Mission statement

To foster the gift of internationality and to broaden the commitment to transformation of the world through education.

We commit ourselves to:

- Mentoring our professionals and forming our school communities in the history, charism and spirituality of the RSHM.
- Educating for a multicultural and multi-religious world.
- Working to educate and act for the causes of humanity and creation.
- Preparing our students to become leaders who are agents of transformation for justice and peace.
