“Because of Carolina Day, our daughter knows how to advocate for herself. She uses her voice, she speaks to adults with confidence, and knows that she’ll be heard - and that what she has to say is valid and important.”

- Katina, Middle School Parent

Continuing the traditions of our predecessor schools, Carolina Day embodies the highest standards of academic achievement, character development, and the belief in developing young people for lives of leadership and service to their community.

CDS HIGHLIGHTS

Thanks to Carolina Day’s thorough approach to the Covid-19 pandemic, in-person instruction took place the entire ’20-’21 academic year, with no internal clusters either semester.

Dear CDS Community,

It’s hard to believe we are already halfway through the 2021-22 school year considering most of us are still processing 2019-20. COVID-19 came into our lives like a bolt of lightning and radically changed the way we think and do things. Around the end of each calendar year our school normally sends out a retrospective report that reflects on the prior school year and highlights all the support our community members provided to our school to ensure continued success. Things have been far from normal for a while, as we all know.

Yet, despite the challenges and all the change, our community continued to step up. In fact, during the most critical moments for our school of the past two years, many of our community members stepped up even further to help us navigate and surmount what at times seemed insurmountable. And we did it. Together we not only navigated and overcame everything COVID threw our way—even as we simultaneously were preparing for new leadership at the school—we excelled. Especially when it came to COVID, Carolina Day became a model for other schools on how to continue to provide education and experience to children, and do so safely. Much of our success is due to the support, understanding, flexibility, and generosity of our community members. We succeeded because of you.

This unique report represents two school years, 2019-2020 and 2020-2021; two of the most extraordinary school years the education sector has ever seen. Thank you for your partnership, generosity, and loyalty. Together we demonstrated our extraordinary resilience and steadfast dedication to our school, teachers, staff, and all our students PK-12. We are so grateful to have such a wonderful community of parents, alumni, grandparents, parents of alumni, teachers, staff, and friends.

Best wishes for 2022; may it bring you good health, good fortune, and much happiness.

Happy New Year,

Elaine Kreuz
Director of Advancement
Carolina Day School
Carolina Day School installed a 112-Kilowatt solar paneling system which is expected to produce approximately 140,130 kilowatt hours annually, equating to half of the Upper School building’s annual usage valued at $11,500.
SUPPORT @ CDS

Our supporters are essential partners in achieving our mission to provide children grades PK-12 with an innovative education. A strong culture of philanthropy allows CDS to be responsive and adaptable to change and opportunity, and thereby always positioned to prepare our students for leadership and success in an ever-changing world.

WAYS TO SUPPORT CDS

Annual Fund
The Annual Fund is the foundation of everything we do at CDS, and a high percentage of community participation is the barometer of a school’s strength.

Annual Spring Benefit
Each year, CDS hosts a community-wide benefit, alternating between Auction Gala and Share the Promise. These events serve as community celebrations that bring hundreds of parents, alumni, faculty, staff, and friends together to raise additional funds for CDS programs.

Auction Gala supports faculty, programs, and facilities, helping us make CDS so special and allowing us to be innovative with everything from co-curriculars, arts, athletics, professional development to academics.

Share the Promise exclusively focuses on the financial aid program and budget at Carolina Day School, helping ensure more children who are great matches to our program can obtain a CDS education and, once here, that they all have what they need to fully benefit from the CDS experience.

There are many ways to support our Annual Spring Benefits, including:

• Volunteer to donate time and expertise to one or more of the event committees.
• Participate through your business by becoming a Community Partner sponsor.
• In-kind donations are the key to both events’ success. In-kind items range from gift certificates from great restaurants to travel opportunities, to “priceless,” one-of-a-kind experiences.
• Participate in a raffle (Tuition Raffle-Auction and Prize Raffle-Share the Promise).
• Host a Share the Promise dinner for 10 to 24 people.
• Bid on silent auction items without attending Auction Gala. We offer mobile bidding; everyone has an opportunity to raise their paddle and show their love for Carolina Day School.
• Raise the Paddle: Make a straight contribution in-person during the events, online, or through the mail.
WAYS TO SUPPORT CDS

Capital Campaigns
In order to create and improve teaching and learning spaces at CDS, the school strategically raises funds for our buildings and campus. These special campaigns are usually short-term and very targeted in their goal and purpose.
Most recently, the It All Begins Here campaign was completed in August 2016 to transform the Lower School, resulting in the beautiful new Love Hall, including the Oreck Library and Owen Academic Wing, as well as other new and named spaces for our programs and students.

