ARTICLE 5 HOURS AND OVERTIME

5.1 Workweek of full-time employees

The workweek of full-time employees shall consist of eight (8) hours a day or forty (40) hours per week. This Article shall not restrict the extension of the regular workday or work week on an overtime basis when such is necessary to carry on the business of the District.

5.2 Workweek for part-time employees

The workweek of full-time employees shall be designated by the District according to District needs and set at the beginning of each school year or on the date of hire.

5.3 Length of the workday

The length of the workday (the number of hours worked in a day) shall be designated by the District for each classified assignment in accordance with the provisions set forth in this Agreement. Each bargaining unit member shall be assigned a fixed, regular and ascertainable minimum number of hours.

5.4 Occasional scheduling changes

Occasional scheduling changes on a day to day basis (one (1) hour or less) may be mutually agreed to by the manager and unit member, not exceeding five (5) consecutive working days. Any changes in hours or shift schedule not addressed in this article shall be a matter for meeting and negotiating between CSEA and the District.

5.5 Adjustment in Assigned Time

Additional hours may be assigned to employees working less than eight (8) hours per day when deemed necessary and appropriate by the District. Any employee who works thirty (30) minutes or more per day in excess of his/her regular part-time assignment for a period in excess of twenty (20) consecutive work days shall have his/her regular assignment adjusted upward to reflect the longer hours in order to acquire fringe benefits on a properly prorated basis effective with the next pay period. Such additional assigned time shall not be permanent unless specifically so determined by the District.

Any and all authorized work performed by employees will be compensated. All schedules shall properly reflect the time that is necessary for any preparation work that must be performed at employee workstations.

5.6 Lunch Period

An employee working at least five (5) consecutive hours per day shall be entitled to a duty-free unpaid lunch period after the employee has been on duty for three and three- quarter (3 ¾) hours. Full time employees shall have their lunch break scheduled at or about the mid-point the employee's work shift.

5.7 Employee Rest Periods Shall be Provided as Follows

- 5.7.2. Two (2) fifteen (15) minute periods for employees who work at least six (6) consecutive hours per day.

5.8 Work Week

The work week shall be Sunday through Saturday.

5.9 Overtime

- 5.9.1. Overtime is any time worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or the time worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a week unless mutually agreed to otherwise under section 5.16. Overtime shall be paid at the following rates:

- 5.9.1.1 Time and one-half for the time in excess of eight (8) hours worked in a day and/or forty (40) hours in one work week;
- 5.9.1.2 Double time and a half for legal holidays;
- 5.9.1.3 Double time for Sunday;
- 5.9.1.4 Time and one-half for District holidays.

- 5.9.2 Overtime for Food Service employees who are called back to work for special activities shall be paid at the rate of:

- 5.9.2.2 Double time for Sunday;
- 5.9.2.3 Time and one-half for Holidays worked in addition to regular pay.

- 5.9.3 The Head Custodian shall review facilities use permits to perform both regular duties and permit-related duties. If workloads need to be adjusted to fulfill District cleaning requirements, the Head Custodian and/or Assistant Head Custodian shall request that the Director of Maintenance, Operations, and Facilities or designee authorize overtime, additional support staff, or a modified work load.

5.9.4 On the mutual agreement between a bargaining unit member and the Director of MOF/designee or Director of Food Services/designee, an employee may accept compensatory time off in lieu of payment for overtime. Any compensatory time off shall be used or paid within one (1) year of accrual.

5.9.5 Essential personnel that are required to work on days in which the District is closed due to emergency shall be paid at double the regular rate of pay.

5.10 Shift Differential – Refer to Appendix L.

5.11 Equal Distribution of Overtime

Overtime shall be offered on a rotating basis at each site and/or within each trade. If no employee at the site or within the trade accepts the overtime, overtime shall be offered on a rotating basis by seniority within the classification.

5.12 Minimum Call-In Time

Any employee called in to work on a day when the employee is not scheduled to work shall receive a minimum of two (2) hours pay at the appropriate rate of pay under this Agreement.

