

TITLE	PUBLISHER	AUTHOR	ANNOTATION
Top Ten
10 Truths and a Dare	Hyperion	Elston, Ashley	Olivia is ready to graduate with top honors and enjoy her summer, but then she finds out her off campus PE paper never got turned in. She has to help with the last golf tournament to get the credit. Her cousins have to cover for her, and the cute boy she hasn't seen in awhile is distracting. Companion to 10 Blind Dates.
Admission	Delacorte Press	Buxbaum, Julie	When Chloe learns that her mother is accused of college admissions fraud, her once near perfect world comes crashing down. None of her friends want anything to do with her any more, and her half-brother seems to be one bad day away from an overdose.
All Boys Aren't Blue: A Memoir-Manifesto	Farrar Straus and Giroux	Johnson, George M.	A memoir exploring what it was like growing up a black, queer male. Readers experience his ups and downs as they follow the journey of with Johnson's own self-discovery.
All Eyes On Her	Imprint	Flynn, Laurie Elizabeth	Told from the points of view of all but the main character, readers are taken through the death of Tabby's boyfriend to the trial. Tabby's point of view isn't revealed until the very end. Everyone thinks they know what happened; their biased opinions are based on their past interactions with Tabby.
Amelia Unabridged 	Wednesday Books	Schumacher, Ashley	Amelia and Jenna are best friends who plan on attending college together, until Jenna dies in a car crash. Now Amelia has to figure out how to continue on as just Amelia.
Assignment, The	Delacourte Press	Wiemer, Liza	When an assignment to argue the Nazis' Final Solution is assigned, Logan & Cade do all they can to argue against the merits of not completing the assignment due to the sensitive nature of the topic.
Black Kids, , The	Simon & Schuster BFYR	Hammonds Reed, Christina	Los Angeles, 1992, Ashley should be riding high, though as the only black kid in her friend group, she's not quite sure how she fits into it. But when the Rodney King Riots erupt, Ashley will encounter how the weight of history bears down on us all.
Blackout 	Quill Tree Books	Dhonielle Clayton, Tiffany D. Jackson, Nic Stone, Angie Thomas, and Ashley Woodfolk	A summer heatwave causes a blackout in New York City through the night, but love blossoms into new beginnings for the different characters of long-time friends, bitter exes, and first time meeters.
Blazewrath Games	Page Street Publishing Co.	Ortiz, Amparo	Lana's dream is to represent Puerto Rico at the International Blazewrath Games. After being praised as a hero after a dragon attack, she finally has her chance. Along the way she learns a lot about herself.
Breath Too Late, A	Henry Holt and Company	Callen, Rocky	What happens to those you leave behind? What if you could experience the aftermath before moving on? Ellie has committed suicide, but before she can move on, she is stuck reliving the events that lead up to her suicide, questioning her every move and trying to comprehend what led her to the choice she made.

Burn	HarperTeen, an imprint of HarperCollinsPublishers	Ness, Patrick	During the Cold War of the 1950's, tensions are high. Sarah and her father hire Kazmir to clear their field. Kazmir, a blue dragon, brings news of a prophecy that will change the world.
Cast in Firelight	Delacorte Press	Swift, Dana	Adraa and Jatin have been betrothed since they were children - set to unite their two powerful kingdoms. But, a criminal element in Adraa's kingdom is out to take control. Not having seen each other for years, both adopt separate identities and continue the ruse as their romance blossoms.
Charming as a Verb	Balzer + Bray	Phillipe, Ben	Henri "Halti" Haltiwanger is the charming guy that everyone wants to be, but he is also secretly poor. When his dog-walker money making scheme is discovered by a less popular classmate, she blackmails him into boosting her popularity. The friendship that forms is unexpected, but is it real?
Complicated Love Story Set in Space, A	Simon & Schuster BFYR	Hutchinson, Shaun David	Noa wakes up floating in a space suit with no idea how he got there. DJ helps him get safely into the ship. They find Jenny hiding in a closet. Together they have to figure out where they are and how to save themselves.
Cousins, The	Delacorte Press	McManus, Karen	Three cousins are headed to their reclusive grandmother's resort for summer jobs. Family fallout has kept the three cousins apart until now. What caused the family to fall apart? It's up to the newly reunited cousins to solve this mystery.
