

Cal Q. Leight

A cyclone hit the house at dawn and lifted the roof off, picked up the beds in which the coach and his wife were sleeping and set them down gently in the next month.

The wife began to cry. "Don't cry, Carrie," the coach told her, "We're not hurt." She continued to sob.

"I'm not scared," she responded between sobs. "I'm happy 'cause this is the first time in 14 years we've been out together."

I am not really predicting up a storm so far this season 13 of 21 last week, 58-31 for the season, 63%. This will be another tough weekend.
