas take a moment to pose for the camera. Nikki said that there weren't a lot of people at the dance but that the juniors definitely rocked it out!

"Look at the freshmen looking fresh as they break it down and show off their moves!" - Peter Hegel

The freshmen girls enjoy their first high school dance in the cafeteria. Dances are a great time to bond with friends and make memories that will last for a long time.

Operation Getdown DJ, Stevie D, often graces us with his presence at the dances. It is always guaranteed fun when he is chosen to entertain the students all night long.

The seniors who attended the school's winter "Shiver Me Timbers Dance" danced the night away with their friend, Jolly Old Saint Nick.

Taylor Slager and Max Baumbach freeze in a jazzy pose.

humboldt dinner

It took a lot of effort to get the kids together in line to break the pinata, but once they finally broke it, the candy was a huge hit.

- Dan Miller's Santa boot.
- Trying to sing the harmony.
- The largest outcome of families ever.
- Two surprise kids.
- What ever happened to donations?
- Speed shopping at Walgreens during dinner.

Monica, Brittany and Tamika befriend Mr. Wiener to get out of breaking the pinata, which they succeed at doing. Only after the pinata broke did these girls go back to their friends.

Monce's face lit up when she saw that her gift was as big as she was. Monce along with twenty other children received gifts at the dinner.

Dan Miller, who is not even on Student Ministries, volunteered to be Santa the day of the Humboldt dinner. He was a big hit, even though his Santa suit kept falling apart.

Micah checks Rachel's heartbeat with the new doctor's kit he received from Rachel Embry that night.

Amanda Rytanek, Katelin Jones, and Candace Wieringa had a little too much fun decorating the piano and themselves with garland.

One last picture, of all the families and the Humboldt dinner members, before everyone went home. "Even though it started out a little rough," Mr. Wiener said, "it was the best Humboldt dinner ever."

Ellen Angelico and Natalie Quick played Christmas duets on the piano while the families ate dinner.

Monce and her new friend, Joel, try out his new foam dart gun and perfect their shot.

Band Trip

- Grandpa and his never ending stories
- Charades and Bingo on the bus
- WINDY performances
- The packed, overflowing hot tub
- Grace's flying stand
- The Bus: a last minute changing room
- Senior boys' belt buckles

The clinic at the University of Texas with the university's band director was a highlight for many students on the trip. "It was nice to be able to sit back and watch the band play in one of their best performances ever." -Mr. Schoenbach

Ben Dykema plays a game of Nerts with the freshman out on the pool deck during the free time at night. Others spent their time swimming, running, or giving hair makeovers.

The Seniors made sure that they made this trip one to remember. "We pretended that one of our hotels was on the Mexican border. We even made up a song about it called 'The Immigrant Song,'" Anna Swierenga recalls. Dan Roelofs says, "The best night of the trip was when Mr. Schoenbach tucked us senior guys in and told us a bedtime story."

worship

Students spend time in prayer for one another. "I really enjoy the prayer chapels. They are a really cool way for Timothy to come before God as a community." - Jenna DeWit

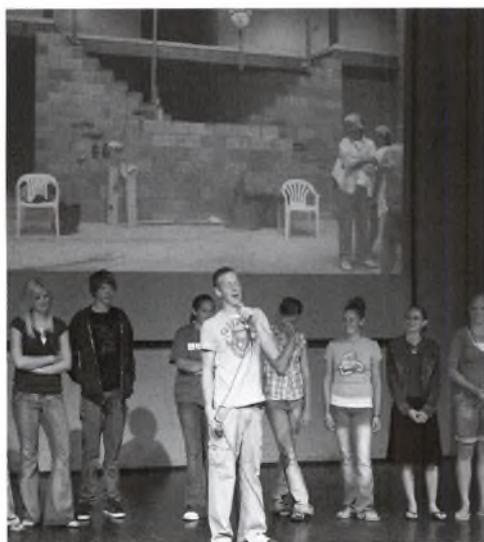

- Das a big Bible right der!
- Planning chapel is always an adventure when working with Pechanio!
- T-Shirts?
- The ridiculous planning meetings to get the Halloween skit written!
- "Mr. Pechanio, thank you so much for all of your hard work planning and leading chapel over the years. We have really enjoyed working with you and we wish you the best as God leads you to new opportunities working at Church of the Resurrection." -Rebecca Dirkse & Katelin Jones

Ben Schemper, Jonathan Kumar, Dan Woldman, and Rebecca Dirkse perform a Halloween skit in chapel. "I really enjoyed being able to further others in their spiritual journey through the character of Flava Flave." -Ben Schemper

Members of the Worship Committee take a second to put their hands in and pump themselves up before chapel.

Ryan Holtrop shares about his experience on a mission trip to Mexico with Faith Christian Reformed Church over the summer break.

Worship Band 1st row: Mr. Schoenbach, Heidi McAuley, Ellen Angelico, Katelin Jones, Rebecca Dirkse, Amanda Rychtanek. 2nd row: Brian Speelman, Brian VanKampen, Jason Boomsma, Mr. Pechanio, Taylor Slager, Ben Dykema, JD Calabrese, Jon Denny, Brad Everett, Dan Denby.

In a very inspiring chapel message, Mr. Hersey spoke about leaving our baggage behind when we come before God.

Mr. Schoenbach, along with a few students, lead the Timothy community in a time of worship.

The support staff use their last bit of energy to pose for one last crazy picture after a long, tiring day of being energized 24/7.

- The super energetic Tunnel of Love
- Joel, the Hunk, benchpressing Nolan DuBois during the "Because I Wanna Be Loved" skit
- Setting a record for the most number of boy volunteers in Care Convention history
- The high school volunteers enjoy singing time with Mr. Bosman more than the middle schoolers
- Jeff Klein's great talk

Mr. Bosman leads the entire group in the traditional "wing-sing" songs. The high schoolers actually got more into the songs than the seventh graders did.

Katelin and Amanda perform "Because I Wanna Be Loved" as the flirt and the nerd. "I didn't want to be the part of the flirt at first, but unfortunately no one else volunteered so I got stuck with it. But in the end, it actually ended up being really fun and I think the seventh graders really enjoyed the skit." - Katelin

Candace, Nikki, and Lindsey savor their last few minutes of quietness before the many seventh graders come and the craziness of the day begins.

The support staff prepares to do the crowd favorite skit, "Because I Wanna Be Loved". The support staff performed the skit very well, and like every other year, the seventh graders loved it.