Endowment
Carolina Day’s endowment is a permanent source of revenue and stability for our school. Funds contributed to endowment are invested by the school for its long-term benefit, and investment earnings provide the school with an ongoing source of revenue.
The CDS endowment consists of unrestricted funds, which are a combination of new funds, earnings, and a St. Genevieve/Gibbons Hall endowment, which transferred upon the completion of the 1987 school mergings. Also included in the endowment are restricted funds, several established by donors to honor faculty or loved ones and support programs they value.

Planned Giving
Planned gifts are an important way community members can leave a lasting legacy at Carolina Day. Planned gifts include bequests, annuities, charitable giving life insurance, and other instruments that allow donors to make a commitment to the school through estate planning. These gifts have a profound long-term impact on our school. Planned Gift donors are recognized as members of Carolina Day School’s Bell Ringer Society.

Volunteering
Carolina Day School volunteers play a critical role throughout our community. Parents, alumni, and friends are generous with helping hands, expertise, and time throughout the year, consistently giving back to help grow our Wildcat community.
Each and every way our volunteers invest in Carolina Day School through their varying levels of volunteerism strengthens our future. We are deeply grateful for the generous donors and volunteers who help shape and fuel the vision for our students, past, present, and future.

CDS ADVANCEMENT
Located in the Business Office on CDS’ Main Campus, the Carolina Day School Advancement Team is here to help you find the level of engagement right for you.

CELEBRATING THE CLASS OF 2020
Despite a year of uncertainties, trials, and tribulations, the Class of 2020 stood the test of time and committed themselves to joining the Wildcat alumni community, proving themselves to be the face of the future for many.
2019-2020 was a year people around the country and globe will not likely forget. At CDS, the year began with big change, challenges, and ambitious plans. Peggy Daniels, Carolina Day cornerstone teacher and administrator of 35 years, deferred her retirement a full year to serve as the school’s interim head of school and guide the school through several significant leadership changes. Tom Oreck, Board of Trustee Chair, who was in his tenth and final year of service on the Board, led Carolina Day School through a year of profound transition, most notably a full search process for a new Head of School.

While significant change occurred at the leadership level, for our students and families most of the school year moved along in a familiar and successful manner: the Class of 2020 made their mark by painting the traditional “Senior Rock,” Pre-K and Hallelujah Seniors embarked on their annual Monarch Migration, CDS came together in record numbers for a fun all-school Homecoming celebration and we marked the end of the semester with the annual Holiday Hoopla and WinterFest. The second semester brought the waves of our graduating class’s college acceptances, planning for the third Share the Promise event and benefit for our financial aid program, and we hosted over 400 grandparents for the PK-5 Grandparents & Friends Day.

Two historic events occurred in the second semester. First, after completing a six-month search process which distilled three stellar finalist candidates, the Board of Trustees named Stephanie Whitney as CDS’s new Head of School, and her tenure was to begin July 1, 2020.

Shortly after that announcement, and directly following Grandparents & Friends Day, the world radically changed overnight: COVID-19 was declared a high-risk global pandemic, and the Great Quarantine of 2020 began.

From March 2020 through the end of the school year, CDS, like all schools, went completely remote. Principals, teachers, and staff worked swiftly and thoroughly to prepare every grade and every student with materials and supplies to support remote learning, as well as technology. Our 596 students and their teachers rose to the occasion and made remote learning a dynamic, personal, and engaging experience. The 2019-2020 school year concluded with celebrating the Class of 2020 remotely through yard signs and care packages, and a creative first-ever outdoor Commencement ceremony.

Our greater community — parents, alumni, grandparents, and parents of alumni — supported the school’s efforts with encouragement, understanding, and philanthropy: in response to the needs and impact of the pandemic, our community donated a record amount to the 2019-20 Annual Fund. The community stepping up allowed the school to make the unplanned investments needed to teach remotely and in a pandemic environment.

