D. DISCUSSION ITEMS

1. Summer Facilities Projects Update – Ms. Amy Schultz, Executive Director of Business Services, gave a brief update on work taking place at the high school pool, shared that the greenspace work at Centerview is wrapping up, and the annual summer deep clean at all sites has begun. Board comments and discussion followed and focused on district-wide LED bulb replacement.

2. Consultation and Possible Approach to Memorials – Dr. Ronneberg shared background on recent and past requests regarding student and staff memorials on district sites and tonight asked the board for their input on ways to honor requests related to student/staff memorials, while keeping in mind the tracking and maintenance of memorials as well as consistent implementation. Board discussion centered around possible types of memorials, donations in honor of the student/staff, monitoring, tracking, maintenance, and timeline of memorials, potential effects on students/families/staff. Dr. Ronneberg thanked the board for their input on this sensitive topic and will share a draft information/procedure document with the board in July for a second round of input.

3. District Operational Plan(DOP)

2021-2022 Summary – Dr. Ronneberg reviewed the structure of the DOP summary document and shared brief highlights on the school boundary project as well as the alternative learning project within the DOP. He shared his appreciation to the staff involved for all the work and accomplishment in the projects of the 21-22 DOP.

2022-2023 Overview – Dr. Ronneberg shared highlights of the projects within the 22-23 DOP, highlighting several projects including Refine SLP Schools Online K-12, Complete K-12 Science

Study, Study District Demographic Trends, Support Teachers as Learners, and Address Frequent Student Absenteeism. Board discussion took place and focused on student absenteeism, struggling learners, and support for families. The board will receive many DOP project updates throughout the upcoming school year.

4. Other – Member Skelly asked for an update and discussion regarding test retake process for students and conversation about the current pool logo. Board and admin discussion followed.

E. ADJOURNMENT