5.13 Call-Back Time

Any time a classified employee has completed his/her regular assignment, and has left the premises and is called back to voluntarily work on an emergency substitute or need basis, the employee shall receive a minimum of two (2) hours compensation, understanding that the employee called back shall be considered on staff for the duration of the two (2) hours being compensated and shall therefore not be eligible to receive two (2) additional hours if called again during this time, regardless of whether the employee has returned home. Conversely, a call back after the two (2) hour period would be eligible for the two (2) hour minimum compensation. A log of multiple call back hours shall be maintained by the employee and turned in as documentation for payroll purposes.

5.14 Summer Work

Summer work shall be offered to bargaining unit members working less than twelve (12) months in the following order of preference:

5.14.1 Summer work shall first be offered to bargaining unit members that worked in the classification during the regular school year at the pay applicable to that classification. In the event that two or more unit members in the classification applies, the summer work shall be awarded to the most senior unit member.

5.14.2 In the event that no unit member currently assigned to the classification applies, the District shall then offer the summer work to other bargaining unit members. Bargaining unit members working in a different classification during the summer than they normally work during the regular school year shall receive the rate of pay applicable to that classification as paid during the regular school year. In the event that two or more unit members apply for the summer work, the District shall normally give preference to the most senior member. In the event the District awards the summer work to a member with less seniority, the member who was not awarded the work may make a written request for an explanation to Human Resources.

- 5.14.3 If no bargaining unit members apply, the District may then post to the outside. Bargaining unit members who work summer positions shall be entitled to receive benefits as outlined in the Education Code.

5.15 Out-of-class duties

Employees may be required to perform out-of-class duties. If an employee is required to do so for five (5) consecutive days or more, he/she shall be paid at the higher class level at the equivalent step for the entire period he/she is required to work out of class.

5.16 Alternative work week schedules

Alternative work week schedules, such as nine (9) days, eighty (80) hours, or flex schedules may be developed and implemented upon mutual agreement of the District and CSEA 860.

ARTICLE 6 TRANSFER

6.1 Definition

- 6.1.1. "Lateral transfer" is defined as a lateral change of position within the same job title.

6.2 Voluntary Transfers

- 6.2.1. All vacancies within the Bargaining Unit shall be posted at all work sites where employees in the Unit are regularly assigned for a period of ten (10) calendar days.
 - 6.2.1.1 During that posting period, the vacancy shall not be permanently filled.
- 6.2.2. The posting shall state:
 - 6.2.2.1 The site of the vacancy;
 - 6.2.2.2 The number of hours regularly assigned;
 - 6.2.2.3 The job classification;
 - 6.2.2.4 The immediate supervisor.
- 6.2.3. Any employee going on leave during the period of posting may request a copy of the notice by contacting the Human Resources Office.
- 6.2.4. An employee on leave shall have the right to have his/her Job Representative file for the transfer on his/her behalf.
- 6.2.5. Employees who have received an overall evaluation rating of "Satisfactory" or above on their two most recent evaluations shall be eligible for lateral transfer. The most senior eligible employee requesting the lateral transfer shall be placed in the vacancy. Seniority will be determined by hire date within the class.
- 6.2.6. During the school year, if more hours become available for Food Service Assistant 1 positions, they shall be offered to the applicant with the most seniority.
- 6.2.7. An employee may transfer to a position in a classification previously held. In such a case, the employee shall be credited only with the seniority he/she accrued in the classification to which he/she is seeking to transfer but not with the seniority attained in the classification he/she now holds, notwithstanding, 6.2.5 above.

- 6.2.8. If an employee successfully transfers to a new classification, within 15 calendar days that employee may choose to rescind such a transfer and return to his/her previous classification.

6.3 Involuntary Transfer

- 6.3.1. An involuntary transfer pursuant to this section shall not be made until there has been compliance with Section 6.2.1 through 6.2.5 of this Article.
- 6.3.2. When an involuntary transfer is necessary because of lack of funds or lack of work, volunteers shall be considered for transfer first.
- 6.3.3. If there are no volunteers, the employee with the least seniority within the classification shall be transferred.