Having navigated epic change, both planned and unplanned, after the school year concluded CDS teachers and administrators then turned their focus to the arduous task of anticipating and accommodating what would be needed in an ongoing pandemic and what the 2020-2021 school year would look like.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Much of Carolina Day School’s strength can be credited to the leadership of our board.
Our volunteer trustees, which include parents of current students, parents of alumni, alumni, and community leaders from diverse industry segments, have the credentials, expertise, and qualities needed to chart the direction of the school and ensure its continued success.

Peggy Daniels arrived at Asheville Country Day School in 1985 to teach English and Spanish. During her time here she not only taught those subjects, she served as advisor, as principal of the Middle School and the Upper School, was interim Head of School – not once, but twice – and held various other roles in the school and in the heart of the CDS community. Peggy retired at the end of the 2020 school year, having left a mark on the students who came through as well as the teachers and staff who worked for and with her. Here are just a few remarks from Peggy’s retirement:

“If I had to think of two words to describe you, I would use Radiance and Grace. And you bring those qualities to everything you touch at CDS.”

– Swati Patel ’92, CDS Board of Trustees, and CDS Parent

“She was never just an interim to us. She is a permanent part of the CDS community, and her discerning leadership, commitment to kindness, and transcendent legacy will continue to inspire and remain even after her departure. We are thankful for all that she has done for the school, and we wish her the best of wishes on her next journey in life.”

– Peyton Jenkins ’20

“I think the Annual Fund is a testament to the way people feel about you and your leadership over the years. This year the Annual Fund has reached records and I think a lot of that is because of what people want to say to Peggy.”

– Keith Love, Regent’s Council Chair and Parent of Alumni.

The CDS community came together like never before during Peggy’s final year as a full-time employee. (We expect that we will see her often in retirement.) In fact, the Regent’s Council, an ambassador committee consisting of cornerstone members of the CDS and greater Asheville communities, offered a Matching Gift challenge as a tribute to Peggy’s dedication. They matched, dollar for dollar, every new or increased gift made to the Annual Fund up to $50,000. This successful effort, which raised a total of $100,000 was a testament to the love this community has for Peggy.

Decades of CDS teachers, staff, students, and parents are grateful to Peggy for her steadfast dedication to our school. We wished her a well earned retirement and are delighted she will always be part of our community as a legacy faculty, parent of alumni and grandparent!
Former CDS Head of School Dr. Beverly H. Sgro passed away in Asheville on March 13, 2020. A beloved member of the CDS community, Dr. Sgro led Carolina Day School for eleven years (1999–2010) and remained involved as a member of the Regents Council and as a mentor and advisor for many at the school.

Dr. Sgro began her career in education as a speech pathologist in the public schools of Midland, Texas. In 1981, she accepted a position at Virginia Tech, rising through the ranks to later become the Dean of Students. Dr. Sgro was appointed Secretary of Education of the Commonwealth of Virginia in 1994 by Governor George Allen. In that position, she oversaw the Commonwealth’s public school system, higher education system, state library and archives and the state museums.

At the completion of her tenure as Secretary of Education in 1999, she accepted the Head of School position at CDS. In 2009, in recognition of her contributions, the Board and Benefactors dedicated the Sweeten Creek property to her, now the Beverly H. Sgro Athletic Complex. She was proud to serve our school until retiring in 2010. Dr. Sgro’s leadership, combined with her love of children and breadth of educational experiences, expanded CDS’s high standards of excellence. We will always be grateful for Dr. Sgro and her dedication to CDS.

THOMAS E. NASH JR.

A transformative supporter and leader of our school for over three decades, Tom Nash, alongside his wife, Brenda, joined our community as new parents of students enrolled at ACDS in the early 80s. Tom served on the Board of Trustees 1983–1987 and was one of the primary leaders who guided the merging of ACDS and SG-GH to create the new iteration of the two prestigious and cornerstone private schools: Carolina Day School.

Throughout his time as Trustee, parent, parent of alumni, and grandparent, Tom assisted in elevating the school’s spirit and confidence by helping CDS to excel at and promote athletics as a core element of the CDS experience. We can see the impact of his and Brenda’s support of athletics every day through our Nash Athletic Center, Alumni Gym, and outdoor spaces.

