Every Sunday after church the preacher and his parishioners, the coach, played golf. It was the same game for 13 years, a nickel a hole and the preacher never won. "I'm through, Coach," said the preacher. "This is my last time. In all these years, I've never won."

The coach laughed, "What are you worried about, preacher?" "You're gonna be havin' the pleasure of buryin' me one of these days." "That's true," said the preacher, "but it'll still be your hole."

I got out of the hole last weekend, 14 out of 20. Now I'm 63-38, 64 percent for the season. That can stand improvement, which starts now.