This year, the small group leaders competed to have the best group ever. This involved having the best decorated room, having the funniest poses when entering the main room, wearing the group's bandanas the most creative way, and most importantly- being the loudest.

Seventh graders frantically fill out their Jeopardy! sheets hoping that they will finish first, win the ice breaker, and receive box candy.

- "Sleigh Bells Ring"- our theme song
- Trying to make 20 lay-ups at 6:30 am practice

Janna Strodman looks past an opposing player as she searches for an open team member to pass the ball to.

Liz Powers fights hard with the opposition to gain possession of the ball.

Although this year's freshman team was smaller than usual, they still worked hard together in order to accomplish their team goals.

Krista Wielard jumps for the rebound during one of Timothy's home games. Krista Wielard, one of the top freshman guards, is looking forward to her next season of basketball at Timothy.

Amanda Dykema shows good form while defending against Fenton, the opposing team. Amanda helped Timothy's basketball team keep the Fenton girls away from the basket.

Ashley and Amanda work together to get the rebound.

Girls Freshman Basketball:

1st Row: Ashley Taming, Soso Hart, Olivia Stanis, Krista Wielard, Liz Powers.

Coach Woudstra talks strategies with a few of the girls on the team as they take a quick breather before returning to the action.

Soso Hart displays her ball control as she dribbles down the court so a play can be run successfully.

Coach DeKoekoek talks to the team during a timeout. He was a great coach and helped the team grow throughout the season. "Follow through like you just got a pedicure," was one of the many good pointers he gave the girls.

Timothy fans watch in awe as Mitch Kuiper jumps for the defense rebound at a home game.

Mr. Boven goes over the game strategy during half time, making sure that everyone understands what it will take to win.

Timothy's number one three point shooter, Derek Temple, looks around for a chance to break away.

The teams sit anxiously on the side lines waiting as the players on the court finish the first half of a close game.

Rob Stine explodes through Illiana's defensive line, dribbling down court toward the basket.

Rhett Carter runs his way through the court, dodging his opponents on the way.

2nd row: Dane VanReken, Xavier Owens, Kyle Venhousen, Taylor Slager, Jon Denny, Bruce Larkin, Coach Zylstra

"The team this year really had a lot of fun on the bus and during the games. We shared a lot of great moments." -Adam Bulthuis

Ryan Hoff goes up for the rebound.

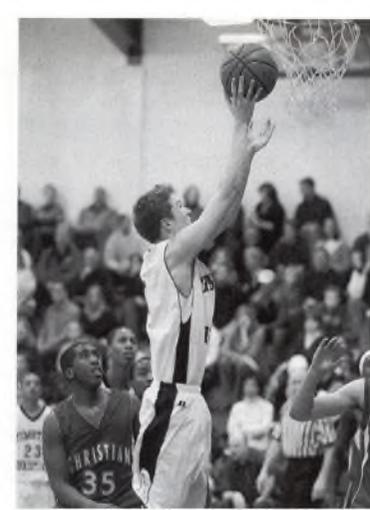

Andrew Woodhull pushes through the defense while stepping around and making a hard pass.

Taylor Slager goes up to try and grab the rebound and capture the ball for the Trojans.

Jeb Nash dribbles down the court to get around the defense and tries to make a break-away.

varsity basketball

Kyle Lukianiak goes up for two. Kyle was honored with multiple awards: All Tourney-GBW, All Conference, and All-Area (Du Page County).

Daylan Anderson, a transfer from St. Joe, came into TC with one purpose, to play defense, and he did it well.

- Going 3-1 in Christmas Tourney for a 3rd place finish
- Playing Walther in the Regional Finals, Jaaron and Kyle sending it into 2 OTs
- Finishing the season 10-4 (15-14 overall)
- Playing in the MLK Classic, Crosstown Showdown with York HS, and beating Holland in OT at the DeVos Arena in Michigan.
- STW!!
- Seniors leave a lasting impression on Timothy Basketball

Coch Powers rallies the Trojans to make their big come back against Walther in regulation.

Steve (KING) Ross adapted the role as 6th man without a hitch. He scored 15+ in more than five crucial games. Steve became known as the KING during our homecoming game against Westminster.

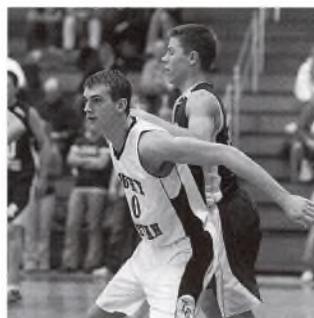

Jaaron Holmes and Josh Capleton do their pre-game salute. Jaaron, a sophomore on varsity, started most of the second half of the season. Josh Capleton was a senior leader on the varsity squad. "Cape always came to practice ready to play." -Coach Powers

Andrew Logan drives past a defender. Logan, who started the last half of the season, led the Trojans in assists. "Go, Mighty Mouse, Go!"

Joel Systma rips down a rebound from two defenders. He is also making one of his trademark "Gargoyles" faces.

Dan Woldman, "Captain of Defense," shows the guys how to neutralize the opposition.

Ryan Leach does what he does best. Being one of seven seniors on the varsity squad, Ryan was an influential part of the team. "Shoot the J, Shoot it!"

poms

The dads and teachers were "Born to Be Wild" in the Daddy-Daughter homecoming routine. Senior dads Mr. VanderKamp and Mr. Vos performed in their last Homecoming routine.

- Tortillas and Cheese...
- The cockroach/moth at camp
- Mrs. H's buffalo dip
- Messing with Kate and Nora at sleepovers
- Hey... HEY BABY!!! OOH!!! AHH!!!
- Surprising the seniors with breakfast at morning practice
- Kate's trombumpet at camp

A dramatic end to the Aerosmith routine. "This routine was one of my favorites because it had so many different kinds of dances in it," said junior Megan Kaszuba.

This year at camp, the pommers received a 4th place trophy for their home routine. They also won a Superior Trophy, the Drill Down Championship, and the UDA Leadership Award.

Adorable in black and pink before the photo scavenger hunt and sleepover. The pommers had lots of dinners at Friday's and sleepovers at Mrs. Hansberger's house this year.

The seniors blow goodbye kisses to the crowd in their featured Homecoming dance.

Brittany Vos, Emily Vos, Bethany Hoving, Nikki Blamey, and Lisa VanderKamp show some attitude in "You Ain't Seen Nothin' Yet!" during the homecoming routine.

