Heart of the Revival

‘There Is a reality that is invisible’

This week in Heart of the Revival ... Jill Rauh writes about how time spent before the Blessed Sacrament reminded her that Jesus is always with us to mend that which is broken; Father Connor Danstrom reflects on the beauty of the funeral Mass he offered for his grandmother and the gift of offering the Eucharist to the people who loved her; and in a new video, Bishop Andrew Cozzens delivers a homily about the importance & necessity of Eucharistic Revival in our nation.

“THE WILD GOOSE: DISCOVERING A RELATIONSHIP WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT”

“Wild Goose” was a term that the ancient Celts had for the Holy Spirit. The Wild Goose Series is 14 part video series which is awakening God’s love and transforming power in the hearts of all who participate.

If you allow him, the Wild Goose will lead you on an adventure greater than you can imagine. The Spirit will lead you to a place of mercy, healing, peace, and presence. The Wild Goose series will help you experience a deeper relationship with the Person of the Holy Spirit, and as you come to experience God’s presence and power this very same Spirit will transform you and bring you freedom.

GRIEF SHARE
GRIEF RECOVERY
SUPPORT GROUPS

Blessed Trinity Church offers a GriefShare support group. For those of us who have gone through the death of a loved one, spouse, child, parent, relative or friend, you know about the suffering you feel and what you must live through.

Our Blessed Trinity GriefShare support group will meet weekly, beginning Sunday, September 11, 2022 from 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm in the Blessed Trinity School Library. Registration fee is $20.00 and includes a workbook.

If you are grieving or know of someone who is grieving please let them know about this ministry. All are welcome.

We want everyone dealing with loss to know that there is a support system set up to help you get to a more stable and secure place as you go through the process of healing.

Those interested can call the Parish Office at 305-871-5780 or go to www.griefshare.org for more information.

Greetings in the Lord!

As I shared with you last week there were four categories identified in the responses given for the Synod's consultative sessions: Formation, Community, Evangelization, and Youth. As it happens with all things in our faith they are interrelated. This week we will focus on Formation and how we are responding to that need in our Blessed Trinity Parish.

In the report one could see that there is a strong desire for parishioners to grow in their relationship with Jesus and the Church, as well as to become better equipped to share their faith with others through ongoing formation.

People expressed that they are thirsting for education, to learn about the teachings of the Church, in order to build up and defend the church (as well as basic learning such as understanding the Mass, learning how to pray, and how to go to confession). The need exists for all ages and for the different stages in life (youth, single young adults, married, families, widowed, divorced, retired, etc.). It was also mentioned that people need more access to resources (self-learning, teaching tools, videos, podcasts, music, conferences, retreats, etc.), formation that is attractive, inviting, and engaging.

Ways Blessed Trinity is Responding to Formation

Formation has been at the forefront of the activities before, during, and after the Pandemic. During 2022 we have offered formation courses in Church History, Lenten Reflections for adults and children, The Mass Explained, Life & Prayer Course, Bible Study (Spanish), formation to men through TMIY (That Man Is You), Metanoia (Young Adult Group), Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults – RCIA – classes, and Religious Education classes for all ages (K to 12th grade).

This year we also made available the on-line platform FORMED, which has lots of formation courses, retreats, and resources. During Easter we promoted the Hallow App, which helps with prayer as well as other resources accessible on the palm of your hand.

I thank the parishioners that lead these many formation activities as well as those who have participated in them.

I encourage those who have not taken advantage of the formation offered at Blessed Trinity to take a chance and make the time to grow in knowledge of Jesus Christ and His Church. The most difficult step to take is often the first one, but when we do it we experience that “the Lord does not disappoint those who take this risk; whenever we take a step towards Jesus, we come to realize that he is already there, waiting for us with open arms” (Evangelii Gaudium, 3).

In Christ,
Father Matías Hualpa

¡Saludos en Nuestro Señor Jesucristo!

Como compartí con ustedes la semana pasada, se identificaron cuatro categorías en las respuestas dadas para las sesiones de consulta del Sínodo: Formación, Comunidad, Evangelización, Juventud. Como sucede con todas las cosas en nuestra fe, están interrelacionadas. Esta semana nos enfocaremos en la Formación y cómo estamos respondiendo a esa necesidad en nuestra Parroquia Blessed Trinity.

En el informe se puede ver que hay un fuerte deseo de los feligreses de crecer en su relación con Jesús y la Iglesia, así como de estar mejor equipados para compartir su fe con los demás a través de la formación permanente.

Las personas expresaron que tienen sed de educación, de aprender sobre las enseñanzas de la Iglesia, para poder edificar y defender la iglesia (así como aprendizajes básicos como entender la Misa, aprender a orar y confesarse, etc.). La necesidad existe para todas las edades y para las diferentes etapas de la vida (jóvenes, adultos jóvenes, solteros, casados, familias, viudos, divorciados, jubilados, etc.). También se mencionó que las personas necesitan más acceso a los recursos (autoaprendizaje, herramientas de enseñanza, videos, podcasts, música, conferencias, retiros, etc.), una formación que sea atractiva y accesible.

Maneras en que la parroquia Blessed Trinity está respondiendo a la formación

La formación ha estado al frente de las actividades antes, durante y después de la pandemia. Durante 2022 hemos ofrecido cursos de formación en Estudio de Biblia, Historia de la Iglesia, Reflexiones de Cuaresma para adultos y niños, La Misa Explicada, Curso de Vida y Oración, formación a hombres a través de TMIY (Ese Hombre Eres Tú), Metanoia (Grupo de Jóvenes Adultos), Rito de Iniciación Cristiana para Adultos – RCIA – clases y clases de Educación Religiosa para todas las edades (K a 12^o grado).

Este año también pusimos a disposición la plataforma en línea FORMED, que tiene muchos cursos de formación, retiros y otros recursos. Durante Semana Santa promovimos la aplicación Hallow, que ayuda con la oración y otros recursos accesibles desde su teléfono celular.

Doy las gracias a los feligreses que lideran estas muchas actividades de formación, así como a los que han participado en ellas.

Al mismo tiempo animo a aquellos que todavía no han aprovechado la formación ofrecida en Blessed Trinity a que se arriesguen y hagan tiempo para crecer en el conocimiento de Jesucristo y Su Iglesia. El paso más difícil de dar suele ser el primero, pero cuando lo hacemos experimentamos que “el Señor no defrauda a quien se arriesga; cada vez que damos un paso hacia Jesús, nos damos cuenta de que Él ya está allí, esperándonos con los brazos abiertos” (Evangelii gaudium, 3).

En Cristo,
Padre Matías Hualpa.