Tom and Brenda’s support and loyalty go far beyond athletics. Tom was known for seeing opportunities to help the school improve, grow, and get stronger. He took a strategic view and helped accelerate and strengthen the school’s evolution. During more difficult times when change was slow, he directly helped the school to build confidence and spirit and to set new ambitions. It was for these reasons Tom was awarded the Headmaster’s Award by CDS in 2013. We are so grateful for all Tom did to shape and support our school in such a positive way, and we are proud and honored to be part of his wonderful legacy.
Volunteers are the backbone of Carolina Day School. Many thanks to the parents, alumni, and friends who donated their time and talent throughout the school year!

Our volunteers have a key role in our school’s success, and are a major force behind the CDS community. CDS simply could not thrive without our dedicated volunteers.

A SPECIAL THANK YOU

We also thank the many, many volunteers who helped out in classrooms, assisted with extracurriculars, rolled up their sleeves for special events, supported athletic teams, and so much more. Your volunteerism allows us to do more and be better for the Carolina Day School community. We couldn’t have made the past two academic years safe and successful without you!

BENEFACTORS LEAGUE

Created in 2016, the Benefactors League is a comprehensive annual giving society that honors Carolina Day School donors who have contributed a combined total of $10,000 or more during the course of a fiscal year for any purpose. Totaled donations include outright gifts to Annual Fund, Auction or Share the Promise, endowment, capital, and/or restricted gifts.

Benefactors League members have a deep and lasting impact on the life of our school. Their substantial investments in our teachers, students, endowment, and facilities have a transformative impact on Carolina Day. Our Benefactors League truly set the CDS community apart amongst the greater Asheville region and we are extremely grateful for the generosity given to our students; on behalf of all the students we serve, thank you!

Building on generations of affiliation with and leadership and support of Asheville Country Day School (ACDS) and Carolina Day School (CDS), in December 2019 George H. V. Cecil (1925-2020) established a scholarship in honor and remembrance of his wife, Nancy Owen Cecil, that provides students across WNC access to a CDS education.

Funded through a permanent endowment recently established by George Cecil at The Community Foundation of WNC, the Nancy Owen Cecil Award is the largest scholarship created by a donor in the school’s history. The renewable four-year scholarship is for new students with financial need who have met the school’s admission criteria for ninth grade. The scholarship covers the determined need for tuition and extracurricular expenses. Recipients are high-achieving and academically motivated, with leadership potential and the motivation to achieve the best in all they do.

“Nancy Owen Cecil (1930-2016) was in the first class of students to attend ACDS—a predecessor school of Carolina Day—when it opened in 1936. Nancy and George have six children, all of whom attended ACDS. Several of their grandchildren attended Carolina Day School. Nancy was a lifelong ACDS and CDS supporter, and a beloved part of the Carolina Day School community. She was also committed to life-long service on behalf of the people of western North Carolina.

“Our family has a long history with Asheville Country Day School and Carolina Day, and we want to honor Nancy by establishing a permanent way to ensure students for generations can benefit from the same excellent education she, our children, and our grandchildren received,” said George Cecil. “She would be thrilled to make the CDS education and experience possible for others.”

The first student to receive the Nancy Owen Cecil Scholarship Award entered CDS as a 9th grader in the 2020-21 school year. A selection committee, which includes a representative of the George H.V. Cecil family, The Community Foundation of WNC, and CDS, will choose the award recipients.

“Mr. Cecil and his family are making an impact on CDS and students that will be felt for generations, and we are honored to remember and celebrate Mrs. Cecil in this way with them.”

ANNUAL FUND

Every Child, Every Year

The Annual Fund campaign is a fundamental piece of our annual operating budget, and is therefore critical to our delivery of educational excellence. Tuition alone does not cover the cost to educate a student at CDS, meaning all donations go back into student enrichment. CDS endowment earnings and charitable giving—most significantly to the Annual Fund—are critical in balancing the operating budget. Each year, donations to the Annual Fund directly support the quality programs and highly experienced and skilled faculty that make our school exceptional. All gifts of every size make a real impact to every child, every year.

LEADERSHIP CIRCLE

We are tremendously grateful to our Annual Fund Leadership Circle donors, who contributed $2,500 or more to the Annual Fund during the academic year. Leadership Circle giving has an extraordinary impact on what we provide to every student every year, and we are grateful for the generosity of those who are able to give at this level. Each fall, we hold a special reception to give thanks to our leadership donors for their investment in our teachers, programs, and students.