6.4 Administrative Transfer

The reason for an administrative involuntary transfer made by the District shall be the improved efficiency of the District. Examples of situations which may warrant an administrative transfer are a personality conflict with co-workers or supervisor(s), conflict with students or community users, and special requirements of the site where the employee is assigned. An administrative transfer shall only be made if (1) there is an open position in the employee's classification subsequent to the application of Section 6.2, above, with volunteers sought through a bid meeting process and (2) the employee has previously been notified in person and in writing of the possibility of an involuntary transfer, except in the case of danger as described below.

The District may immediately transfer an employee when the employee's presence creates a clear and present danger to the life, safety, or health of any person or property at the work location.

When a transfer is made pursuant to this subdivision, the employee shall be given a written statement of the reason(s) for the transfer. Where appropriate, supporting documentation shall be available on request.

ARTICLE 7

JOB POSTINGS AND VACANCIES

7.1. Posting Period

When the District determines that a vacancy exists, the District shall notify all bargaining unit members via email at least ten (10) working days before closing the application period. In addition, the District shall post the vacancy for not less than ten (10) working days at the warehouse, central kitchen, Maintenance, Operations, and Facilities Central Office (maintenance yard), District Office, as well as all school sites while advertising the vacancy outside the District. Job postings shall include any site specific information.

7.2. Procedures

7.2.1. Any bargaining unit member, with the exception of newly hired employees still in their probationary period, may apply for a posted vacancy by filing a written application with the District Human Resources Department. Employees who apply shall be considered before outside applicants as specified below. The filing of a request for transfer or promotion is without prejudice to any unit member and shall not jeopardize any unit member's present assignment(s). Any request for transfer or promotion may be withdrawn by the unit member in writing at any time prior to official notification of approval of the request.

7.2.2. Vacancies shall be filed in the following order:

- 1) transfer pursuant to Article 6;
- 2) reemployment pursuant to Article 6;
- 3) qualified non-lateral transfer or internal promotion candidates and external candidates pursuant to 7.2.3 through 7.2.8 below;

"Non-lateral transfer" is defined as a change in job title but within the same salary range.

"Promotion" is defined as a movement from a lower classification to a higher classification within the bargaining unit. Newly promoted unit members shall be probationary in the new classification for six (6) months. If a unit member is not successful in the new classification he/she shall return to the classification previously held by the end of the six-month probationary period.

7.2.3. If a vacancy is not filled via transfer or reemployment, the most qualified individual should be placed in the vacancy. All qualified current bargaining unit members who apply shall be interviewed first by the interview team, before any external candidates. The interview team shall not be provided with any applications of external candidates until after the interview(s) of current unit members are completed.

7.2.4. The “qualification” of internal candidates is determined based on the unit member’s knowledge, skills, abilities, and certifications as required by the applicable job description. Internal applicants who are deemed not qualified may request, in writing, a conference with the Chief Human Resources Officer or designee regarding the reason for the determination.

7.2.4.1. Bargaining unit members seeking to fill open positions not requiring specific testing or certification but requiring specified years of experience, may satisfy this criteria by showing years of service in the classification specified in the applicable Job Description, or by years of service in a substantially similar job regardless of whether that job was held within the District.

7.2.4.2. For vacancies that require AUSD Certification/Testing, testing opportunities shall be made available at least annually to bargaining unit members desiring to become eligible for promotional opportunities requiring this type of certification. Bargaining unit members may schedule a testing opportunity by calling the Human Resources Department and requesting a testing opportunity. Any bargaining unit member may request District approval to attend any, District training for any required certifications.

7.2.4.3. For vacancies requiring other regulatory certification, unit members seeking to fill open positions requiring state, federal, or other licensing or certification may satisfy this criterion by showing successful completion of coursework and/or testing required by the regulatory agency as specified in the applicable Job

Description.

ARTICLE 9 EVALUATION

9.1. Purpose

The purpose of the employee evaluation process is to acknowledge and support satisfactory performance and to help each bargaining unit member perform his/her present job more effectively to the mutual benefit of the individual and the District.

Evaluations are not discipline. They serve to communicate employer expectations and provide bargaining unit members with methods through which they can achieve satisfactory job performance. Evaluations further ensure that bargaining unit members are given the opportunity to interact with their supervisors in developing better communications and high quality, more consistent performance.

