As we follow One, we will lead many.

When we were children, we played follow-the-leader, trooping happily in grass-stained shoes over playground hills, carefully imitating our teacher's strides,

*oblivious
in our concentration to those who straggled behind.*

*We are older now, and sometimes
we pause,
in the midst of friends,* with mouths open in carol offered from winter-pink faces clustered around the Salvation Army pail,

*with paint-smeared arms wiping sweat from foreheads before lifting a child to marvel
at a newly-painted church,* *with bruised legs braced and arm outstretched to raise a fallen opponent

from the scuffed gym floor,* *with eyes sore from scanning pages of theorems and cosines,

with shoulders damp with hot tears,*

*with knees bent in worship and with hands prepared to serve,
we pause,
and realize that we still follow,*

*and that by following One
we will lead many.*

- Jorie Hofstra

more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, so that you may be able to discern what is best...*

faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness.*
Colossians 2:6-7

This year you have climbed both physical and spiritual mountains with God's help.

Keene,

Always reach for the stars!

will give me the speed of a deer and bring me safely over the mountains.*

1 Timothy 4:12

The words of the wise are like goads, their collected sayings like firmly embedded nails-given by one Shepherd. Be warned, my son, of anything in addition to them.

Of making many books there is no end, and much study wearies the body.

Now all has been heard; here is the conclusion of the matter: Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man.