Waiting for the music in the hip hop routine. The pommers performed this routine for the Homecoming pep rally as well as boys basketball games.

All dressed up for the mother-daughter Christmas dinner.

cheerleading

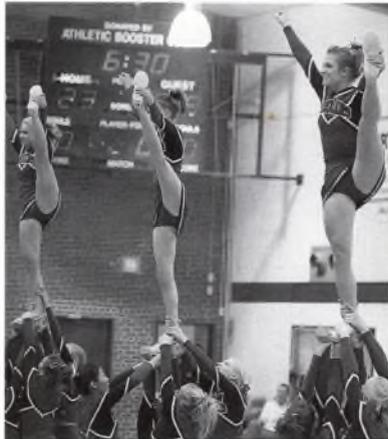

The senior cheerleaders anticipate the feeling of performing at halftime as they wait for their music to turn on for the last time.

- Making it to State for the first time in Timothy history
- Laura falling during senior night after Jena "kicked" her doing a toetouch
- The infamous candy routine
- The nasty cookie dough made with almost every ingredient in the Jokich's kitchen- plan double J?
- Camp- The miserable outdoor practices getting ready for camp. "We are ready to ROCK YOU!"
The dance party and getting 2nd place.

cheerleaders perform their Superhero routine wearing shirts that had the superman logo printed on them. "This routine was my very favorite. It's amazing to see how this squad has improved throughout the season. We didn't even do cartwheels at camp," said Jena DeWit.

cheerleaders finish their Homecoming routine with a stunt dreamed by their coach, Mrs. Jokich. There were so many times during the season when Coach would come to practice and be like, 'I wanna try this at I saw in my dreams last night'," remembers Jena Wagner. Coach Jokich's dreams deserve most of the credit for the unique stunts done by cheerleaders this season.

The flyers show off their heel stretches that they worked so hard to get. "We had to do some very intense stretching at practice and on our own time in order to get our heel stretches ready for competition," says freshman flyer Lauren Szandzik.

Jenna and Becca take a minute to pose with the rest of the squad before they have to rush off and change into their uniforms so that they can perform the halftime routine.

The squad puts all their effort into throwing Becca Dirkse. While upside down Rebecca thinks to herself, "I love this!!"

Allison Bolt makes a great cheerleading face as she flies through the air. "The first time we would ever try these stunts I would get so nervous, but after doing it a few times I would have so much fun," said Allison.

Becca shows off her flexibility during a halftime performance. Becca comments that "performing at halftime is one of my favorite things. I love getting the crowd pumped up and I love seeing them get nervous as we do dangerous stunts."

The cheerleaders, who always perform excellently, wowed the crowd with their dancing and stunts. Their theme for this routine was "Neverland."

- Seniors dominating the points
- Chapel dance-off
- First ever step team performance
- Both varsity basketball teams winning

Joel Sytsma tries for the block against Westminster Christian. The guys defeated the Warriors in a decisive victory.

In keeping with the Homecoming tradition, members of the poms team dance at halftime with their dads. Often a crowd favorite, this year's performance was set to the theme of rock and roll.

This year's king and queen were Steve Ross and Rebecca Dirkse. The two truly represent the student body well in every aspect.

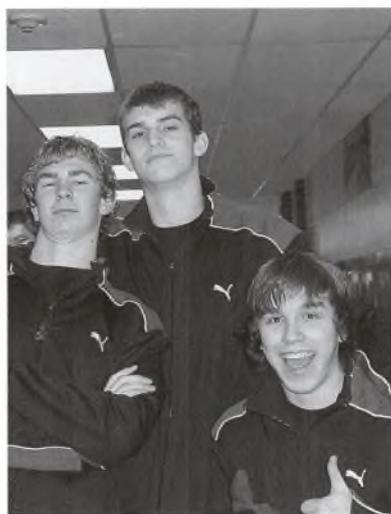

Kim Howard fights through defenders to try to put up a shot. The girls varsity basketball team conquered Westminster before the boys took the court.

Students kick off Homecoming week each year by decorating their grade's hallway according to various themes. The freshman theme was Mardi Gras so they adorned the walls with balloons, streamers, and beads.

"Oh! I'm dizzy!" said Dan Roelofs one of four guys on the senior court. At the pep rally, seniors on court played a game where they had to spin around a bat and then run across the gym, around a cone, and back to the starting line.

The girls of the senior court; Greta, Jenna, Katelin and Rebecca, get interviewed in front of the student body at a special chapel.

Seniors Ben, Dan, and Matt pose for twin day. Each day of Homecoming week the different grades compete for participation points. The class that has the most at the end of the week gets money deducted from their ticket to the dance.

homecoming dance

Meghan, Roger, Dave, Catherine, Anna and Dave are all smiles before taking the dance floor. This year many students took others from different schools to be their dates.

"A Moment Like This"

Before being allowed to enter the dance, students must line up and check in with Mrs. McCrory, one of the teachers that chaperoned this year.

John, Ladrena, Tiondra, and Andrew keep it real on the dance floor.

"Homecoming was a fun night because I was able to spend time with a lot of different people," says junior Candace Wieringa.

"Slide to the left. Slide to the right. Criss-cross!" Played at every dance, the Cha-Cha Slide is enjoyed by many and strongly disliked by others.

Seniors Anna, Katelin, Kaitlin and Kaite pose with Anneke as they take time out to enjoy their last Homecoming Dance. "Homecoming this year was one of the most fun. I'm going to miss not having it next year!" says Kaitlin.

Although Homecoming is typically known for having crowded dance floors, this year's location, the Ashton Place, had much more room to breathe.

- The talking mime
- Fine arts lasting 3 weeks
- The dance judge not showing up
- Ac Rock rapping
- Missing classes!

The Dynamic Duo, Ellen and Gabby Angelico, sing a silly song from Veggie Tales for the Fine Arts Week recital. Ellen had all of the words written on sticky notes stuck to her guitar in case she lost her place or forgot the words.

The Dan Clan sings "Loch Lomond" for the Fine Arts adjudication. The Dan Clan started during the musical this year when they realized they all had the same name. Dan Roelofs at one of the group's rehearsals said, "I am the bread that holds your butter together."

Katie McKay dances to "Music Box Dancer." "If anyone saw my dance more than once, they would be confused because it was different every time."

