Required School Parent and Family Engagement Policy Components

The school parent and family engagement policy include a description of how the school will implement or accomplish each of the following components:

- Jointly Developed

St. Martinville Junior High will take the following actions to involve parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs, including opportunities for regular meetings, if requested by parents, to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their child and respond to any such suggestions as soon possible.

Parents will receive the Parent and Engagement Plan at the beginning of the school year via letter home and/or school website. Parents will be informed of their parental rights to be involved in the planning and development of the plan through meetings, surveys, and questionnaires. Administrators and parents will meet at the end of the academic school year with a panel of parents. This panel will be open to all. At this particular time evaluations will be completed and then used in August to present a draft of reviews from the parent evaluations.

- Annual Title I Meeting

St. Martinville Junior High will take the following actions to conduct an annual meeting, at a convenient time, and encourage and invite all parents of participating children to attend to inform them about the school's Title I program, the nature of the Title I program, the parents' requirements, the school parent and family engagement policy, the schoolwide plan, and the school-parent compact.

St. Martinville Junior High school will hold the Annual Title I meeting to inform parents of the requirements of Title I and the school's participation as well as the parents' rights to be involved. The Annual Title I meeting will not be used to ask for parent input, but provided as an opportunity to disseminate information and distribute copies of the revised parent and family engagement policy.

- Communications St. Martinville Junior High will take the following actions to provide parents of participating children the following:

- Timely information about the Title I programs,
