Davie County Schools Names Teresa Carter as Assistant Principal at William Ellis Middle School

The Davie County School Board, superintendent, and district leadership team are pleased to announce Teresa Carter as assistant principal at William Ellis Middle School.

Ms. Carter has been in education for 17 years, all serving in Davie County Schools. She began as a teacher assistant, bus driver, and reading specialist at William R. Davie Elementary School and was most recently an administrative intern at South Davie Middle School, while earning a Master's in Educational Leadership from High Point University. Ms. Carter also earned a Bachelor's degree in Sociology from Salem College and a Master's degree in Learning and Technology at Western Governors University in Utah.

Ms. Carter assumes her role as assistant principal for the 2022-23 school year at William Ellis Middle School.

Davie County Schools (DCS) serves Pre-K and K-12 students in the Piedmont Triad, just west of Winston-Salem. DCS includes 6 elementary schools, 3 middle schools, Davie County High School, Davie County Early College High School, Central Davie Academy, and Davie County Virtual School with a mission to engage, equip, and empower students. DCS provides a safe, innovative learning environment where each individual is valued, respected, and challenged. An engaging staff and community ensure students learn, grow, create, and discover their talents through experiences that prepare them for success. With a robust arts program, Career and Technical Education and home to the War Eagles, Davie County High School is a member of the Central Piedmont 4-A Conference, offering competitive and well-rounded experiences for students and student-athletes.