Courtney Bobko and Sarah Cranmer play "Rondo" for the Fine Arts adjudication and final show. Courtney and Sarah played really well together. They worked very hard on their song and the duet was outstanding.

Heidi McAuley sings "Only Hope" from "A Walk to Remember." "It was awesome to have Julie accompany me. We worked so hard, but it paid off."

Every year a judge comes to critique student artwork that is displayed in the hallways. This year the judge was John Bakker. John Randle commented, "He really thought outside the box."

Greta Hays and Olivia Daig sing "For Good" from Wicked. The judge, when she first heard them sing in adjudication, thought they were a "Freshmen Sensation" not knowing that Greta was a senior.

The group Ac Rock sings to the embarrassed Brittany Vos while Ryan Holtrap tries to get in the picture. He said, "I got them to come toward Brittany and it was funny because it made her really embarrassed."

Hillary Hempel gave another outstanding performance on the violin. She played "Beau Soir" and was accompanied by Gail Salvatori. Hillary is amazing at the violin and has received many awards for her excellent playing.

John Randle sings, "Give me Jesus" for the Fine Arts adjudication. "The opportunity to sing is always great. It is always nerve racking," said John about his performance.

Julie Speulda plays "Sonata in C minor." I worked on this piece for a year in order to beat Hegel and he was not even in the competition this year." Julie received first place for her performance.

Special Consensus performed some awesome Blue Grass music for us. "Special Consensus was my favorite performance and I can't wait to see them again in performance at Cantigny," said Katie Voss.

Ben Schemper and Jori Ellens learn how to swing dance. "I didn't know I could dance but then I just started moving my feet and the steps kept coming," said Ben.

Swing Time was a very fun group to have this year. They performed a lot of cool dances and dance moves. Swing time also gave many students a great opportunity to learn to swing dance in their study hall or PE class.

Hank Iwema does one handed pull-ups while the mime watches. "I didn't know what to do, especially on the tug of war game. It was fun until he put the face paint on me and it started to sting."

Ac Rock an a cappella rock 'n roll group teaches us how to rap a cappella style. "I didn't think it was possible for four white guys to actually rap well," said Jonathan Kumar.

Mary Ellen shares a story about two people, named Louie and Sarah, growing up in a small town. "I was glad to have a chance to share my writing with everybody," she said. The story took first place in the short story category.

The photography adjudication this year was lead by Terry Evans who had some interesting views on many of the photographs. She also talked to the whole school and showed us some of the photo projects that she has worked on.

Reverend Hale tries to revive a bewitched Betty. The townspeople await anxiously with hope that she will turn away from the devil.

John Proctor demands that Mary Warren goes to court and confesses the whole truth and nothing but the truth about the poppet.

Proctor clutches his wife's tender hands as he gazes lovingly into her weeping eyes, knowing he must sacrifice his life in order to save his name.

Jason Boomsma as Judge Hathorne. No one could pull off that wig as well as he did.

Peter Hegel as Deputy Governor Danforth. "Don't those curly locks look stunning?"

Ben, Jason, John, Peter, and J.D. discuss the validity of the testimony provided by Heidi and the rest of the girls.

Reverend Hale questions John and Elizabeth Proctor about their Christian lifestyle. It took Aaron quite a while to get the commandments down.

"Elizabeth, that was an awesomely bad year for cider," John Proctor shouts angrily.

- "Glad you decided to join us, Mr Corey"
- Aaron whipping Greta with a ladle
- Mrs. Kumar showing up to give us all Korean rice
- A cell phone going off during dress rehearsal
- Guitar hero
- "Your soul is dumb"

Reverend Hale tries to extract a confession and the names of her inspirators from a bewildered Tituba while Reverend Parris and Giles Corey watch with a scornful look.

A sudden chill comes over the girls and Peter looks on, confused as to what should cause this phenomenon.

Ben and Aaron demand that Greta honor God and tell the truth.

Joel never enjoys his moment in the spotlight as Proctor jinxes away his name. While on stage for a perpetual round of time without lines, Joel consumed his time nodding on the legal documents.

Aaron threatens to whip Greta until she tells him that she saved his wife in court that day.

Middle distance runner, Jeff VanderKamp, guts it out around the track.

Shawn Loiseau puts a good effort into throwing the shot.

Kei Loerop runs the 3200 meter.

Dan Woldman ran a 4:28.05 to get to the State Finals in the 1600 meter run.

Benjamin, Loerop, Zylstra, Jorden, VanderKamp, and Wielard seem to really enjoy warming up for their races.

Freshman, Rob Stein, qualified for the State meet in the shot put.

- A fantastic start with 5 straight shut-outs accredited Rychtanek and the defense led by captain Kaczynski
- Finishing up with only one loss was quite an accomplishment
- All the girls playing hard and passionately
- An offense propelled by captians Pizzelo and Groot poured in 25 goals
- Coach Oliver and Coach Hersey being announced at the Wheaton Academy game

Nikki Pizzelo dribbles past the opposing team. She was one of the captians this year and was a good addition to the JV program.

Kelsey, with her solid defense, gets rid of the ball quickly, ruining the opponents attack. One of the soccer memories was that when the last game was over they dumped Coach Hersey with the water.

Ali Groot does a knee trap and settles the ball away from the opponent. Her offensive skills aided the team in their attack.

Rita Clousing sends a clearing ball down the sideline. The team worked on controlled passes a lot during practices.

After the ball was kicked out of bounds by the opponent, the right defender, Katie Vanderveld, kicked the ball to an open teammate.

Corrine Wieringa looks for an open pass across the field. "This year was really fun! Coach Hersey was a good coach and really developed our skills."

Receiving a pass, Ali makes a run down the field Ana DeJong is ready to support her in the back field. The team worked a lot on communication and it paid off during their games.

Chelsea clears the ball down the field, away from the defender. "We worked on the fundamentals this year. I feel I grew as a player."

Lisa VanderKamp gains control of the ball.

- Going DOWN STATE for the FIRST time!
- Upper ninety!
- Purpose driven balls
- The waiter at Olive Garden
- DJ Paula
- Abbie, Katie, and Lisa cheating at knock-out
- The Concentration Game (animal and fruit variations)
- Beating Latin (defending State champs) in the last minute of play to go to State
- Losing the quarterfinal with less than a minute left
- Alexis selected to the Chicago Fire All Academic Team
- Great hearts, great speed, and never ever giving up

Sarah Cranmer gets a header off at the state finals in Naperville.

