

Kit Carson Elementary: School-Family Compact

School staff, parents, and students share the responsibility for student achievement and success. We will work as a team to meet this goal. Together Everyone Achieves More!

As a teacher or paraeducator, I will:

- Communicate regularly through progress reports, parent conferences, and newsletters
- Provide a high quality curriculum developed with the use of the Kentucky Academic Standard
- Provide varied and high quality, developmentally appropriate instruction in a supportive and non-threatening environment
- Maintain a positive attitude and believe that all children can learn
- Meet individual needs of the child by helping him or her become self-sufficient
- Assign developmentally appropriate homework, which is aligned to the curriculum
- Provide necessary assistance concerning homework assignments
- Encourage parent involvement in my classroom

As a parent, I will:

- Promote regular attendance and see that my child arrives at school on time
- Set bedtime so that my child gets plenty of rest
- Be aware of work done at school by checking over papers at night and communicating with the teacher and my child
- Set a time for homework without distractions, help when necessary, and check to see that it is completed
- Help my child develop a positive attitude about school
- Encourage responsibility in my child
- Support school staff in maintaining proper discipline
- Provide activities, when possible, which encourage and motivate my child to learn (for example, trips to the library or zoo, learning games, reading to my child).
- Give praise for hard work
- Attend regularly scheduled parent meeting

As a student, I will:

- Attend school and be on time
- Stay positive and motivated
- Treat adults, fellow students, and school property with respect
- Pay attention and actively listen to instruction
- Participate in activities and discussions
- Be prepared for school by completing my assignments and bringing necessary supplies
- Study for tests
- Ask for help when I need it

As the principal I will:

- Encourage the participants involved to meet and follow the guideline of the school contract
