

Infant Toddler Teacher

WAGE: $21.00 – 23.00 /hr DOE + benefits

SCHEDULE: Full time, Monday - Friday

ABOUT US:

Portland Jewish Academy's Infant Toddler Development program supports the development of young children in a vibrant, secure, inquiry-based environment. We promote confidence, curiosity, awareness, exploration, problem solving, and social growth for infants and toddlers.

It is our conviction that children are capable and independent, and this is reflected across all developmental domains of learning. Children are encouraged to make choices, practice individual decision-making, and develop a sense of themselves as capable and as self-advocates. Children are viewed as thinkers, reflecting on their world, and as empathetic individuals who care for and engage with their peers and contribute to the community. Our educators generally work in teams of two and are given the autonomy to create an inquiry-based curriculum and are encouraged to use the ideas and interests of the children as a guide. It is because of our educators that our program thrives.