Jessie Easley mixes it up with two opponents during regular season play.

Katie VanDyke rushes down the sidelines to beat a Rochester Rocket to the ball.

The coaches and players watch the action on the field at North Central College.

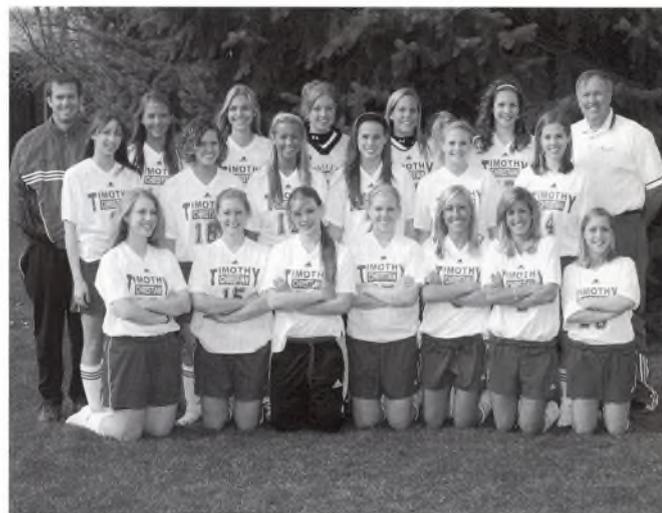

Mary Ellen Matthews prevents the Rochester Rockets from scoring.

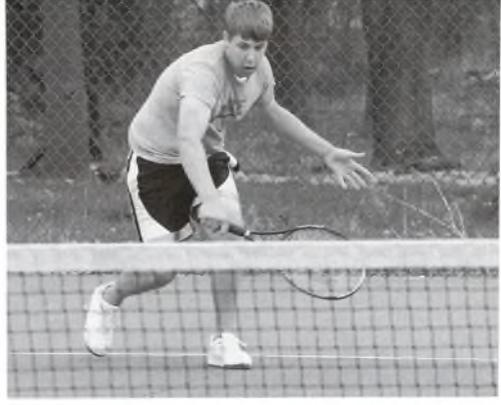

In front of a very enthusiastic Timothy crowd, Abbie DeVries passes the ball down field to one of her teammates.

Alexis Euwema, who scored both our goals in State semi-final game, out maneuvers her opponent for control of the ball.

Steven Kranenborg scoops one up.

- 4-1 in conference matches
- Doubles team of Evenhouse & Ziegler finish as conference champions
- Josh Cook finishes second at finals
- Doubles team of Buikema and Groenewold finish second at finals, VanderBrug and Pegman finish third
- Kumar out with injuries from roof jumping
- Taco Bell runs
- 2nd in the PSL
- Coach earns the nickname "smiles"

Marcus VanderBrug plays with ease as he returns the ball to his opponent on the other side of the net.

Ben Dykema terrifies his opponent with his impressive forehand smash.

Ryan Evenhouse appears to be very confident about his game.

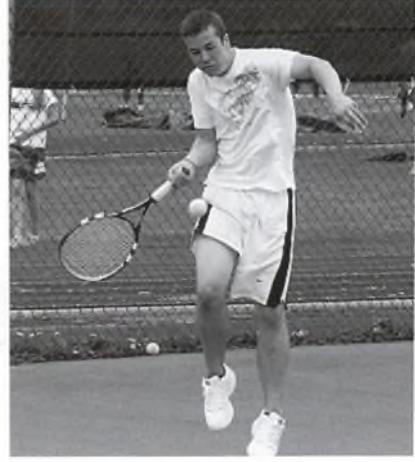

Varsity Tennis

Justin Groenewold gives his best effort to try and score another win for the JV team.

Junior Josh Pegman attempts to strike the ball back over the net without falling over.

With a little spring in his step, Josh Cook attempts to retrieve the low-flying tennis ball without hitting it into the net.

Mr. Wolterstorff bestows the Choral Music Award on a quartet of deserving seniors.

The evening came to a close shortly after Mr. Rinsema awarded Aaron Michnowski and Rebecca Dirkse the Outstanding Senior Male and Female Awards.

Brian Speelman accepts his well deserved Bible award from our long haired and retiring Bible teacher, Mr. Rinsema. Mr. P. said that he will miss us next year but that he would probably return to lead a few chapels.

After meeting the challenge of lining up in alphabetical order, the seniors wait to receive their scholarship and handshake from Mrs. Raley.

- "Indeed!"
- "My name is Cassidy Wallner, and I'll never forgive my parents for that."
- Winning Maine South Tournament!
- Defense side on TV news show at State
- Two hour trial with Saint Charles at State
- Antioch at County: steam boat captain and girls with updo
- Mr. Roelofs learning what an updo is Celebrating last years third in the nation.

Preparing for the final trial at "Distant Thunder."

Two fantastic lawyers at the "tourney with the good food."

Seniors accepting the first place trophy from the Maine South Tournament.

Jorie and Caroline pause from their rehearsals at the State tournament.

James, Thomas, Kumar, Corey, and Danby model their suits at the traditional Signature Inn.

Amanda, Ibie and Olivia enjoy some pizza at "the greasy pizza place" moments before the team filled the restaurant with applause for a few of its members' TV debut.

Paula Barclay does an amazing lyrical dance performance to the song "Held."

Soso Hart, Caroline Hayes and Olivia Doig sing "Reflection" from "Mulan." They were accompanied on the piano by Ibie Hart.

- $2200. raised for Mmabatho kindergarten and Aids clinic in S. Africa
- Amanda Rychtanek gives a great performance even though her microphone was falling out of her dress
- 1st place went to an original percussion piece performed by Ben Dykema, Dan Couture, Aaron Foster, and Mike Capazzoli, 2nd went to Paula Barclay for her dance, and 3rd to Jon Kumar for his music video.
- "Schemper and Michnowski were great MCs."
- "An amazing display of talent"
- Kumar's stunt double, Ryan Leach

The judges, Mr. Bluiner, Mr. Schoenbach and Miss Voss look a lot like Randy, Paula and Simon.

Innon McNichols and Dustin Searer do a very resseive high stepping Irish dance.

Jon Smith, Dan Denby, JD Calabrese and Jason Boomsma do a hilarious Monte Pyton routine about four rich Irishmen trying to out do each other while reminiscing about their poor upbringings.