LEADERSHIP CIRCLE GIVING LEVELS

The Annual Fund Leadership Circle has four unique giving levels to help us better enrich the Carolina Day School community:

- Founders Circle
- Trustee Circle
- Head of School Circle
- Ambassador Circle

COMMUNITY PARTNERS

The CDS Community Partner program is a collaboration between businesses and Carolina Day School. Businesses and companies play a very important role in the philanthropic success of Carolina Day School by making outright donations at levels $1,000 and up.

Our Community Partners are actively committed to the success of our school; we encourage all community members to thank them for their generosity and partnership in providing more resources to our programs and students.

We are very grateful for the generous support of our 2019-2020 Community Partners:

Very special thanks to our 2019-20 Community Partners:

CDS HIGHLIGHTS

CDS was awarded a Gold Level Distinction Award in the Davey Awards for its website. Gold Level Distinction is the highest ranking honor in the contest and only five schools receive the award each year.

“Carolina Day School allows students to develop, utilize, and find their purpose by ensuring all students feel seen and heard. We do this by creating space for curiosity of thought and dialogue, celebrating differences and similarities, and connecting through our personal stories. This allows students to achieve academic excellence and thrive both in and out of the classroom.”

- Elizabeth Garland ’09, Carolina Day Alumna & Director of Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Belonging
Horizons at Carolina Day is a six-week summer academic enrichment and school-year outreach program hosted on CDS’s campus that serves low income students in the Asheville Public School system. The mission of the program is to change the trajectory of its students by instilling in them the joy of learning, the skills for success, and the inspiration to realize their dreams.

Donations to Horizons are restricted to specifically support this distinct program and its students, and donors help the program provide Horizons students with more opportunities and enhance their experiences each year.

Horizons is working so hard to support a population that has been left out of the conversation by our nation for far too many years.”

- Cindy, Horizons volunteer
Once again, you made Share the Promise a success! Though the event could not take place as planned, we are so grateful for our CDS community as they rallied together in support of Share the Promise and our financial aid program!

We are especially grateful to our 2020 event Chairs, Margaret and Josh Gibbs, who are champions of the cause and whose energy and enthusiasm remained strong even when COVID-19 changed the event plans.

Please join us in giving a big thank you to our alumnus Keynote Speaker, Jeff Stewart ’94, who remained true to the cause, delivering his message virtually.

Thanks to all of our Raise the Paddle supporters, raffle ticket buyers, and our generous challenge match donors. Share the Promise 2020 efforts raised almost $100,000 for financial aid and Carolina Day School!

Loyalty Club members have a powerful impact on the success of the Carolina Day School. Collectively, their annual gifts influence the school’s ability to meet emerging needs and create new opportunities for students.

The Loyalty Club was created in 2018 to honor CDS’s most loyal alumni, parents, parents of alumni (PALs) faculty, staff, and friends. Donors qualify as Loyalists upon their second consecutive fiscal year of giving or immediately after committing to a recurring gift or multi-year pledge. These generous individuals understand that consecutive annual investments, no matter the size, transform lives, and they make annual giving to Carolina Day a priority.

CDS HIGHLIGHTS

Caroline Koon (’22) won First Place in the Varsity Lincoln-Douglas debate at the Asheville High School Cougar Classic Speech and Debate Tournament.
The Bell Ringer Society recognizes those individuals who have included Carolina Day School in their estate plans. The forethought and wisdom of these alumni, parents, grandparents, and faculty help guarantee the school’s future by arranging bequests or establishing trusts that provide a significant source of funding for future generations of CDS students.

These legacy gifts help fund vital programs and keep an education at Carolina Day School within reach for many families, an opportunity to truly stand the test of time for all Wildcats.

Our endowment is our foundation and our future. We acknowledge those before us who invested their foresight and resources into the school we know today. Gifts to Carolina Day School’s endowment are an investment in continuing the lasting values that have always made our and our predecessor schools extraordinary.

Carolina Day’s endowment supports our faculty, provides financial aid to our families, and helps sustain our programs and activities. We are grateful to those who have made a permanent impact on our school through gifts to endowment.

