School Board Approves New Director of Transportation for the MSD of Lawrence Township

INDIANAPOLIS – This evening, the School Board of the Metropolitan School District of Lawrence Township approved the appointment of Mr. Reginald White to the position of Director of Transportation. Mr. White will transition immediately to this new role from that of Assistant Director, a role he has held since 2015. Before that time, he served neighboring districts as an Assistant Principal, English Teacher, and Coach.

According to Superintendent, Dr. Shawn Smith, “I am proud of Mr. White’s leadership and commitment to the MSD of Lawrence Township these past seven years. I am confident in his ability to transition into this new leadership role while maintaining the excellence that our students and families deserve and expect.”

White shares, “The MSD of Lawrence Township is a wonderful community. I am proud to lead such an integral division and look forward to serving students and families in this new role.”

A Fort Wayne native, White earned his Bachelor’s Degree in Secondary Education at Indiana University Bloomington in 1997. He holds a Master’s Degree in Education and Principal licensure through Indiana Wesleyan University (2007) and is a doctoral student at Ball State University.
