

School Counseling Program

The Guidance Program shall be an integral part of the total program of instruction. The major objective of the Guidance Program is to help each child make the best of his/her educational opportunities toward a normal, useful, and happy life. The program will be incorporated into the curriculum to aid students in making informed and responsible decisions and in using effective decision making processes.

The School Counseling Program shall be directed toward the growth and improvement of all pupils in the school, recognizing however, that some pupils are in greater need of individual and group counseling than others. The School Counseling Program shall attempt to provide for each pupil a sense of belonging, self-respect, emotional security, achievement, and recognition. The program shall also endeavor to help the student develop an appreciation and understanding of the world in which he lives by providing a classroom and school environment in which effective learning and good behavior takes place. The School Counseling Program shall provide a positive program of correction and prevention of antisocial behavior of students. It shall aim to provide a sense of responsibility and self-respect in students.

Reviewed: July 13, 1998

Revised: January 11, 2010; October 13, 2015