Crossroads at Midnight, The	Iron Circus Comics	Howard, Abby	Each of the stories in this graphic novel focus on individual people as they are thrust into supernatural situations designed to play on their hopes and fears.
Crownchasers 	HarperTeen, an imprint of HarperCollinsPublishers	Coffindaffer, Coffindaffer	After Alyssa's godfather dies, she has to compete in a contest for the one thing she doesn't want--to see who the next emperor of the galaxy will be.
Cuban Girl's Guide to Tea & Tomorrow, A	Atheneum Books for Young Readers	Namey, Laura	Lila Reyes knew what her future would hold after graduation--take over her family's bakery, stay with her boyfriend and hang with her best friend--but after a series of massive losses, she is sent to Hampshire, England to visit her Tia.
Dear Universe	Little, Brown and Company	Gonsalves, Florence	Cham Myles lives in two worlds: Cham the high school student and Cham the daughter of a man with undiagnosed Parkinson's. Her parents' denial of the disease prompts Cham to keep her home life separate from school life. When her two worlds collide, she learns her decisions come with a hefty price.
Every Single Lie	Bloomsbury YA	Vincent, Rachel	Still dealing with the death of her father seven months ago, Beckett suddenly finds herself the center of rumor after finding a baby in the girls' locker room. She learns how rumors and omissions can tear a family apart or bring them together.
Everything I Thought I Knew	Candlewick Press	Takaoka, Shannon	After receiving a heart transplant, athlete Chloe begins to have abilities and desires she never had before. She learns of a concept called cell-memory where recipients of organ donation can do things that belonged to the organ donor. Exploring these experiences, she discovers there is so much more to life.

Fifteen Hundred Miles from the Sun	Skyscape	Villa, Jonny Garza	Julian Luna wanted to live his life fully his senior year and then go off to college; however, in one drunk night, his world is turned upside down with a tweet. A funny coming out novel about first love and being true to yourself.
Find Layla	Skyscape	Elison, Meg	Layla has lived her life with dirty clothes and matted hair without anyone questioning it. When a school project asks students to document a biome, she shows the deplorable conditions of her house, leading to a CPS investigation and her running away. On her own as always, she has to figure out how to navigate the media storm and stand up to her bullies.
Firekeeper's Daughter 	Henry Holt and Company	Boulley, Angeline	Riveting own voices tale about coming of age as an Ojibwe/white teen in Michigan. Daunis Fontaine deals with death, political rights, drug use and even sexual abuse.
Furia 	Algonquin Books	Méndez, Yamile Saied	La Furia is an Argentinian, who aspires to be a futbolera or professional soccer player. She is torn between two loves--the boy who is back in town and her love for soccer.
Game Changer	Quill Tree Books, an imprint of HarperCollinsPublishers	Shusterman, Neal	Football player Ash, finds himself hit so hard he is literally knocked into another dimension. He has to learn to accept things about himself before he can make things right.
Girls I've Been, The 	G.P. Putnam's Sons	Sharpe, Tess	When seventeen-year-old Nora O'Malley, the daughter of a con artist, is taken hostage in a bank heist, every secret she is keeping close begins to unravel.
Hard Wired	Bloomsbury	Vlahos, Len	Quinn wants nothing more than to live like a normal teen, but that is not possible because he finds out he is actually an AI (artificial intelligence). He and his "friends" fight for his right to be normal.
Harrow Lake	Dial Books	Ellis, Kat	After someone viciously attacks her father, an esteemed horror movie director, Lola moves to her missing mom's home town, which just happens to be the setting of her father's most famous movie. Lola has to work through finding out what happened to her parents, and tries to discover the secret of the town's hidden boogey man.
Heiress Apparently	Amulet Books	Ma, Diana	Gemma has always been warned by her parents to never go to Beijing. When she is cast in a lead role for a new movie, she has to go to Beijing, where she learns secrets that turn her life upside down.
