DUTIES OF PSESD: PdEnroller, through PSESD, provides transcripts, evaluations, evaluation summaries, official educator clock hour documentation for individuals, as well as guidance and instructions to assist content providers to offer clock hours for trainings. After a training has been approved for clock hours, PSESD Clock Hour Services will email the contact (the person who submitted the proposal) instructions and information to administer clock hours to eligible attendees.

DUTIES OF EXTERNAL CONTENT PROVIDER (Institution listed above): The training sponsor agrees to submit a completed proposal a minimum of 10 full working days prior to the event start date and follow all instructions in the email sent when/if the training is approved for clock hours. The institution listed above agrees to provide clock hour claim information to eligible attendees at the conclusion of the training. An attendance verification roster is required to be uploaded into pdEnroller immediately following in person trainings and synchronous online trainings. Certificates of completion are required to be provided by the institution listed above for all asynchronous online trainings. Asynchronous training certificates of completion must include the attendee name, title of the training, date the attendee completed the training and the number of hours the attendee completed. The term 'clock hours' CANNOT appear on the certificates of completion. Attendees of asynchronous trainings are required to upload their certificate of completion to claim clock hours. Questions about these responsibilities can be emailed to clockhourtranscripts@psed.org.

A separate proposal is required to be submitted for each occurrence of each training. Additionally, a separate proposal agreement is required for each occurrence of each training. Please note this agreement and the proposal it corresponds to must be received a minimum of 10 full working days prior to the training start date.

Event title as it will appear on the proposal:

Event start date:

The clock hour proposal fee applies to each proposal SUBMITTED and cannot be applied/'transferred' to a different proposal than indicated on this agreement. All trainings, including those cancelled, postponed, delayed, halted, etc. are subject to the submission fee below. This fee helps us cover the cost of the time and effort that goes into reviewing and processing clock hour proposals. CLOCK HOUR PROPOSAL SUBMISSION FEES ARE NON-REFUNDABLE.

Fees: $100 per proposed event