The "Blarney Stones" perform an original ballad written by Aaron Michnowski about Patrick Kilbane, the Irish saint, pirate captain, scoundrel, and thief.

Rebecca Gilmore, Mary Meigs and Allison Bouma perform a song from "A Fiddler on the Roof" which has them looking for the perfect match.

JD Calabrese does a comedy sketch about the movies. He began his routine with 30 seconds of audience booing.

The Dan Clan, composed of Dan Waldman, Dan Denby, Dan Ziegler, Dan Roelofs, and BranDan VanDyk, sport plaid kilts and harmonize a special rendition of "O Danny Boy."

Heidi McAuley and Leanna Johnson perform "Marry the Man Today" from "Guys and Dolls."

Peter Hegel and Joel Horras act out "Switcheroo" which was written and performed by Nathan Rivera-Melo. "I should have won an award because I had glue in my hair and cream cheese in my arm pits" -Joel Horras Tiandra Lewis and Jordan Jackson thrill the crowd with a very rhythmic and dramatic dance.

gaming club

Matt Clark enjoys playing Worms against his fellow gamers. Gaming club met in the computer lab every Tuesday after school to play computer games. "Pigeons aren't as stupid as you might think," said Matt.

- "What got hurt?" "Nothing but my pride."
- "That was easy."
- "What did we learn today?" "Suicide is quicker."
- "They're just bunnies. How bad can they be?"

"Rob, you have been dubbed, Juicy."

- "The Beast"
- Amazing set design
- The fantastic costumes

Jorie Ellens adds the finishing touch to Jessica Stob's make-up for the fall musical, "Beauty and the Beast." Jorie was one of the many students on make-up crew.

"Try this brush," says set designer Mrs. Swierenga . Emily and Caroline work with her to produce the sets for "Beauty and the Beast".

The make-up committee had to work extra hard to get "The Beast" to come to life. Layer after layer of makeup and masks were put on John Smith's face before the makeup committee was pleased with the outcome of "The Beast's" face.

Ms. Wagle stands on her tip toes as she searches for an illusive costume. She spends many hours prior to each play making and altering the various costumes that are used in each production.

"One of the best parts of Drama Club was being on make-up committee, I love seeing the way the students are transformed into their characters with just a little bit of make-up" -Franny Gartner.

Mrs. Swierenga, Mr. Wolterstorff, and Mr. Day try to visualize the stage for the musical. They tried to find the best setup for the play with the least amount of rearranging.

Senior guys Ryan, Jeff, Cooper, Colin, Matt, and Ben pose in their makeup before getting their picture ID's taken. "Man! I feel like a woman, let's go girls!" says Matt.

Senior editor Anna Swierenga advises newcomer Holly Evenhouse. "I love Saga and all the people on it. I look forward to Wednesday night. Some favorite times involve watching Beauty and the Geek, chillin' on the library couch, and rocking with Earth, Wind, and Fire," says Anna.

Dan Woldman calculates one last equation before taking his photo ID picture. Seniors get the privilege of choosing to dress up for their last ID.

Junior Karyn Weglarz examines her page assignment. "This was my first year on Saga and I really enjoyed getting together every Wednesday."

DEAL or NO DEAL? This year's business staff, Mark Zylstra, Danny Zie, and Mr. Roelofs help to provide the funds for the yearbook by playing the popular game show.

A typical layout used by the Saga staff to create the yearbook is displayed. Students use Adobe InDesign to make their pages. The program can be difficult to learn but once it is mastered, it is very helpful.

Freshmen girls wait in line to take their yearbook picture. Looking funky fresh for their first high school photo is a must.

The yearbook ladder (above), which hangs on the wall next to Mr. H's computer, tells where things go in the book, what deadlines are complete and ready to ship, and which pages have been indexed.

- "I've got an itchy back...yep!"
- "Go Trinity, Go Trolls."
- Chillin' in the library until 10:30
- Watching American Idol

Kaitlin and Jorie work together to finish a page in order to meet a deadline. "Saga is a lot of hard work but it's a lot of fun at the same time so the work pays off," says Kaitlin.

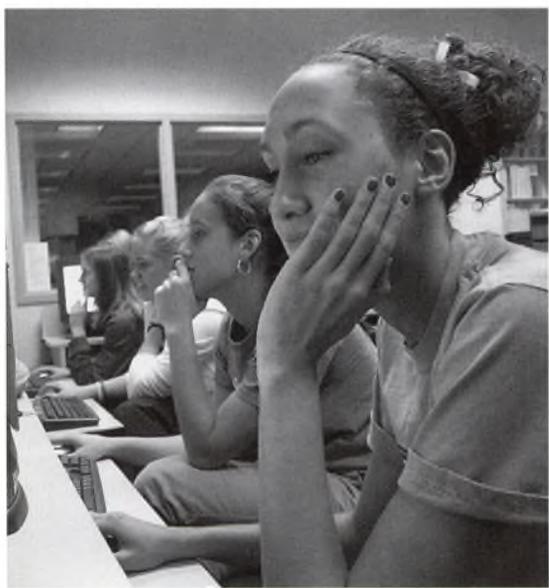

Junior Candace Wieringa was a great addition to the Saga staff this year as she worked diligently on every page she was given. "Saga made my week each Wednesday. It's hard to catch on but once you do it's a lot of fun!" says Candace.

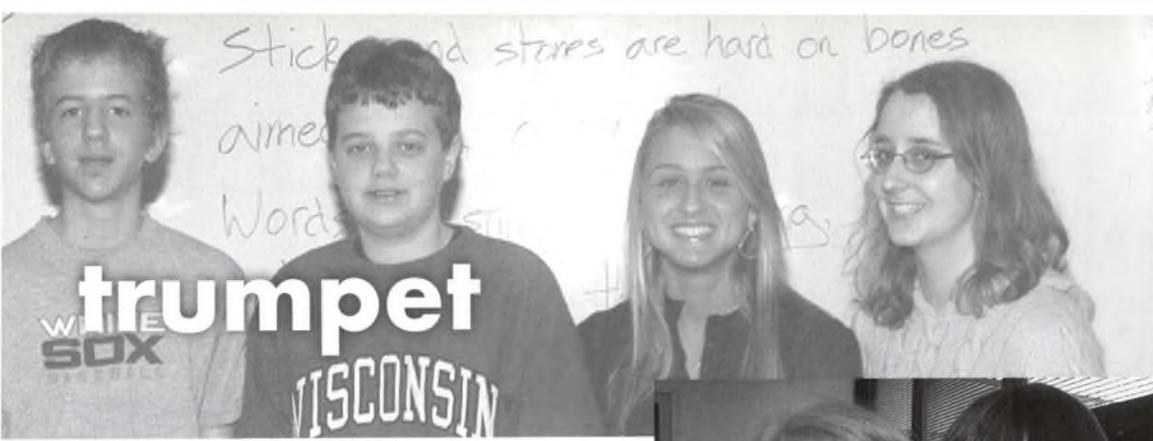

Editor Elise Kuick studies her page. Many times staff members stay late into the night to meet a deadline or to finish a page. We often wonder what it would be like to sleep over.

