

Legacy Wall: Inaugural Class Nominees

School Board Action Item – August 22, 2022

Legacy Wall Purpose

The Legacy Learning Center's Legacy Wall is part of the facility's goal to honor the legacy of our school district. Those whose names are selected must be former educators, alumni or community members who have left a positive, lasting mark on students in Northwest ISD.

Regulation (CW)

For consideration of recognition on the Legacy Learning Center's Legacy Wall, nominated individuals are required to no longer be living and meet all the following criteria:

- Lived within Northwest ISD boundaries at some point during their lifetime;
- Affiliated with the district as a teacher, staff member, graduate or community member;
- Left a positive impact on students in Northwest ISD; and
- Aligned with the values set forth in Northwest ISD's mission, vision and beliefs.

Proposed Inaugural Class

Reminder: Inclusion on the Legacy Wall does not prohibit an honoree from later being selected as a facility namesake.

Mehran Aghili

In his role in NISD, Mehran Aghili oversaw construction and played a major role in providing students with high-quality facilities. He also supported student programs and was willing to work with engineering students to provide feedback.

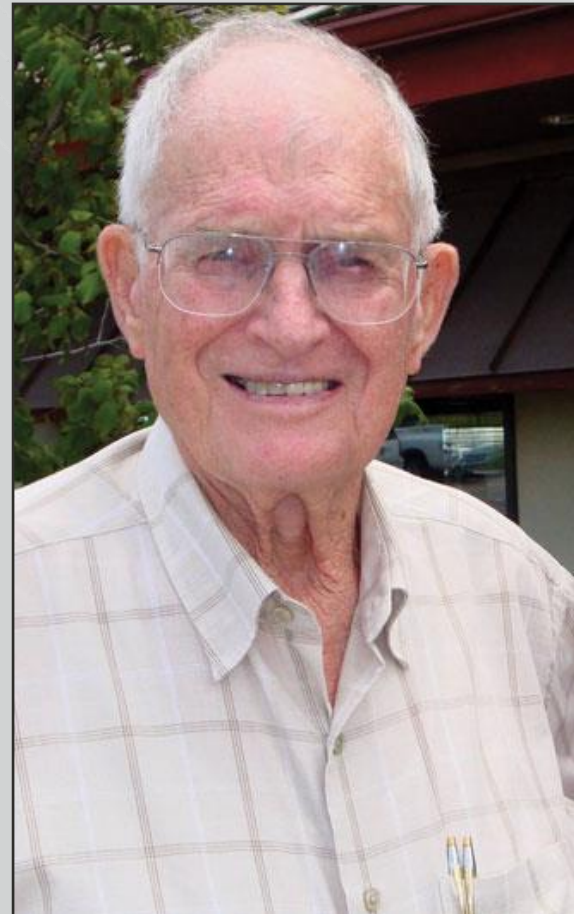

Dennis McCreary

As assistant superintendent of facilities, Dennis McCreary set the model for NISD schools. He was known for setting an expectation of excellence in our buildings to give students the best learning environments possible.

Mays Fuqua

As an NISD educator of more than 30 years, Mays Fuqua was known for his ability to do anything and everything. He was active in the ag program and later became a counselor and assistant superintendent.

MacKenzie Dunckelman

As an NISD graduate, MacKenzie Dunckelman was part of the first class in the LLC as part of the R.I.S.E. program. She was known for her smile and laughter, which was infectious and drew everyone to her.

1st Northwest ISD Board of Trustees

- J.C. Thompson
- Claude Calvert
- John D. Faught
- O.A. Peterson
- Leo Adams
- V.R. Eaton
- F.A. Cowart

The members of the first Northwest ISD school board set the foundation for the school district as it exists today. Thanks to their leadership, students now have access to tremendous opportunities to prepare for their personal future success.

Planned Dedication of Facility

In addition to the dedication of the Legacy Learning Center, the recognition of the first class of honorees for the Legacy Learning Wall will also take place at a come-and-go reception for educators to tour the facility.

6 p.m. Thursday,
September 8, 2022

Thank you!
Questions?