The following evaluation procedures set forth herein are thus designed to ensure that:

- 9.1.1. A collaborative process is established;
- 9.1.2. Continuity exists between evaluation cycles;
- 9.1.3. Bargaining unit member rights are respected.

9.2. Procedures

- 9.2.1. The immediate supervisor is responsible for the evaluation of the classified personnel under his/her supervision. The supervisor may solicit input from other District administrators with whom the bargaining unit member has contact in an effort to verify classified personnel performance and achievements.
- 9.2.2. Probationary employees shall be formally evaluated at least twice during their six (6) month probationary period and more frequently if deemed advisable by the District.

The evaluation of the permanent bargaining unit members, who do not receive their annual/biannual evaluation on or before June 1 of the evaluation year, shall be deemed satisfactory.

- 9.2.4. A bargaining unit member shall not receive an overall unsatisfactory evaluation unless there is some supporting documentation in his/her personnel file within the last year.
- 9.2.5. Unsatisfactory evaluations shall contain a plan of action that identifies clear and realistic steps that the bargaining unit member can take to improve his/her performance. This plan can be in the form of a few sentences on the evaluation form itself, or a detailed plan, including objectives and timelines, attached to the evaluation form.
- 9.2.6. A bargaining unit member who is being involuntarily or voluntarily transferred may request an evaluation. This evaluation shall be scheduled to occur with thirty (30) working days before or after the transfer.

9.3 Evaluation Conference

An Annual Evaluation Conference shall be scheduled by the evaluator by providing the bargaining unit member with ten (10) calendar days notice. Bargaining unit members failing to attend their scheduled conference will have another conference scheduled within five (5) calendar days of the first appointment. If a bargaining unit member fails to attend both scheduled conferences, the District shall have the right to unilaterally place the unit member's evaluation form in his/her personnel file upon providing ten (10) calendar days' prior written notice, which notice shall include a copy of the evaluation form and notification to the unit member of his/her right to prepare a written response.

9.4 Evaluation Forms

- 9.4.1. All formal evaluations shall be filed in the unit member's personnel file in the District Human Resources Office, and are available for the unit member's inspection by appointment;

20.6.5.1. Hearing Before Designee

- 20.6.5.1.1. A suspension without pay, involuntary reassignment for disciplinary reasons or demotion hearing may be delegated to the Superintendent or his/her designee by the Board.

ARTICLE 21
LAYOFF AND REEMPLOYMENT

21.1. Reason for Layoff

Layoffs may occur due to lack of work or lack of funds

21.2. Forms of Layoff

21.2.1. An involuntary reduction in the number of days worked in a year.

21.2.2. An involuntary reduction in the number of hours worked in a day

21.2.3. An involuntary reduction in classification through bumping by senior bargaining unit members

21.2.4. Termination of employment

21.3. Notice of Layoff

Unit members affected by layoff shall be given no less than forty five (45) calendar days written notice of such action (per Ed Code).

21.4. Order of Layoff

21.4.1. Layoffs shall be based upon seniority within a class and higher classes within the District.

21.4.2. In determining order of layoff in a lateral class (where an employee moves or has moved from one class to another class at the same salary range), the original class, prior to lateral movement, shall be considered a lower class for purposes of seniority within class.

21.4.3. Members with the least seniority within the class plus higher classes, shall be laid off first. This may result in a maximum increase of no more than two (2) hours.

21.4.4. Seniority for employees shall be based on the hire date in a class, plus higher classes excepting overtime and substitute hours.

21.5. Bumping Rights

21.5.1. A member laid off from his/her present class may bump into the next lower class in which the employee previously obtained permanent status. The unit member shall bump the least senior person in the lower class which may result in an increase of no more than two (2) hours.

- 21.5.2. The unit member may continue to bump into successive lower classes which he/she has served to avoid layoff.
- 21.5.3. A unit member may elect to be laid off in-lieu of bumping. Accepting such a layoff does not affect the unit member's reemployment rights under this Agreement.
- 21.5.4. When a unit member was initially employed in an identifiable entry-level position within an existing classification, the unit member shall have the right to return to the classification based on his/her seniority even though the position has been reclassified and/or the title changed, provided the unit member meets minimum qualifications required for the entry-level position.

