Davie County Schools Names Joe Otranto as Director of School Nutrition Services

The Davie County School Board, superintendent, and district leadership team are pleased to announce the addition of Joe Otranto as Director of School Nutrition Services.

Mr. Otranto joins the Davie County Schools family after being in child nutrition for 24 years, most recently as the Director of Child Nutrition in Halifax County Schools. Mr. Otranto holds a Bachelor of Science in Hospitality Management from Florida International University, and an Associate of Arts in Business Administration from Miami Dade College, both in Miami, FL.

Mr. Otranto has notably been part of the advisory group and served as a content expert for the Farm to School Coalition of N.C. and also, part of the N.C. Department of Agriculture & Consumer Services Farm to School Advisory Board.

Davie County Schools (DCS) serves Pre-K and K-12 students in the Piedmont Triad, just west of Winston-Salem. DCS includes 6 elementary schools, 3 middle schools, Davie County High School, Davie County Early College High School, Central Davie Academy, and Davie County Virtual School with a mission to engage, equip, and empower students. DCS provides a safe, innovative learning environment where each individual is valued, respected, and challenged. An engaging staff and community ensure students learn, grow, create, and discover their talents through experiences that prepare them for success. With a robust arts program, Career and Technical Education and home to the War Eagles, Davie County High School is a member of the Central Piedmont 4-A Conference, offering competitive and well-rounded experiences for students and student-athletes.