Each Wednesday night, starting in October, juniors and seniors on the Saga staff get together in the library computer room to work on pages of the yearbook.

Sabrina contributes a lot of time and energy with the writing and production of the school newspaper.

Sophomores Sabrina Lee and Rachel Groters love working together on Trumpet.

- The word "redundant" became "redundant."
- Trying to decide on an editorial topic is like pulling teeth.
- The Trumpet food stash quickly diminishes.
- Blood-letting happened while writing editorials.
- Viciously dueling over the usage of the words miscreant and rascalion.
- Quick learners on the computer.
- A driver's license makes Trumpet life easier.
- Ms. Park's funny faces.

Dedicated and enthusiastic about Trumpet, Ms. Park works overtime to make sure that the school newspaper comes out on time.

Trumpet Staff 1st row: Sabrina Lee, MaryEllen Matthews, Rachel Groters. 2nd row: Ms. Park, Adam Rink, Ben Ziglerman, Jon Engbers, Amanda Rychtanek, Maria Post.

Dan Miller, Sabrina Lee, Ms. Park, Rachel Groters, and Ben Ziglerman model the Trumpet sign during one of their many meetings.

One might think that the Trumpet staff is a serious group, but Jon and Rachel found out that you spend a lot of time just joking around.

Last year Rachel Groters and Sabrina Lee pledged their allegiance to Ms. Park. "Somehow we became 'editors,' I don't know why." -Sabrina Lee intramurals

- Brian Hunt hits two free throws with no time left in the championship basketball game to win it all by one point.
- Dan Roelofs runs and throws his way to a football championship.
- Cooper Venema spikes his way to a volleyball championship for his team.
- Intramural football teams slopped through the mud on a much-used field.
- David Stremler busts his nose in the opening minute of a basketball game.
- Justin Barak inadvertently catches a kick-off and rumbles all the way down the field for a touch down, only to have it called back for having his flags tucked in.

Basketball champs 1st row: Brian Hunt, Aaron Cash, Kinny Madori. 2nd row: Colon DuBois, DeAndrea Holmes, Andrew Temple.

Ryan Leach sprints away from Derek Temple who tries to rip off his flags before he gets in the open field.

italy & spain trip

- The Discoteca on the cruise ship to Spain
- Palm Sunday at the Vatican
- Our tour guides; Layla at the Colosseum, following the green "munkay"
- Waiting for hours almost anywhere we went
- Messing with people as they slept
- Katelin getting asked to Prom by Peter

"Lyndsey, Dave, and I ran half way up the mountain and then stopped because we thought we were out of time. Suddenly Italian dogs cornered us and started to chase us down the hill." -Kaitlin Swierenga Visting the Vatican on Palm Sunday was a big highlight of the trip, from hearing the Pope talk, to listening to the choir sing.

The chaperones, Mr. LeGrand, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, and Mr. DeKoekkeek, smile while overlooking the beautiful scenery at Assisi.

Abbie, Katelin, Kaitlin, Tara, Anna, Val, Lyndsey, and Jena all pose for a wind blown shot on the cruise boat from Genoa to Madrid.

Valarie Puchalski took some time out from holding Eddie's hand to try and push the leaning Tower of Pisa back up straight.

Layla talked through whispers and walked with her flag while she "guided" the group through the Colosseum.

Shannon, Ali, Christin, and Elizabeth sit on the colorful fountain at Park Guell in Barcelona.

The twenty seniors gather for a group photo.

The beautiful Trevi Fountain provided a refreshing break for the weary travelers on a hot afternoon in Rome.

We saw the place where Paul was imprisoned at the Roman Forum along with ancient ruins and historical artifacts.

new style & quilting club

Ellen chows down her breakfast at Simons Restaurant where the group met once a month for breakfast. The waiter we had at Simons was pretty crazy. Rebecca liked to call him "Mr. Jokes."

New Style members enjoy a breakfast meeting at Simons Restaurant. Going to Simons for breakfast was looked forward to every month by all the New Stylers. Dan Roelofs encouraged the group to go to Simons every week and always claimed it was the week we were supposed to go.

New Style enjoyed having a night time worship service on the baseball field with a fire pit. Sadly, the fire got shut down half way through but we stayed and worshiped in the cold!

Ashley and Sarah take part in getting the crowd excited for a varsity boys basketball game. Pep Band allows the band to play a few more easy and fun songs than the rest of the year.

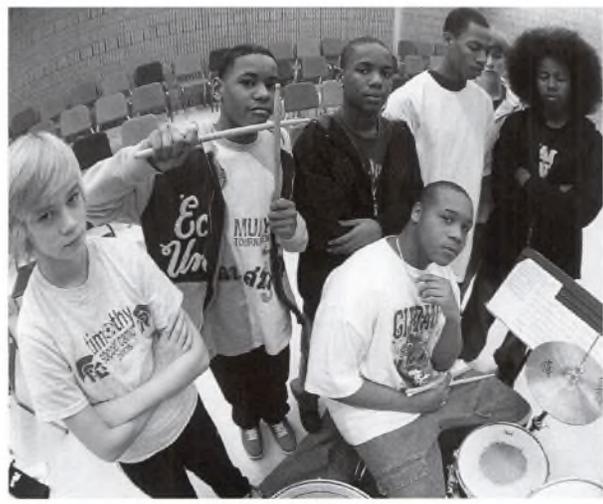

- The Texas trip!!!!
- Trumpets slowly leaving one side of the room and appearing on the other, and Mr. Schoeny never even noticing.
- The year of all the variations

Dan perfects his solo during the jazz portion of one of the four band concerts.

Aaron, Kordell, Justin, Jaaron, Kyle, and DeAndre gather around the drum set during class. The percussion section is quite large this year, which can cause some disruption in class, but when the concert comes around, the group always does a great job.