NAMED ENDOWMENTS

General Operations

Bob Henson Estate Endowment
Established by a generous estate gift from Bob Henson, this fund provides support for Carolina Day School’s general operating expenses.

Beecher/Houston/Foundation for the Future
These combined funds provide for financial aid, general operating, additional instruction costs and programs, community service, and extracurricular programs not covered by tuition.

Cornelia W. Stephens Memorial Fund
This fund was established in memory of Cornelia W. Stephens, beloved teacher, by friends and family members to provide funds for general operations. These unrestricted funds are to be used at the discretion of the Board of Trustees.

Financial Aid

The Halstead Family Foundation Key School Financial Aid Endowment Fund
Established in 2016 by the Halstead Family Foundation under the direction of Elaine and Stephen Klesius, this fund provides need-based financial aid awards to families with students who have need for specialized instruction and are accepted and enrolled in Key School at Carolina Day.

Edward E. Ford Foundation Scholarship Fund
Established by a generous challenge grant from the Edward E. Ford Foundation and matched by an anonymous donor, this fund provides financial aid for minority students grades 9-12 who have demonstrated need.

St. Genevieve-Gibbons Hall Schools Endowment Fund
Transferred at the creation of Carolina Day School by its predecessor St. Genevieve-Gibbons Hall, this fund provides financial aid for students with demonstrated need and for teacher enrichment and capital additions.

St. Genevieve Closing Endowment Fund
Transferred at the creation of Carolina Day School by its predecessor St. Genevieve-Gibbons Hall, this fund provides financial aid for students with demonstrated need, teacher enrichment, and capital additions.

William C. Owen Memorial Fund
Established by the Owen family in memory of William C. Owen, this fund provides a need-based scholarship to a Grade 8-12 student who demonstrates athletic ability and high moral character. The fund also supports substance abuse prevention education for Carolina Day School students.

Scholarships (cont.)

Sister Kathleen Winters Memorial Endowment Fund
Established in memory of Sister Kathleen Winters by Gail Godwin (SGP '55), this fund recognizes the upper school student who is the most academically improved.

St. Genevieve-Gibbons Hall Scholarship Endowment Fund
This fund was established by alumni of St. Genevieve of the Pines and Gibbons Hall in memory of Mother Potts. It honors the legacy of those schools by supporting students in Grades 7-12 who bring academic promise, spirited involvement, quality of character, and diversity to CDS.

Faculty Professional Development

Betty Lou Davis Memorial Fund
Established by friends and family members in memory of Betty Lou Davis, an active parent volunteer, this fund honors a teacher who has demonstrated unselfish devotion in promoting academic achievement with compassion, the development of high moral character, and unselfish loyalty to the school and its students. The fund supports faculty professional development and needed classroom materials.

Lynn Waple Endowment Fund for Teaching Excellence
Established by grateful parents in honor of Lynn Waple, a beloved lower school teacher, this fund supports professional development for faculty and staff who have been with the school for five years or more, and who have demonstrated teaching excellence and/or high achievement.

"I see my teachers as mentors who are excited to share the world with us."
- Upper School Student

W. Leon Elliston Faculty Professional Development Fund
Established by W. Leon Elliston, M.D., this fund recognizes and encourages excellence in upper school faculty who demonstrate passion to strengthen the character and intellect of their students.

Edward E. Ford Foundation Professional Development Fund
This fund was established by a generous grant from the Edward E. Ford Foundation to support upper school faculty professional development.

Professional Development Endowment Fund
Established with auction proceeds from the 1997 auction, this fund has been adopted by subsequent auctions to support faculty professional development.

Fine & Performing Arts

Fine Arts Endowment Fund
Established by Parent Council from the proceeds of the 1991 Auction, this fund augments the art, music, and drama programs at all grade levels.

Jane Swicegood Endowment Fund
Established by Jane Swicegood (SGP ’51), this fund provides the Sister Kathleen Winters Creative Writing Award, honoring a junior or senior who demonstrates the greatest creative writing at CDS. It provides funds for the Jane Swicegood Speakers Forum, that brings writers, scientists, distinguished scholars, and motivational speakers to campus.

