3216 EMPLOYEE DRESS CODE

All district employees are required to wear attire suitable to their job responsibilities at any time, with due consideration for other conditions that may apply.

No clothing worn may constitute a health or safety danger to the wearer or to others. No clothing worn may interfere with the smooth conduct of any instructional program. All clothing worn must be clean and neat.

Each employee's immediate supervisor shall determine if a violation of these dress code guidelines has occurred and discuss the situation with the employee. When any violation(s) warrants, the immediate supervisor may enter a reprimand in the staff members personnel file and/or recommend more severe disciplinary actions.

Adopted: 29 June 1998