21.6. Equal Seniority

Where two (2) or more unit members subject to layoff have equal class seniority, layoff shall be made on the basis of the lesser of the greater hire date seniority. Where all seniority is equal, layoff shall be determined by lot.

21.7. Reemployment Rights

- 21.7.1 The names of unit members laid off shall be placed on reemployment lists in the reverse order of layoff. Involuntary layoff shall continue for thirty-nine (39) months from the date of layoff. Unit members who elected voluntary reassignment or demotion in-lieu of layoff shall be placed on reemployment lists for an additional twenty-four (24) months.
- 21.7.2 Reemployment shall be in the reverse order of layoff.
- 21.7.3 Offers of reemployment shall be made on the basis of reemployment lists based on the highest seniority.
- 21.7.4 Unit members shall be notified of reemployment opportunities by certified/registered mail at the last known address of record, and/or shall be notified by telephone. The unit member shall, if notified by mail, have three (3) work days from proof of service, but in no case more than seven (7) work days from date of postmark, to notify the District of acceptance. Failure to respond/accept shall be considered a waiver of the right to the vacancy.

21.8. Right of Refusal

A unit member on a reemployment list may decline two (2) offers of reemployment in his/her former classification. After the second refusal, the unit member's name shall be dropped from the reemployment list. The unit member shall be notified of this policy at the time the second offer is made. No additional offers need be made, except the District may extend additional offers at its sole discretion.

21.9. Placement in Vacant Positions

A permanent classified unit member who will be laid off and who meets minimum qualifications of any vacant custodial, gardener, or Food Service Assistant position, may fill that position if the unit member chooses to do so. Once the layoff takes effect, the unit member's rights shall be limited to reemployment in classifications previously held in accord with the procedures of this Article.

SAVINGS CLAUSE

- 22.1 If, during the life of this Agreement, there exists any applicable law, or any applicable rule, regulation or order issued by a governmental authority other than the District which renders invalid or restrains compliance with or enforcement of any provision of this Agreement, such provision shall be immediately suspended and be of no effect hereunder so long as such law, rule, regulation, or order shall remain in effect. Such invalidation of a part or a portion of this Agreement shall not invalidate any remaining portions, which shall continue in full force and effect.

- 23.2. ARTICLE 24
NO STRIKE PROVISION

It is expressly agreed by both parties that there will be no strike, work stoppage, slow down, job action, picketing, or refusal or failure to perform fully and faithfully all job functions and responsibilities, nor will there be any concerted action or other interference with the operations of the District, by the Association or by its officers, agents, or members during the term of this Agreement, including concerted action for the purpose of showing support of other union organizations engaged in such activity. Upon exhaustion of all available impasse procedures for issues relative to any reopener under this agreement, the parties agree that this article shall be null and void until such time as a negotiated and ratified agreement regarding such reopener is reached.

The Association recognizes the duty and obligation of its representatives to comply with the provision of this Agreement and to make every effort toward inducing all employees to do so. In the event of a strike, work stoppage, slow down, concerted action, or other interference with the operations of the District by employees who are represented by the Association, the Association agrees in good faith to take all necessary steps to cause those employees to cease such action.

APPENDIX K FMLA FACT SHEET

U.S. Department of Labor
Wage and Hour Division

Fact Sheet #28: The Family and Medical Leave Act

The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) entitles eligible employees of covered employers to take unpaid, job-protected leave for specified family and medical reasons. This fact sheet provides general information about which employers are covered by the FMLA, when employees are eligible and entitled to take FMLA leave, and what rules apply when employees take FMLA leave.

COVERED EMPLOYERS

The FMLA only applies to employers that meet certain criteria. A covered employer is a:

- Private-sector employer, with 50 or more employees in 20 or more workweeks in the current or preceding calendar year, including a joint employer or successor in interest to a covered employer;
- Public agency, including a local, state, or Federal government agency, regardless of the number of employees it employs; or
- Public or private elementary or secondary school, regardless of the number of employees it employs.