Other

Melissa Ogden Memorial
Established in memory of Melissa Ogden, an Asheville Country Day School alumna, this fund rewards excellence in teaching and service to the school. It is awarded to a teacher or staff member by his or her peers for outstanding contributions or loyalty to the school.

Science Endowment
This fund was established to support and enhance the Science programs of Lower School, Key School, and Middle School.

Upper School Building Endowment
Established as part of the 1997 “Our Future Is Now” capital campaign, this fund endows operations of the upper school building.

Golf & Tennis Instruction Endowment Fund

CDS HIGHLIGHTS

The Theater Department brought home honors after competing in the 2019 North Carolina Theatre Conference High School Play Festival held at Gardner Webb University. Both plays, “red threading” and “A Dance for Saint Vitus,” were written by Carolina Day students as part of Mr. Dvorscak’s playwriting class.
While learning in a non-traditional year, the Class of 2021 rose to the occasion and proved themselves to be prepared for the challenge, finding new ways to live, learn, and work together across CDS.
This remarkable year began July 1, 2020 under the leadership of new Head of School Stephanie Whitney and new Board of Trustees Chair, Michael Andry. Carolina Day School also welcomed two new principals: Trip Cogburn was named Upper School principal, and Lauren Evans joined CDS as Lower School Principal.

The entire summer focused on a single goal: to meet all our students where they are within the pandemic, and ensure all our students could continue their Carolina Day education regardless of the circumstances. The implementation of this goal was far from simple. The task to restructure the entire in-person experience to accommodate rigorous health and safety protocols, in addition to building a complete full-year remote option from the ground up was incredibly complex and arduous.

Our teachers and administrators, however, rose to the challenge with a flexible mindset and problem solved every aspect of doing school in a pandemic that could be anticipated.

The result was remarkable, as Carolina Day School launched 2020-2021 with two distinct and separate but adjacent programs: an adjusted in-person program for students who could come to campus, alongside a new “Bridge” program, an entirely remote program for students who could not. In August 2020, over 400 students returned to school on campus, while many of their classmates joined them remotely through Bridge.

2020-21 did not look or act like a “normal” school year, though. Everything changed to accommodate COVID. However, our entire community—students, teachers, administrators, and parents—exceeded expectations with their resilience and flexibility and worked together to ensure that students could stay in school in-person, and our Bridge program could continue through the entire year.

Carolina Day became the model for successful in-person school for other schools in our region; outside of a few brief, pre-planned periods of distance learning, our students remained in session, in-person for the entire school year, and there were no transmission clusters within our school.

The forced change caused by the pandemic proved a catalyst for a new level of solidarity, creativity, and gratitude at Carolina Day School which spread throughout our school community in 2020-21.

“...I’ve seen my children develop a curiosity, enthusiasm, and love for learning that I always imagined they’d have. I think that’s because of the teaching, warmth, and kindness they can feel because of their teachers.”

A cornerstone community member, benefactor, and leader of the region, Mr. George H.V. Cecil was well known for many reasons. Grandson of George Vanderbilt, CEO of Biltmore Dairy Farms, which later restructured to become Biltmore Farms development company, Mr. Cecil was respected as a savvy businessman with a sharp intellect, often the strategist and catalyst for some of the most impactful economic wins for Asheville and its region.

But the man that so many Asheville Country Day (ACDS) and Carolina Day School (CDS) community members knew and loved was the George H.V. Cecil who championed people and this community over the course of his life. To Carolina Day School, Mr. Cecil is a founder. Just as profoundly, he was a true friend.

Mr. Cecil and his wife Nancy Owen Cecil (1930-2016), an ADCS alumna and a member of the school’s inaugural class, were two of the longest standing, active CDS supporters and leaders. Combined, their affiliation and friendship with Carolina Day has been steadfast for the past 84 years. Simply put, Carolina Day School is here today in large part because of Mr. Cecil’s dedication.

Having faithfully served ACDS in multiple governance and leadership roles while his six children were students, his tenure with the school and efforts behind its continued success continued beyond their graduation. In the mid 1980’s Mr. Cecil, along with other community leaders, helped to ensure the merging of ACDS and St. Genevieve-Gibbons Hall was successful, and the future of the schools as Carolina Day School was secure. After the successful merge and transition of the schools into CDS, both Mr. and Mrs. Cecil continued to actively support and serve the school in all of its efforts as advocates, advisors, benefactors, and as formal members of the CDS Board of Visitors and CDS Regents Council. Mr. Cecil was an active member of the CDS Regents Council right up until his passing.

