

Cal Q. Leight

The coach took a summer job driving a semi and one night he pulled into a truck stop for a late supper. He was halfway through when three wild-looking motorcyclists drove up... bearded, leather jackets, filthy... with swastikas adorning their cheeks.

For no reason at all they selected the coach as a target. One poured pepper over his head, another stole his pie, the third deliberately upset his cup of coffee. The coach never said a word; just paid his check and left.

"That trucker sure ain't much of a fighter," sneered one of the roughnecks. The waitress, peering out the window said, "He's not much of a driver either. He just ran his truck over three motorcycles."

I ROLLED over all obstacles, almost, last weekend, 15 out of 18, which gives me a 114-54 record, 67% for the season. I picked Homewood-Flossmoor to beat Thornton 15-14; it was 16-14, and I said Oak Lawn would beat Sandburg. Now for the final week.
