Revocation of a Waiver

The District reserves the right to remove a transfer student at any time because of unacceptable behavior or because of false or misleading information on the open enrollment application.

The Superintendent, principal, or designee shall inform the parent/guardian of behavior that jeopardizes the student's status at the transfer school. If a student's open enrollment is revoked, the parent/guardian may request an administrative review by the Superintendent. That decision may be appealed to the school board.