House of Hollow	G.P. Putnam's Sons Books	Sutherland, Krystal	The story of Iris and her two sisters' beauty and mysterious abilities intrigued everyone. The disappearance of Grey, Iris's older sister, takes on a sense of mystery and horror as they are also followed by a man wearing a horned bull's skull mask.

I Hope You're Listening	Albert Whitman & Company	Ryan, Tom	How does one deal with the guilt and grief of your best friend's kidnapping? Dee Skinner has been grappling with this for the last ten years. She deals with it by creating a podcast as the Seeker, an anonymous host who helps solve other missing person cases. She's encouraged by her new neighbor and love interest, Sarah, to help with the new case that has arisen in her town. One that is way too similar to what happened to Sibby.
In the Shadow of the Fallen Towers: The Seconds, Minutes, Hours, Days, Weeks, Months, and Years after the 9/11 Attacks	Etch, Houghton Mifflin Harcourt	Brown, Don	September 11, 2001 changed the world for all of those who remember it, but not everyone knows of the impact of the day other than through stories passed down. This graphic novel tells the story in a way that allows the reader to feel the emotions and understand why that day is considered to be the worst day in modern American history.
In the Wild Light 	Crown Books for Young Readers	Zentner, Jeff	Cash Pruitt and Delaney Doyle from East Tennessee discover antibacterial properties of a particular mold in a cave. Delaney and Cash are admitted to a prep school, but Cash is reluctant to go. Cash hangs on at his new school as he struggles with homesickness, love, friendship and his roots.
Indivisible	Little, Brown and Company	Aleman, Daniel	Mateo has always known his parents were undocumented, but when ICE takes his parents away, he has to figure out how to reunite with them, while taking care of his sister and their store.
Influence	Delacorte Press	Shepard, Sara and Lilia Buckingham	Delilah became Instafamous after posting a video of her saving a dog. She moves to LA with her family and finds out the world of Influencers is not all it is cracked up to be.
Initial Insult, The	Katherine Tegen Books, an imprint of HarperCollinsPublishers	McGinnis, Mindy	A slow burn retelling of Edgar Allen Poe's "The Cask of Amontillado" with a dash of "Black Cat" thrown in. Told via dual point of view, the perpetrator's and the victim's, this story is one for horror and Poe fans alike.
Instructions for Dancing	DelaCourte Press	Yoon, Nicola	Evie Thomas has had a rough time. Her parents are divorcing because her dad had an affair. Though Evie knows why, she has to keep this a secret. In addition, she has gained the ability to see a relationship from beginning to end when she sees a kiss. When she accidentally becomes a dancer and is paired with X, things start to change for her.
Ivies, The	Crown Books for Young Readers	Donne, Alexa	The Ivies are an elite group at an elite school. They each have their goal school, which they have had since they were freshmen. They pull strings and use favors, sometimes crossing the line stay at the top. Early decision day doesn't go as planned and a girl ends up dead in the lake. With several suspects, all having motive, this thriller keeps the reader guessing.

Just Our Luck	Random House Books for Young Readers	Walton, Julia	After fighting his classmate, Leo's dad forces him to take a self-defense class with his attacker. Leo finds himself agreeing to anything Evey Paros will have him do (despite the ongoing feud between their families) as long as she gets him out of it. Evey is on a mission of her own, though--one that could change Leo's life forever.
Legendborn 	Margaret K. McElderry Books	Deonn, Tracy	After her mother suddenly dies, Bree Matthews finds herself wrapped up in a magical secret society that may have had something to do with her mother's death. Arthurian legend blooms to life as Bree tries to figure out who knows what and where her own magic seems to spring from.
Living Beyond Borders	Philomel Books	Longoria, Margarita (editor)	An emotional punch of twenty stories/contributions by Mexican American authors that connect the reader emotionally through short stories, essays, poems and graphic stories. The anthology encompasses diverse points of view of and cultural locations in each story with heart-full moments and self-discovery.
Loop, The	Chicken House, Scholastic Inc.	Oliver, Ben	Locked inside a futuristic jail, Luka Kane's life is on repeat, an endless cycle of isolation and being experimented upon. But when his captors begin acting strangely, Luka and his fellow inmates must figure out what's going on outside their prison or if there's even anyone left out there.
