

Medical Services

There are no facilities for treatment of injuries or illnesses at the College. There are also no medical personnel on duty at either campus. Students are encouraged to maintain proper health insurance and seek appropriate medical attention when necessary.