Handbook

For

Parents of Athletes

We believe that one of our foremost educational objectives in working with young men in a sports setting is to foster the development of responsible and ethical behavior for Athletes and Parents. We would like each athlete and parents of the athlete to become familiar with this aspect of our coaching philosophy, responsibilities and knowledge of this handbook and its contents by signing below.

If the signed form is not uploaded to ATS by the stated date, your son will be ineligible until so done.
