

8th Grade Supply List

We are so excited to provide your 8th grade scholar with a list of supplies to set them up for success. There is a good chance you have most of the supplies in your home. You know your child best, there may be some items we do not have listed that we do not require but you know they are helpful to your child, such as sensory materials.

Learning independent study is one area we would like to focus on for all of our scholars. Understanding what helps your child focus and feel successful will help them not need so much of your time. We are here to help you along this great journey.