Joel Sytsma practices his tuba in the hallway. The band sometimes practices in sections and has to be scattered throughout the school wherever there's an empty and quiet space.

The Jazz Band saxes perform well during one of their classes. A few of the Jazz Band's favorites this year were "Barney Miller" and "Engine No. 9," where the trumpets to put their dancing skills in use.

Mr. Schoenbach fills in on the bass guitar during pep band. Once again he shows everyone his talent on many musical instruments while he also supervised the rest of the band.

The trumpets worked hard this year on the music, but also on practical jokes on Mr. Schoenbach. Everyone would love to see how long it would take him to figure out what was going on.

Emily Helmus and Marielle Ostling show that hard practice pays off during performance.

- Ellen roasting the drum stick over Jon and Laura's head
- "Is that fur thing living?" - Jon Denny
- Jamal's baking skills
- When the cello broke on Laura
- Hayden, the driving experience
- The Nickel Creek song

Cellos and bass kept the rhythm for the orchestra. They were a solid section and worked well together. The section was also able to get the orchestra laughing on numerous occasions.

Jamal Sarakoki concentrates on the viola. He played viola with Samantha Goedeke for the orchestra this year, but contributed his violin talent every year and then.

Candace and the rest of the second violins focus on their music that they looked forward to playing in their Spring Concert.

"This year was a big transition from the eighth grade orchestra to the high school orchestra, but I felt I really grew as a player." -Rita Clousing

Ms. Salvatori conducts during the winter concert. In class she demonstrates a Christian attitude while equipping the students with musical knowledge.

Focusing on the music, the first violins play in unison and as a section. The individuals play well together and aid the orchestra with their abilities.

Ellen was a great senior leader this year for the orchestra. She used her musical abilities by conducting the orchestra and playing the bass and ukulele. Ellen even arranged a couple songs, including the "Mario" theme song, "Butterscotch" and "Chocolate" by Nickel Creek.

Choir

- Fourth Presbyterian Church Concert
- Chamber Choir singing for the Garden Club
- "Lux Aurumque" and "Christmastide"

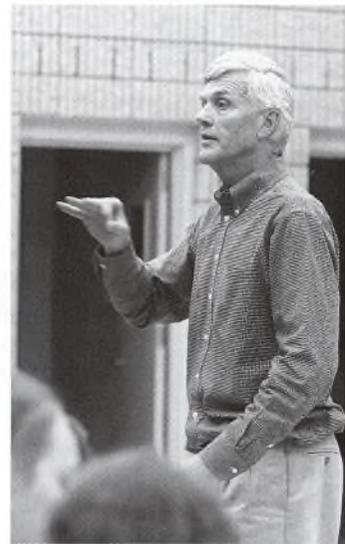

Ms. Salvatori provides her tremendous piano skills daily during Honors Choir rehearsal. She often reminds the class of the importance of giving 100% effort everyday.

Erin Farney and Heidi McAuley are members of the Honors Choir. As juniors, they are a great addition to the soprano section.

"There is something about the MARVelous Woll storff that makes you want to be amazing. I hav had so many great memories because of this m Heather Hooker

"One time Mr. Wollerstorff started to unbutton his shirt during class. All the altos swooned." - Ellen Angelico Congratulations Jason!!

We thank God every time we think of you . . . being confident that He who began a good work in you will carry it to completion. Philippians 1: 3,6

It has been great watching you grow into the terrific young man you've become. You have always been there with a smile, a helping hand, a hug. Continue to use the gifts God has blessed you with as you go forward serving Him.

JASON BOOMSMA

We pray that God blesses you as you begin college and this next chapter in your life. With all our love - Mom, Dad & Eric

 We love you and will always stand by your side.

Mom and Dad

Tara,

I am proud of you for what you have accomplished in your 4 years at high school. College is the next step in your life. Remember to work hard and never give up as you will face many more obstacles and challenges along the way. Also, remember to have a little fun along the way. If you need anything you know I am here for you. You know I give everyone quotes to challenge them, so here is yours, "We're all extraordinary in our own way, and that it's what we do with our extraordinariness that sets us apart and makes all the difference."
 -Denzel Washington.

Tara, what are you going to do to set you apart and make the difference as you continue on with your life?

Ryan

Tara,

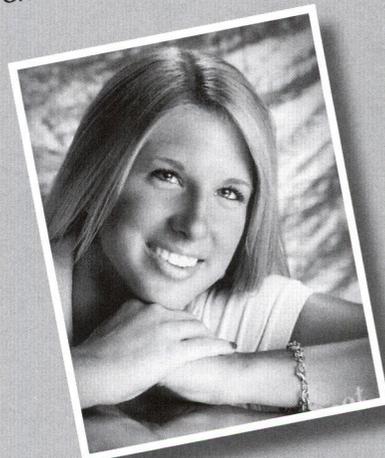

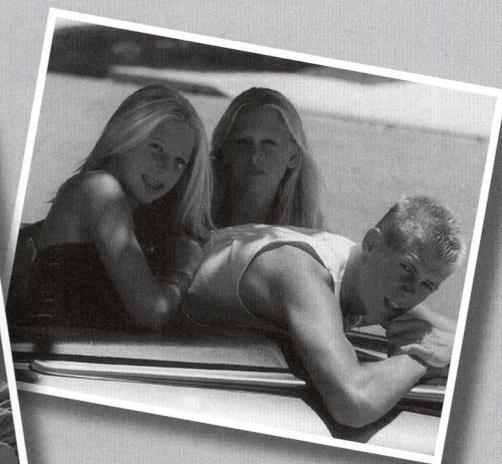

How do I describe you? Well, let's start with when you were little. You had great determination. If you didn't like something you never gave in. Your Grandfather loved to tease you because you were so strong willed and forward. You always knew what you wanted. You have grown up to be one beautiful girl.

You have so many qualities. You are honest, loving, caring, thoughtful, and let's not forget your disposition.

I wish your Grandfather could see you now. How he loved his Tara ("Nichel," his nickname for you). I pray you will never change.

Congratulations.
 I Love You,
 Grandma B.

(I'm sure Grandpa is watching from above.)

Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.

If anyone speaks,
he should do it
as one speaking
the very words of God.
If anyone serves,
he should do it
with the strength
God provides,
so that in all things
God

may be praised through Jesus Christ.

1 Peter 4:11a
