

Dennis Biddinger

Outstanding Service to the School and Community

Dennis Biddinger attended Mapleton High School in Ashland, Ohio. During high school, he was a member of the football, basketball and baseball teams and marched in the band. Dennis attended Bowling Green State University where he received a BS in Education. In 1983, he obtained his Master's Degree in Physical Education from Ohio University.

Dennis was hired by Warren in 1973 where he taught for 35 years until his retirement in 2009.

Dennis and his wife, Jeannette, currently reside in Fleming. They have 3 sons who are all graduates of Warren Local Schools. Their oldest son, Doug, is a teacher at Hilliard Davidson High School. Jeremy is an architect in Athens, Ohio, and their youngest son, Andy, currently teaches at Warren High School. Their grandson, Garrett, attends Warren Middle School.

Dennis:

- Taught from 1973-2009: Health, Physical Education, Driver's Education, and Occupational Work Adjustment
- Coached 5 sports at Warren
- Head Girls Basketball Coach for 13 seasons, accumulating 208 wins
- In 1997, his Lady Warriors were the Division II state runners-up, earning Dennis the Division II State Coach of the Year honor
- Presently attends events in the Warren district
- Volunteers at Harvest of Hope