ELIGIBLE EMPLOYEES

Only eligible employees are entitled to take FMLA leave. An eligible employee is one who:

- Works for a covered employer;
- Has worked for the employer for at least 12 months;
- Has at least 1,250 hours of service for the employer during the 12 month period immediately preceding the leave*; and
- Works at a location where the employer has at least 50 employees within 75 miles.

* Special hours of service eligibility requirements apply to airline flight crew employees. See Fact Sheet 28J: Special Rules for Airline Flight Crew Employees under the Family and Medical Leave Act.

The 12 months of employment do not have to be consecutive. That means any time previously worked for the same employer (including seasonal work) could, in most cases, be used to meet the 12-month requirement. If the employee has a break in service that lasted seven years or more, the time worked prior to the break will not count unless the break is due to service covered by the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA), or there is a written agreement, including a collective bargaining agreement, outlining the employer's intention to rehire the employee after the break in service. See "FMLA Special Rules for Returning Reservists".

LEAVE ENTITLEMENT

Eligible employees may take up to 12 workweeks of leave in a 12-month period for one or more of the following reasons:

FS 28

- The birth of a son or daughter or placement of a son or daughter with the employee for adoption or foster care;
- To care for a spouse, son, daughter, or parent who has a serious health condition;
- For a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the essential functions of his or her job; or
- For any qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that a spouse, son, daughter, or parent is a military member on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status.

An eligible employee may also take up to 26 workweeks of leave during a "single 12-month period" to care for a covered servicemember with a serious injury or illness, when the employee is the spouse, son, daughter, parent, or next of kin of the servicemember. The "single 12-month period" for military caregiver leave is different from the 12-month period used for other FMLA leave reasons. See Fact Sheets 28F: Qualifying Reasons under the FMLA and 28M: The Military Family Leave Provisions under the FMLA.

Under some circumstances, employees may take FMLA leave on an intermittent or reduced schedule basis. That means an employee may take leave in separate blocks of time or by reducing the time he or she works each day or week for a single qualifying reason. When leave is needed for planned medical treatment, the employee must make a reasonable effort to schedule treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the employer's operations. If FMLA leave is for the birth, adoption, or foster placement of a child, use of intermittent or reduced schedule leave requires the employer's approval.

Under certain conditions, employees may choose, or employers may require employees, to "substitute" (run concurrently) accrued paid leave, such as sick or vacation leave, to cover some or all of the FMLA leave period. An employee's ability to substitute accrued paid leave is determined by the terms and conditions of the employer's normal leave policy.

NOTICE

Employees must comply with their employer's usual and customary requirements for requesting leave and provide enough information for their employer to reasonably determine whether the FMLA may apply to the leave request. Employees generally must request leave 30 days in advance when the need for leave is foreseeable. When the need for leave is foreseeable less than 30 days in advance or is unforeseeable, employees must provide notice as soon as possible and practicable under the circumstances.

When an employee seeks leave for a FMLA-qualifying reason for the first time, the employee need not expressly assert FMLA rights or even mention the FMLA. If an employee later requests additional leave for the same qualifying condition, the employee must specifically reference either the qualifying reason for leave or the need for FMLA leave. See Fact Sheet 28E: Employee Notice Requirements under the FMLA.

Covered employers must:

- (1) Post a notice explaining rights and responsibilities under the FMLA (and may be subject to a civil money penalty of up to $110 for willful failure to post);
- (2) Include information about the FMLA in their employee handbooks or provide information to new employees upon hire;

- (3) When an employee requests FMLA leave or the employer acquires knowledge that leave may be for a FMLA-qualifying reason, provide the employee with notice concerning his or her eligibility for FMLA leave and his or her rights and responsibilities under the FMLA; and
- (4) Notify employees whether leave is designated as FMLA leave and the amount of leave that will be deducted from the employee's FMLA entitlement.

See Fact Sheet 28D: Employer Notice Requirements under the FMLA.