Lore	Hyperion	Bracken, Alexandra	Lore has tried to turn her back on her destiny, but when the Agon (the hunt of the Gods) arrives in New York, her past finds her. Trying to save the power of the Gods and Goddesses, Lore finds her true self.
Luck of the Titanic	G.P. Putnam's Sons Books	Lee, Stacey	alora Luck has a plan: board the Titanic with a ticket from her dead Mistress and convince her brother to join her as a circus performer in America. There are several things wrong with Val's plan however, the first being the Chinese Exclusion Act; also this is the Titanic.
Malice	Entangled Teen	Dunn, Pintip	Alice hears a voice in her head that tells her she must stop someone from creating a virus that will destroy the world in 10 years.
My Eyes Are Up Here	Dutton Books for Young Readers	Zimmerman, Laura	Greer has two problems: Maude and Mavis, her extremely large breasts. Life is hard when you can't find a bra that fits, swim, or sleep on your stomach. Greer hides in oversized sweatshirts and avoids romance, but then Jackson comes along. Greer must overcome insecurities to take a chance on love.
Nameless Queen	Crown	McLaughlin, Rebecca	In a society where the Nameless mean nothing, Coin, a Nameless is identified as the successor to the king. Not knowing who to trust, Coin has to find a way to survive until she can choose her successor.

New David Espinoza, The	HarperTeen, an imprint of HarperCollinsPublishers	Aceves, Fred	David is bullied relentlessly because of his skinny frame. After being humiliated on social media, David decides to join a gym over the summer to get stronger. When results don't come as soon as he would like, David is tempted by the quick fix of steroids.
No True Believers	Crown	Lumbard, Rabiah York	Salma Bakkioui thought that she was living an idyllic life in suburbia until her best friend Mariam & her family suddenly move after a terrorist bombing. Bullied, with false accusations flying, Salma and her boyfriend go on the run when she uncovers a secret conspiracy that points to her new neighbors; however, no one believes them. She must use her coding skills to expose the truth and protect her family/friends.
Notes from a Young Black Chef: A Memoir (Adapted for Young Adults)	Delacorte Press	Onwuachi, Kwame and Joshua David Stein	Kwame Onwuachi grew up in kitchens and around food. His story talks about the struggles and joy of being black and doing what he loves: cooking.
Off the Record	Knopf Books for Young Readers	Garrett, Camryn	Josie wins a contest to interview an up-and-coming star. In the process, she learns that a famous director is a sexual predator; forcing young actresses to do things they don't want to do and using his influence to keep them quiet. Trying to decide between doing the right thing and listening to others isn't always as easy as it seems.
Once Upon a Quinceanera	HarperTeen, an imprint of HarperCollinsPublishers	Gomez-Hira, Monica	Carmen Aguilar's summer job at a party planning business becomes more difficult when she realizes she needs one last credit for her high school diploma. Enduring family relations, awkwardness with her cousin and her past relationship with Mauro, Carmen has to figure out how to get through this quinceanera.
Parachutes	Katherine Tegen Books, An imprint of HarperCollins	Yang, Kelly	Dani is on scholarship at a wealthy private school. To make ends meet, her mother hosts a wealthy exchange student from China. Claire attends Dani's school, and the two struggle to relate. Both navigate the challenges of school life from differing perspectives, but with more in common than they realize.
Pho Love Story, A	Simon & Schuster Books for Young Readers	Le, Loan	Competing Pho Restaurants and families come to a head when the children of the rival families fall in love. The teens are trying to find their own paths, away from their families and trying to discover the story behind the families long time feud.
Poisoned	Scholastic Press	Donnelly, Jennifer	On the eve of her coronation, a huntsman cuts out Sophie's heart on the order of her stepmother. Seven brothers save her, one creating a clock-like heart for her. Sophie must face incredible odds to retrieve her heart from the King of Crows and claim her throne in this Snow White retelling.
Prepped	Margaret K. McElderry Books	Mangle, Bethany	Becca lives in a doomsday prepper community. Her marriage to another member is arranged, and she is expected to stay in the community after graduating. Becca secretly applies to college and dreams of escaping. An accident sends the preppers spiraling deeper into their beliefs as Becca struggles to get out.