Walking across our CDS main campus, there is no shortage of reminders that Mr. and Mrs. Cecil had a big impact on the Carolina Day community, including that the very land both CDS campuses sit on was a gift of theirs. From the Owen Academic Wing of the Lower School being named after Mrs. Cecil’s parents to the Nancy Owen Cecil Scholarship, which ensured that financial barriers were removed for more WNC students to call CDS home, the Cecil family worked diligently to provide opportunities to students for generations to come.

Among all the significant contributions Mr. Cecil made to the community, perhaps the most profound was his friendship. ACDS and CDS Heads of Schools, staff, faculty, Trustees, and countless community members over the past many decades benefited from and came to love and look forward to Mr. Cecil’s kindness, welcoming nature, steadfast encouragement, sage advice, and his sharp witted, good natured humor. His presence, his spirit, and his friendship will be deeply missed.
CDS HIGHLIGHTS

The Carolina Day School Girls Cross Country Team won it’s 7th consecutive State Championship, dominating the 2020 North Carolina Independents Schools Final Competition held in November of 2020.

A cornerstone community member, benefactor, and leader in our region, Mr. Owen has been directly involved with our school for 80 years. He was an alumnus of Asheville Country Day School, and he was an ACDS parent, Trustee, CDS benefactor, grandparent, and Regents Council member.

While a young ACDS student, Mr. Owen was the subject of several Norman Rockwell paintings. Mr. Owen’s grandfather had taken a liking to the not-yet famous Rockwell and commissioned him for numerous works, many of which were for Beacon Blanket marketing and featured the young Charles Jr.

After graduating from UNC-Chapel Hill, Mr. Owen followed in his father and grandfather’s footsteps and he began his career at Beacon Manufacturing. In 1971 he founded a new company, Charles D. Owen Mfg., and his new company became the largest single unit blanket producer in the world. On Mr. Owen’s watch, it is estimated that the two companies provided jobs to 10,000 families in our region.

Just as it is impossible to imagine WNC without the Owen family, it’s impossible to know or imagine Carolina Day School without Charles D. Owen Jr. specifically. Mr. Owen’s influence on and support of ACDS and CDS specifically were profound.

Known as a man of many strongly-held opinions often colorfully expressed, an enthusiastic tall tale teller, and a deeply loyal friend, Mr. Owen had a gift for getting to know people’s names and personal histories. He had a big heart for helping those in need, and he actively served many organizations in which he believed. Having served ACDS in multiple governance and leadership roles while his four children were students, his tenure with the school and efforts behind its continued success continued beyond his children’s ACDS careers. Mr. Owen served as a member of the Regents Council, a position he held until his passing.

The William C. Owen Memorial Fund provides financial aid scholarships to students who exhibit athletic leadership and high moral character, and also provides funding for substance and addiction education programs at CDS. In addition to this endowment, Mr. Owen provided generous support over the decades to ensure multiple capital campaigns and other school efforts were successful. We are also honored to have a visual tribute to the Owen family’s impact across ACDS and CDS, the Owen Academic Wing in the Lower School, which was established by Mr. Owen’s sister Nancy in honor of their parents.

CDS is honored and grateful to be a living part of Charles D. Owen Jr.’s story and legacy — our students and teachers continue to see and benefit from his support of our school every day. We are especially grateful for and proud of the dozens of students and alumni to date who we may not have seen at CDS if not for Mr. Owen, thanks to an endowment he thoughtfully established in memory of his son Bill.
Even though we could not hold a special event, you supported our school in the most amazing way in a year like no other. You raised your paddles, bought raffle tickets, and, remotely but together, we raised $100,000 for our school!

While we didn’t get to come together in person for a traditional gala, you showed that it’s not the cocktail attire, drinks, or even the night out with a babysitter at home that motivates this community to give. We look forward to all of those aspects of a traditional event soon. Until then, we celebrate you for your unwavering support.

Thank you to our entire community for all you do to help us beat the odds every single day and continue to enhance Carolina Day!