CERTIFICATION

When an employee requests FMLA leave due to his or her own serious health condition or a covered family member's serious health condition, the employer may require certification in support of the leave from a health care provider. An employer may also require second or third medical opinions (at the employer's expense) and periodic recertification of a serious health condition. See Fact Sheet 28G: Certification of a Serious Health Condition under the FMLA. For information on certification requirements for military family leave, See Fact Sheet 28M(c): Qualifying Exigency Leave under the FMLA; Fact Sheet 28M(a): Military Caregiver Leave for a Current Servicemember under the FMLA; and Fact Sheet 28M(b): Military Caregiver Leave for a Veteran under the FMLA.

JOB RESTORATION AND HEALTH BENEFITS

Upon return from FMLA leave, an employee must be restored to his or her original job or to an equivalent job with equivalent pay, benefits, and other terms and conditions of employment. An employee's use of FMLA leave cannot be counted against the employee under a "no-fault" attendance policy. Employers are also required to continue group health insurance coverage for an employee on FMLA leave under the same terms and conditions as if the employee had not taken leave. See Fact Sheet 28A: Employee Protections under the Family and Medical Leave Act .

OTHER PROVISIONS

Special rules apply to employees of local education agencies. Generally, these rules apply to intermittent or reduced schedule FMLA leave or the taking of FMLA leave near the end of a school term.

Salaried executive, administrative, and professional employees of covered employers who meet the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) criteria for exemption from minimum wage and overtime under the FLSA regulations, 29 CFR Part 541, do not lose their FLSA-exempt status by using any unpaid FMLA leave. This special exception to the "salary basis" requirements for FLSA's exemption extends only to an eligible employee's use of FMLA leave.

ENFORCEMENT

It is unlawful for any employer to interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of or the attempt to exercise any right provided by the FMLA. It is also unlawful for an employer to discharge or discriminate against any individual for opposing any practice, or because of involvement in any proceeding, related to the FMLA. See Fact Sheet 77B: Protections for Individuals under the FMLA. The Wage and Hour Division is responsible for administering and enforcing the FMLA for most employees. Most federal and certain congressional employees are also covered by the law but are subject to the jurisdiction of the U.S. Office of Personnel Management or Congress. If you believe that your rights under the FMLA have been violated, you may file a complaint with the Wage and Hour Division or file a private lawsuit against your employer in court.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING
BETWEEN ALAMEDA UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT
AND CALIFORNIA SCHOOL EMPLOYEES ASSOCIATION, LOCAL 860
RE: SHIFT DIFFERENTIAL

The Alameda Unified School District ("District") and the California School Employees Association, Local 860 (CSEA 860) hereby agree as follows:

1. All bargaining unit members receiving compensation pursuant to Appendix C-2 (Salary Schedule with 9% shift differential) as of the date of ratification of the new three (3) year Contract between the District and CSEA 860 ("the Contract"), shall continue to receive compensation pursuant to the Appendix C-2 within their current classification as long as they remain in that classification.
2. If a bargaining unit member being paid pursuant to Appendix C-2 promotes to any new position outside of the classification they were in on the date of ratification of the Contract, they shall no longer be eligible for compensation pursuant to Appendix C-2 and shall be paid pursuant to Appendix C-1 regardless of the start and/or ending time of their particular shift. See Article XI Pay, Section 11.4, regarding increases in pay as a result of his/her promotion.
3. If a bargaining unit member does not complete his/her applicable probationary period in any promotional position, he/she shall be returned to his/her prior position/classification and shall be paid pursuant to the salary schedule he/she was paid by immediately prior to his/her promotion

For example, if a unit member working as a custodian and being paid pursuant to Appendix C-2 applies for and gets a promotion, the unit member will no longer get shift differential regardless of whether the promotional position had previously been a position to which Appendix C-2 applied. However, if the unit member does not make probation in the new promotional position, he/she will be returned to his/her former position and be paid to pursuant to Appendix C-2.

4. All vacant positions and any and all newly created positions existing on or after the date of ratification of the Contract shall be compensated pursuant to Appendix C-1 (Salary Schedule without Shift Differential) and shall not be eligible for compensation pursuant to Appendix C-2 except as otherwise specifically stated herein.