Princess Will Save You, The	Tor Teen	Henning, Sarah	Princess Bride fans will love this gender bending take in this fantasy adventure story, where Amarande must rescue her stableboy and avoid loveless marriage contracts.
Project, The	Wednesday Books	Summers, Courtney	Under the condition of joining his Unity Project and leaving everything behind, including her sister Lo, Lev answers Bea's prayer and "saves" Lo. Told from the point of view of Bea and Lo, now 19, as Lo tries to find Bea without getting lured into the Unity Project herself.
Pudge & Prejudice	Wander, an imprint of Tyndale House Publishers	Pittman, A.K.	Elyse is like many fifteen-year-olds: self-conscious about her body, doesn't really know where she fits in, and she's fallen in love with a boy way out of her league. None of that will stop her from making the best of things in 1984 small-town Texas.
Punching The Air 	Balzer + Bray	Zoboi, Ibi and Salaam, Yusef	A single punch leads to a fight between Amal and his friends and a group of white boys from his neighborhood. With the help of his art and people that believe in him, Amal fights for the truth.
Ravens, The	Houghton Mifflin Harcourt	Morgan, Kass and Danielle Paige	Kappa Rho Nu looks like a regular sorority on the surface however, Vivi finds out that looks can be deceiving. Told from dual view points of Vivi and Scarlett, the girls will find out what's really important.
Roman and Jewel	Inkyard Press	Davis, Dana L.	Romeo & Juliet retelling with a little hip-hop & Hamilton thrown into the mix. Betrayal, true love, paparazzi, social media, it has it all!
Rules for Being a Girl	Balzer + Bray	Bushnell, Candace and Cotugno, Katie	What does a girl do when a teacher takes it too far & no one believes her, no the school, the principal, not even her best friend? She decides to break the rules & fight back.
Rural voices : 15 authors challenge assumptions about small-town America	Candlewick Press	Carpenter, Nora Shalaway (editor)	This diverse collection of short stories depicting the lives of teens in rural America. Shatters stereotypes. Written in traditional prose, verse or graphically, the stories include teens of all genders, race, ethnicities, socio-economic statuses, etc. The only thing all these teens have in common - their homes are in rural America.
Seventh Raven, The	Houghton Mifflin Harcourt	Elliott, David	A family with seven sons prays their newborn daughter will live. The consequence: all the boys turn into ravens. All but one brother is distraught by this transformation. Robyn, though, finally feels like he's where he's meant to be. Can their sister save them? Does Robyn even want salvation?
Shine	Simon & Schuster	Jung, Jessica	All Rachel Kim's life, she has dreamed of being a K-Pop star. For the past six years, she has given her all to earn a spot in a K-Pop group; however, she learns behind the scenes that being a part of this world is not all it's cracked up to be.
Sidelined	Poppy, Little, Brown and Company	Bietz, Kara	Julian and Elijah, teenage football players, have a history. Will they finally be able to share what they mean to each other?

Sixteen Scandals	Houghton Mifflin Harcourt	Jordan, Sophie	Prim looks forward to her debut into London society on her sixteenth birthday, but her world crashes when her parents decide to wait another year. When Sophie sneaks out on her birthday with her best friend, a night of excitement and adventure ensues, including meeting an intriguing, attractive stranger.
Somewhere Between Bitter and Sweet	Little, Brown Books for Young Readers	Kemp, Laekan Zea	This book set in Austin, Texas, is full of Latinx culture, the love of food, and deals with some hard hitting issues: being undocumented, struggling with mental health issue, dealing with strained familial relationships, and going after your dreams.
Super Fake Love Song	G.P. Putnam's Sons	Yoon, David	Sunny falls for the new girl, Cirrus. Cirrus sees his brother's room, full of rock paraphernalia, and thinks it is Sunny's. Sunny perpetuates the lie that he is the lead singer of a rock band. The lies get deeper, and Sunny loves his new persona. Will the truth come out?
That Weekend	Delacorte Press	Thomas, Kara	What was supposed to be a prom weekend getaway turns into a mystery. How did Claire wake up on a mountain side and where are Kat & Jesse? As Claire tries to gain her lost memory, she learns that she may not want to gain back her memory as secrets come to light.
