Position: Part Time Instrumental Tutors (Cello and Voice)

Accountable to: Instrumental Music Co-ordinator

Your Professional Duties: To cultivate the holistic JIS Learner Profile which includes:

Communication	Leadership
Thinking	Integration
Engagement	Resilience

General Statements of Responsibilities

Jerudong International School is looking for experienced part time Instrumental Tutors (Cello and Voice) to join our extremely well resourced whole school Music Faculty, who can contribute to the instrumental teaching programme at JIS. If you are able to teach both Cello and Vocal lessons, this is most desirable. However, proficiency in being either a Cello teacher or Vocal teacher alone is also suitable.

The successful candidate will take on both junior and senior Cello/Vocal students.

The successful candidate must be committed to the overall music programme and willingness to participate in the school's ensembles co-curricular activities programme. We hope to attract enthusiastic and proactive candidates to further enhance our excellent provision.

In addition to teaching inspiring one to one lessons, the successful candidate will have the ability to work collaboratively with colleagues within a large whole school Music Faculty consisting of five full-time senior class teachers, and ten specialist instrumental tutors. Proven ability to organise and support musical events and coach ensembles would be advantageous.
