The concept of a 'promise' is twofold – the first definition has an individual take an oath, either formal or informal, to commit to another person, an act, idea, or self-pledge. We see these types of promises in settings like weddings or contracts or the child's 'pinky swear.' The second definition of promise is that which can be found within us and others. People hold in themselves 'promise' of something good or something better – the promise of an individual – the promise of a group – the promise of a future. The A+ Foundation for West Aurora Schools, through its philanthropy, supports both types of promises. A+ promises to commit to the success of our District, our teachers, and, most of all, our students through a variety of programs, grants, and donations. A+ makes these promises in order to foster that 'promise' in each of the children who pass through the doors of our schools.

But, A+ does not support all this promise alone. We look to you, our benefactors – supporters – cheerleaders, to assist us both financially through donations and physically through volunteering time and talents. And each of you, through your support of the A+ mission, has been incredible. This year has not been an easy one. With the many concerns about health and the economy, the promises of 'getting back to normal' is on all our minds and we all hope for the promise of a brighter future because sometimes a promise is all we have to hold onto in tough times. We need promises to keep us moving forward and keep us centered, realistic and hopeful. It is through your generosity that we have been able to keep those promises to our students, our alumni, our staff and teachers, our donors, and our community.

So, Don and I just want to take this opportunity to say thank you – thank you for your promise of support; thank you for your generosity; thank you for believing in the promise of a future that is both brighter and imbued with success. You are appreciated.

The A+ Foundation for West Aurora Schools supports and promotes educational, cultural and charitable programs for the students, staff, and alumni of School District 129. DR. ANDREA MARIE SPAETH, '03

Andrea is a member of the Rutgers University faculty, a Postdoctoral Researcher at Temple University and, formerly, was at the Perelman School of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania, where she specialized in experimental psychiatry and sleep and chronobiology. Andrea has published several articles, book chapters and editorials that build upon her seminal work which has helped advance our scientific understanding of the relationship between sleep, weight management, and health – a topic particularly timely given the simultaneous epidemics of short sleep and obesity in America.

She has earned awards from the Sleep Research Society, the Obesity Society, the Center for Sleep and Circadian Neurobiology and the University of Pennsylvania, Department of Medicine and continues working on two studies that aim to improve health in ethnic-minority and socioeconomically disadvantaged populations. She volunteers with iPraxis which works to inspire middle school-aged students in underserved Philadelphia communities to explore STEM.

While at West High, Andrea was a member of the Student Council, as well as the Honor Society. She was the spring musical student director, a Reading mentor, a member of the Acapella Choir and was also involved in cross country, tennis, and soccer. The benefit of his vision has created CHOMP products (common household cleaners and products) which are environmentally friendly. He has been instrumental in the founding of 3 Tier Technologies, a manufacturer and distributor of products for turf, crops and a variety of environmental bioremediation solutions.

Peter has overcome personal challenges while helping others. His visual impairment does not impede upon his high level of independence and positive attitude. His philanthropic support continues with his being a huge proponent for advocating the need for home-based primary care nationally. He believes that home-based primary care should be an integral part of our country's health care system. He is also involved with the Spectrios Institute for Low Vision assisting underserved individuals at risk.

EXCELLENCE IN EDUCATION AWARD RECIPIENTS

The Excellence in Education Banquet was to be held in March, but due to COVID 19, the event was held virtually. This special event honors both the highest achieving academicians graduating from West Aurora High School this spring, Class of 2020, and the educators who have influenced them. The evening is dedicated to the recognition of academic accomplishments by the top 5 percent of the graduating senior class and the support from their parents and educators. Each student honored selected the educator who had the biggest impact on his or her scholastic life. These educators included elementary, middle and high school teachers, music and dance instructors, mentors, tutors, coaches and club sponsors.

BANDING TOGETHER

Banding Together started with a thought of a few A+ Foundation board members wanting to honor retiring music teacher Meg Papadalias for her dedication and tenure as a musical genius in the West Aurora school district. Meg retired in 2011. We wanted to raise funds to have the Meg Papodalias Endowment Fund through A+ so that we could donate money to different fine art programs throughout the district on a yearly basis.

Today, Banding Together has not only proven to be a really fun musical event every September, but it has also become a great fundraiser. In the last eight years we have raised close to $30K for fine arts program throughout the district.

Some programs include: ukuleles for our elementary schools music classes, equipment for the newly added digital music production lab at West, composer visits to the middle school, funding for West students to attend Theatre Fest in Champaign.

The event has grown to feature an alumni band, a student band and a staff band. This has also become a central event for class reunions. This past September the Class of 1989 enjoyed the evening along with West Aurora staff, friends and community to celebrate another year of West Aurora talent and commorodaire.

Banding Together IX has been cancelled on Saturday, September 19, at Two Brothers Roundhouse.

GIVING TUESDAY

A great big thank you to the generous staff, community members, and alumni who donated to our Foundation's 5th "Giving Tuesday" online giving campaign on December 2. Giving Tuesday gives us an opportunity to unite our community around causes in which we truly believe and help non profit organizations connect to the larger community. With your help, we can continue to provide support to enhance lifelong learning opportunities for the students, staff and alumni of West Aurora.

This year we raised $27,100 in one day. We appreciate all who supported us in this campaign. This year East and West successfully came together in the name of celebrating education in Aurora at Spartan House. Thank you Aurora East Educational Foundation and a very special thanks to Ron Woerman and the Spartan House for donating the food and space for us to raise funds for both foundations. Aurora-you make us proud! An A+ Thank You!

A special thank you to Paul Eccher and the Vaya Group for a $10,000 matching grant. Look for more information about Giving Tuesday 2020 on Tuesday, December 1, and also our 2nd annual East/West celebration.