The Summer of Broken Rules	Sourcebooks Fire	Walther, K. L.	Meredith Fox lost her sister a year ago, and since then it feels like life is missing something. On the first family trip since her sister's death, she is trying to honor the memory of her sister and find her own way.
These Violent Delights	Margaret K. McElderry Books	Gong, Chloe	Gangsters rule the streets of 1920s Shanghai, but something dark lurks in the shadows of the glittering city. Juliette Cai and Roma Montagov, heirs to two crime empires at war with one another, will have to put aside their looming past to save a city in chaos.
They Went Left	Little, Brown and Company	Hesse, Monica	At the end of WWII, Zofia, who survived a concentration camp, holds onto hope that her little brother Abek is alive. With the help of the Russian soldier who rescued her, she tries to find a life after tragedy.
This is Not the Jess Show	Quirk Books	Carey, Anna	Jess is living her life in 1988: going to school, dealing with her sister's illness, and finding her first boyfriend. Then she uncovers a big secret that turns her life upside-down.
Time Will Tell	Little, Brown and Company	Lyga, Barry	A group of friends in a small town unearth a time capsule buried in 1986 by their fathers. Inside they discover a bloody knife with a note of apology. The foursome begin their own investigation after the sheriff (one of the fathers) doesn't show interest in pursuing it.
Truth Project, The	Quill Tree Books, an imprint of HarperCollinsPublishers	Medema, Dante	Misfit Cordelia has suspected she must be adopted. For her senior project, she decides to learn more about her genealogy. Once she gets the results of her DNA sample, she learns not just about her heritage, but a secret so big it affects her relationships with her family and friends.

Up All Night	Algonquin Young Readers	Silverman, Laura (editor)	An amazing collection of short stories that covers topics from coming of age to crushes to mixed families to mysteries. Written by today's most popular YA authors, including Karen McManus, Tiffany D. Jackson, Brady Colbert, etc.
Version Zero	G.P. Putman's Sons	Yoon, David	Max is a programmer of apps for phones. When he learns about the wrongs his company is doing, he is let go, but not before he and his best friend cause a major disruption in the service, catching the eye of a famed tech creator, one of the originals, who uses their desire to fix the wrongs of big tech to get revenge.
Watch Over Me	Dutton Books for Young Readers	LaCour, Nina	Haunted by her past, Mila, who recently aged out of foster care, has to accept the ghosts that haunt her to move forward and find what being a family truly means.
What I Carry 	Ember	Longo, Jennifer	A founding who's remained in the system, Muir's only constant in her life has been her social worker. About to age out of the system, she is placed in the home of an older woman. While there, Muir finds she is developing relationships, which is both scary and exhilarating.
Where the Road Leads Us	Sourcebooks Fire	Reul, Robin	Jack has his life after high school planned, or so he thought, and now he just needs answers. Hallie just wants to tell her friend goodbye before he dies. When their paths cross and they end up in the worst ride share ever, friendships form and futures change.
White Smoke	Katherine Tegen Books, an imprint of HarperCollinsPublishers	Jackson, Tiffany D.	What seems to be an ideal living situation for Mari & her family turns into one of horror and a race to survive. Is the house haunted or do people just want Mari and her family out? Keep the lights on when reading this one!
Yesterday is History	Sourcebooks Fire	Jackson, Kosoko	Andre's life just got weird. He finally got a life-saving new liver, but it comes with a catch: it came from a time traveler and now Andre can travel, too. Andre finds himself at his house, but more than fifty years before, with Michael, the charismatic, artistic, teenager who lives there. Complications arise as Andre goes back and forth between today and yesteryear, between Blake and Michael.
You Have A Match	Wednesday Books	Lord, Emma	When Abby takes a DNA test to help support her best friend Leo, she doesn't expect to get a match: a full blood sister. So begins Abby's quest to learn more about this mystery sister, and what it means to be a family.
You Should See Me In A Crown	Scholastic Press	Johnson, Leah	Senior year and all Liz Lightly wants to do is win one final scholarship from Pennington University Band. When the scholarship falls through she will do anything she can, even running for Prom Queen in order to achieve her dreams.